The Devil in History Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2014-03-14 The Devil in History is a provocative analysis of the relationship between communism and fascism Reflecting the author's personal experiences within communist totalitarianism this is a book about political passions radicalism utopian ideals and their catastrophic consequences in the twentieth century's experiments in social engineering Vladimir Tismaneanu brilliantly compares communism and fascism as competing sometimes overlapping and occasionally strikingly similar systems of political totalitarianism He examines the inherent ideological appeal of these radical revolutionary political movements the visions of salvation and revolution they pursued the value and types of charisma of leaders within these political movements the place of violence within these systems and their legacies in contemporary politics The author discusses thinkers who have shaped contemporary understanding of totalitarian movements people such as Hannah Arendt Raymond Aron Isaiah Berlin Albert Camus Francois Furet Tony Judt Ian Kershaw Leszek Kolakowski Richard Pipes and Robert C Tucker As much a theoretical analysis of the practical philosophies of Marxism Leninism and Fascism as it is a political biography of particular figures this book deals with the incarnation of diabolically nihilistic principles of human subjugation and conditioning in the name of presumably pure and purifying goals Ultimately the author claims that no ideological commitment no matter how absorbing should ever prevail over the sanctity of human life He comes to the conclusion that no party movement or leader holds the right to dictate to the followers to renounce their critical faculties and to embrace a pseudo miraculous a mystically self centered delusional vision of mandatory happiness

War and Revolution Domenico Losurdo, 2015-02-02 War and Revolution identifies and takes to task a reactionary trend among contemporary historians It is a revisionist tendency discernible in the work of authors such as Ernst Nolte who traces the impetus behind the Holocaust to the excesses of the Russian Revolution or François Furet who links the Stalinist purges to an illness originating with the French Revolution In this vigorous riposte to those who would denigrate the history of emancipatory struggle Losurdo captivates the reader with a tour de force account of modern revolt providing a new perspective on the English American French and twentieth century revolutions Media Transformations in the Post-Communist World Peter Gross, Karol Jakubowicz, 2012-10-18 Media Transformations in the Post Communist World Eastern Europe's Tortured Path to Change edited by Peter Gross and Karol Jakubowicz is a collection of analyses of Eastern European media by some of the most distinguished scholars in the field This in depth exploration shows how despite positive changes after the fall of Communism the transformations of societal institutions including the mass media have turned out to be slow uncertain and unsatisfying to many when measured against the admittedly ambiguous and overly Panglossian expectations This collection offers readers a different view of post Communist media by examining the mass media's evolution in the region from a more holistic perspective The contributors to this volume respond to essential questions including Is the post Communist transition and transformation over When can it be considered over Each chapter contributes to our understanding of these questions by offering theoretical overviews and country specific studies This collection serves as an affirmation that the study of mass media is essential to understanding the nature and workings of democracy in the long suffering nations of Central and Eastern Europe with international applications Media Transformations in the Post Communist World is an indispensable contribution to the study of Eastern Europe after Communism and the transformations of mass media in the region A Cry For Help Mipo E. Dadang, 2022-05-30 The gospel of Christ is a gospel of peace yet Christianity has not escaped the specter of religious violence The legacy of the church has not only been one of patient suffering and forgiving love but also of brutal bloodshed With tensions between Christians and non Christians on the rise in many areas of the world the question of how the church is to respond to religious violence is a pressing one encompassing issues of ecclesiology theology and missiology Dr Mipo E Dadang explores the contextual realities that have led some believers in Northern Nigeria to embrace violence as a justifiable response to persecution Drawing on extensive interviews he provides an overview of the history of the church in the region the impact of local theologies and traditions on mindsets and behaviors and the insight of local believers into the catalysts and solutions to violent conflict Alongside this phenomenological study he provides a powerful biblical and theological foundation for understanding bloodshed as a violation of God's created order He weaves together biblical teachings the example of the early church and the theology of Martin Luther to demonstrate that the people of God are called to reject prevent and eliminate violence replacing it with creative alternatives This deeply powerful book has implications for every Christian seeking to live out the gospel of Christ in peaceful co existence with their neighbors
