Migration Literature and Hybridity S. Moslund,2010-07-07 Using three literary analyses to show what happens once we leave behind the theoretical poverty of celebratory readings of contemporary migration and hybridity literature this book offers a way out of the theoretical deadlock of putting hybridity against purity or flux against fixity Counterpoints Stephanie Tara Schwartz,May Telmissany,2010-03-08 Revolving around the theme of counterpoint extensively used by Edward Said as the interplay of diverse ideas and discrepant experiences this book aims to explore Said s contribution to the fields of comparative literature literary criticism postcolonial theory exilic and transnational studies and socio political thought among many others Overshadowed by his legitimate political positions in support to the Palestinian cause and at odds with Islamophobic hostilities Said s intellectual achievements in the fields of humanities and philosophical thinking should equally be acknowledged and celebrated Said articulates his notion of counterpoints through a vivid description of the composition of Western classical music In the counterpoint of Western classical music various themes play off one another with only a provisional privilege being given to any particular one yet in the resulting polyphony there is concert and order an organized interplay that derives from the themes not from a rigorous melodic or formal principle outside the work This book pays tribute to Said s contrapuntal methodology as well as to his academic and humanistic legacy The Child in World Cinema Debbie Olson,2018-02-19 This collection seeks to broaden the discussion of the child image by close analysis of the child and childhood as depicted in non Western cinemas Each essay offers a counter narrative to Western notions of childhood by looking critically at alternative visions of childhood that does not privilege a Western ideal Rather this collection seeks to broaden our ideas about children childhood and the child s place in the global community This collection features a wide variety of contributors from around the world who offer compelling analyses of non Western non Hollywood films starring children Post-Traumatic Art in the City Isabelle de le Court,2020-11-26 Post Traumatic Art in the City comprises an original analysis of the nexus of war art and urban society in two specific contexts late 20th century Beirut and Sarajevo With an emphasis on conceptions of the post traumatic De le Court explores how cities and art are mutually formative in war and post war contexts providing unique insight into the politically and psychologically driven art scenes from within the works of art themselves Grounded in close analyses and new research the book makes an important contribution to the fields of art history and trauma studies      Edward Said's Translocations Tobias Doring, Mark Stein, 2012-04-27 Working with processes of translocation enabled Edward Said to point out interdependence and complementarity across geographical borders and disciplinary boundaries while recognizing cultural difference and the distinct historical experiences of colonizer and colonized This book brings into focus Said's politics of reading from his literary criticism in English to his political columns in Arabic The international contributors from Britain Egypt France Germany India Switzerland and the United States investigate his intellectual legacies without necessarily identifying themselves with the critical positions these involve Instead of treating his work as a unitary theoretical system the various arguments explored offer a critical assessment of those situations in which his writing has entered into a productive relationship with other theoretical positions and interlocutors The collection considers location which has always been a central category in and for Said's writing readings which designates the acts by which according to Said the world comes to be constituted and legacies which pertains to the many fields across the boundaries of established academic disciplines that have taken up Said's challenges The critical positions visited in this book include critical and cultural theory postcolonialism literary studies theatre and performance studies and visual and music studies      Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women's writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance      European Literary Immigration into the French Language Tijana Miletic, 2008-01-01 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption

Between German and Hebrew Lina Barouch, 2016-04-11 This book traces the German Hebrew contact zones in which Gershom Scholem Werner Kraft and Ludwig Strauss lived and produced their creative work in early twentieth century Germany and later in British Mandate Palestine after their voluntary or forced migration in the 1920s and 1930s Set in shifting historical contexts and literary debates the notion of the German vernacular nation Hebraism and Jewish Revival in Weimar Germany the crisis of language in modernist literature and the fledgling multilingual communities in Jerusalem the writings of Scholem Kraft and Strauss emerge as unique forms of counterlanguage The three chapters of the book are dedicated to Scholem's Hebraist lamentation Kraft's Germanist steadfastness and Strauss's polyglot dialogue respectively The examination of their correspondences diaries scholarship and literary oeuvres demonstrates how counteractive writing practices helped confront concrete and metaphorical crises of language to produce compelling alternatives to literary silence amnesia or paralysis that were prompted by cultural marginality and dislocation

Posthumanist Nomadisms across Non-Oedipal Spatiality Java Singh, Indrani Mukherjee, 2022-02-22 As an epistemological perspective nomadism is an emerging field of scholarship offering intersectionality with eco criticism feminism post colonialism migration studies and translation Much of the scholarship that uses the precepts of nomadism to read cultural texts and phenomena is scattered as separate articles in academic journals or as single chapters in books wherein the primary focus is the intersectional fields Few book length publications solely focus on the ramifications of nomadism Posthumanist Nomadisms across non Oedipal Spatiality fills that void The fifteen chapters in this volume explore the possibilities offered by the nomadic perspective to explore a wide range of literary and cultural texts organized into three sections Nomadic Assemblages Non Oedipal Cartographies and Space Time Montages that work as one to negate absorption into the interiority of sovereign territory These sections are not an attempt at corralling the nomadic spirit into separate enclosures instead they are bands of warriors that operate the violence of the hunted animal dehumanized human others and earth others The chapters are in constant multi vocal conversations with narratives that camp on the turbulent weathers of global transitory spaces They charter real or intellectual turfs of interstitial rhizomatic nomadic epistemologies as political resistance to the exclusionary practices of a violently wired world This book will appeal to post graduate students researchers and faculty in the departments of literature comparative literary and cultural studies Researchers in sociology cultural anthropology gender studies and migration studies will also find the material applicable to the expanding approaches available in their fields
