

REFLECTING ON THE PAST YEAR

1. If you had to describe the past year in one word, what word would you choose? What events made you choose that word?
2. What were your achievements from the past year that made you most proud?
3. Which events from the past year proved to be most challenging? How did you deal with them?
4. In what ways did your life move closer towards the life for which you are aiming?
5. What brought you joy this past year?
6. Who helped you grow over the past year?
7. What caused you most stress and how did you cope with stressors?
8. How active were you during the past year? Were you as active as you planned to be?
9. In what ways did you positively impact those around you?
10. If you were handed a re-do, what would you change from last year?

Reflections of the Past Myrtle Stump, Nancy Caroline "Lina" James, R. J. Rein, 2021-12-10 Have you ever thought about starting a memory book for your descendants but the task seems too overwhelming Reflections of the Past contains stories and thought provoking questions that will inspire you to write about your childhood and the journey you ve taken so far The book was compiled by a great granddaughter who learned the importance of recording family history by reading her great grandmother's journals. These memory books written by Myrtle James Stump describe what life was like in the late 1800s when people traveled by covered wagons, boats, and trains hauled their drinking water from a spring and washed their clothes in kettles in the yard. The prompts at the end of each story will guide you to document your own life experiences. You may write in the space provided or start your own book. Future generations will be glad you did.
