Reform Of Public Spending For Agriculture:

The Reform of Public Expenditures for Agriculture Bonni J. Van Blarcom, Odin Knudsen, John Nash, 1993-01-01

Strategic Reforms for Agricultural Growth in Pakistan Rashid Faruquee, 1999 Future prospects for the agricultural sector in Pakistan depend on its ability to increase output and income of producers Agriculture remains the backbone of the Pakistani economy employing more than half the labor force and accounting for 70 per cent of export revenues However agriculture faces two sets of constraints in Pakistan resource constraints and policy distortions This volume deals with the major resource and policy constraints currently facing Pakistani agriculture Government involvement in Pakistan s agricultural sector has been excessive and often inappropriate and agricultural reforms are a key part of the adjustment program underway in Pakistan Some of the principal goals of the program are to ensure a sound and sustainable macroeconomic framework with sustainable internal and external balances to liberalize trade privatize government owned enterprises deregulate and eliminate public sector monopolies and to reform the financial sector The agricultural sector can contribute to the Pakistani economy and to the adjustment program Agriculture has the potential to make a larger contribution to total revenue and plays an important role in external balances A favorable climate gives Pakistan a strong comparative advantage in horticulture as indicated by the rapid growth of the subsector in the absence of policy interventions Agriculture in Liberalizing Economies DINA L. UMALI, Charles Maguire, 1995 Discusses ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined This report presents the proceedings of the 14th World Bank Agricultural Symposium held in January 1994 The papers explore ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined They also capitalize on important lessons emerging from experiences around the world The report suggests that changing the role of government from market domination towards the provision of a regulatory framework that facilitates private sector activity is an ongoing process rather than a one time occurrence The papers also illustrate the wide variety of issues and the different approaches in the various countries that are redefining the role of government in agricultural development Economic Reforms and Food Security Suresh

Babu, Ashok Gulati, 2005-03-08 Gain new insight on alleviating food insecurity in one of the poorest areas of the world This book analyzes various facets of economic reforms in South Asia and their implications for attaining food security It illuminates relevant issues regarding the constraints and challenges in achieving food security focusing on South Asian countries where a large percentage of the world s poor reside This timely resource examines possible future courses of action involving trade and new technological advances to improve agriculture led development in the region Economic Reforms and Food Security The Impact of Trade and Technology in South Asia focuses its attention on the economic reforms and experiences of six nations Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka Economic Reforms and Food Security The Impact of Trade and Technology in South Asia includes the most relevant presentations made at the South Asia Regional Conference held in New Delhi in April of 2002 The book features experts who present lively important debate on such significant issues as current economic reforms have they really enhanced food security trade liberalization can the WTO and new trade opportunities handle food security concerns new technological options how they contribute to agricultural production and food security the challenges of water pricing subsidies and other issues in irrigation agricultural diversification and market reforms how they increase food availability interventions in food and nutrition security short term solutions to reduce food insecurity and more Economic Reforms and Food Security The Impact of Trade and Technology in South Asia contains numerous tables and figures to demonstrate the current food situation in this area of the world and offers projections of where improvements can be made Students and faculty of economics or South Asia will find this book extremely useful it will also benefit development researchers policymakers and governmental officials who are searching for answers to poverty and starvation in developing countries This text shows you how a concerted effort by governments agencies organizations industries and individuals backed by adequate resources and changes in policies can accelerate progress toward achieving sustainable food security for all Trade Reforms and Food Security Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2006-01-01 The links between trade related policy reforms and food security is of key concern to many developing countries This publication sets out the findings of 15 country case studies from Cameroon Chile China Ghana Guatemala Guyana India Kenya Malawi Morocco Nigeria Peru Senegal Tanzania and Uganda The coverage includes countries at different stages of development with the main focus on low income countries that are likely to be at greater risk of food insecurity The studies examine the impact of trade related policy reforms on agricultural prices production and trade and the consequences for food security issues for each country Eight Lectures on India's Economic Reforms T.N. Srinivasan,2000-02-04 The book comprises eight lectures delivered by T N Srinivasan at ISEC Bangalore in 1998 The short lectures succinctly describe the reform process since the early 1990s covering the framework and process of reform in each sector of the economy Pakistan's Agriculture Sector Rashid Faruquee,1995

Agricultural Development in Brazil Antonio M. Buainain,Rodrigo Lanna,Zander Navarro,2019-05-20 In the last few decades Brazilian agriculture has experienced a seismic transformation and its contradictory facets have fed different and opposing narratives regarding recent changes This book covers these changes exploring the issues from several empirical and analytical angles including the role of agriculture in the contemporary Brazilian economy the dynamics of Brazilian agricultural value chains environmental challenges and the processes of social differentiation Brazilian agriculture continues to be viewed in the international literature either through the lenses of the past century those of former problems relating to land use and land tenure or apologetically This collection of essays aims at updating the current interpretations providing objective accounting of the main transformations its determinants results contradictions and limitations As it covers the most relevant traits of Brazilian agricultural and rural development the book will provide the reader with an encompassing view of contemporary Brazilian agriculture including the positive and negative sides of the so called tropical agriculture revolution It highlights the tremendous economic potential as well as the continuing structural heterogeneity concentration of production and marginalization of millions of small farmers Written in an engaging and accessible style this book will be perfect for all those interested in learning about Brazilian agriculture It will be of particular interest to undergraduate and graduate students of economic development agricultural economics rural sociology comparative economic development rural development and agricultural policies Agricultural Public Spending in Nigeria Tewodaj Mogues, Michael Morris, Lev Freinkman, Abimbola Adubi, and Simeon Ehui, with Chinedum Nwoko, Olufemi Taiwo, Caroline Nege, Patrick Okonji, and Louis Chete, Public Expenditures for Agricultural and Rural Development in Africa Tewodaj Mogues, Samuel Benin, 2012-03-15 Whereas there is plenty of work looking at macroeconomic effect of public spending on growth and poverty in Africa as well as studies of the impact of spending or investment in one economic sector on outcomes in that sector or on broader welfare measures this book fills a much needed gap in the research looking how the composition of public spending affects key development outcomes in the region The book brings together recent analysis on the trends in and returns to public spending for agricultural growth and rural development in Africa Case studies of selected African countries provide insights on the contributions of different types of public expenditures for poverty growth and welfare outcomes as well as insights into the constraints in gaining development mileage from investments in the agricultural sector
