

Reformation vs Counterreformation in History

- Luther, in contrast to Erasmus, had an unchangeable nature. Luther said: "If you do not contend with your whole heart against the impious government of the pope, you cannot be saved. Whoever takes delight in the religion and worship of popery, will be eternally lost in the world to come. If you reject it, you must expect to incur every kind of danger, and even to lose your lives. But it is far better to be exposed to such perils in this world than to keep silence! So long as I live, I will denounce to my brethren the sore and the plague of Babylon, for fear that many who are with us should fall back like the rest into the bottomless pit!" Cited in History of the Reformation, b. 6, ch. 5, p. 208.
- "In proportion as he beheld Rome rising up against the friends of the Reformation, he prudently retreated. He was applied to from all quarters; the pope, the emperor, kings, princes, scholars, and even his most intimate friends, entreated him to write against the reformer. No work," wrote the pope, "can be more acceptable to God, and worthier of yourself and of your genius. Isaiah 41-42."
