Reimagining God Johanna W. H.

Van Wijk-Bos,1995-01-01 Johanna van Wijk Bos examines alternatives to the dominant male language associated with God in the Bible Focusing primarily on the Hebrew Bible Transforming Spirituality F. LeRon Shults,Steven J. Sandage,2006-06 Explores the concept of spiritual transformation through the lenses of theology and psychology God Remembered Rachel Jenni Williams,2013-01-23 The women of the Old Testament are brought to life afresh in this compelling and sensitive retelling of their stories in a feminist and Christian context Williams both celebrates affirming texts and tackles the challenge of difficult ones Her wide ranging treatment of varied stories about very different women reveal the rich tapestry of interweaving texts about women contained in the Old Testament and the patriarchal agendas that shaped them Whilst they belong to a different time culture and set of values Williams draws out their evergenerative capacity to afford us insight for today s church and world Katharine Dell Fellow and Director of Studies in Theology University of Cambridge Some of these texts delight some horrify and some perplex but under Williams careful tutelage we are challenged to reflect afresh on how it is these texts continue to address us today David G Firth Lecturer in Old Testament and Director of Research St John s College Nottingham Authentic Congregations William H. Hopper,2000-01-01 Using case studies of authentic congregations diverse Presbyterian congregations that are responding creatively and effectively in their social contexts William Hopper draws insights for all congregations desiring more vital worship service and witness He offers wisdom for congregations about how to engage controversial issues and develop faithful ministries in challenging times

Feminism and Christianity Lynn Japinga,1999 Some have raised the question Is it possible at the same time to be a Christian and a feminist Japinga asks the question a bit differently Is it possible not to be Like the other titles in the Essential Guides series the purpose of this book is simple to introduce college and seminary students to the basic questions and issues that arise from a feminist interpretation of Christianity The author explores the central ideas of Christian feminism including its critique of patriarchy in Christianity and its recovery of the presence actions and ideas of women What has been troublesome in Christianity for feminists and why How have Christian feminists dealt with these issues What resources are there in Christianity for the empowering and encouragement of women Beginning with an examination of women and the Bible the book explores biblical texts which define women negatively as well as those which emphasize women s strengths and ability and then outlines the various feminist approaches to the interpretation of Scripture It then moves to an overview of women in the history of Christianity and specifically of religion in America presenting both prevailing attitudes about women and the usually unheard stories of women After surveying the main questions a feminist method brings to the study of theology Japinga then explores certain theological questions How do we speak of God Who is Christ What does it mean to be human Written from a moderate feminist perspective this book provides a broad overview of feminist approaches to theological disciplines It emphasizes consensual scholarship rather than points of controversy It acquaints students with feminist analysis by way of the central themes common to feminist approaches to several disciplines and introduces readers to this material in ways that lessen the possibility that they will be threatened intimidated or angered by it While the book offers professors an affordable and accessible textbook choice it is also accessible for lay study groups in congregations

Ancient Taboos and Gender Prejudice Leonie B. Liveris, 2017-03-02 This book explores the struggling genesis of a women's movement in the Orthodox Church through the ecumenical movement of the twentieth century at a time when militant conservatism is emerging in Orthodox countries and fundamentalism in the diaspora Offering an understanding of the participation of women in the Orthodox Church particularly during the 50 years of the membership of the Orthodox churches in the World Council of Churches this book contributes to the ongoing debates and feminist analysis of women's participation ministry and sexuality in the life and practice of the Church universal The book reveals both the positive contributions to ecumenism and the difficulties confronting Orthodox women wishing to participate more fully in the leadership and ministry of their church
