Refracting The Canon In Contemporary British Literature And Film:

Refracting the Canon in Contemporary British Literature and Film Susana Onega Jaén, Christian Gutleben, 2004

Contemporary works of art that remodel the canon not only create complex hybrid and plural products but also alter our perceptions and understanding of their source texts This is the dual process referred to in this volume as refraction that the essays collected here set out to discuss and analyse by focusing on the dialectic rapport between postmodernism and the canon What is sought in many of the essays is a redefinition of postmodernist art and a re examination of the canon in the light of contemporary epistemology Given this dual process this volume will be of value both to everyone interested in contemporary art particularly fiction drama and film and also to readers whose aim it is to promote a better appreciation of canonical British literature

Crime Fiction Migration Christiana

Gregoriou, 2017-07-27 Crime narratives form a large and central part of the modern cultural landscape This book explores the cognitive stylistic processing of prose and audiovisual fictional crime texts It also examines instances where such narratives find themselves through popular demand migrating meaning that they cross languages media formats and or cultures In doing so Crime Fiction Migration proposes a move from a monomodal to a multimodal approach to the study of crime fiction Examining original crime fiction works alongside their translations adaptations and remakings proves instrumental in understanding how various semiotic modes interact with one another The book analyses works such as We Need to Talk About Kevin The Killing trilogy and the reimaginings of plays such as Shear Madness and films such as Funny Games Crime fiction is consistently popular and on the move witness the spate of detective series exported out of Scandinavia or the ever popular exporting of these shows from the USA This multimodal and semiotically aware analysis of global crime narratives expands the discipline and is key reading for students of linguistics criminology literature and film

Rewriting the Victorians Andrea Kirchknopf,2013-05-28 The 19th century has become especially relevant for the present as one can see from for example large scale adaptations of written works as well as the explosion of commodities and even interactive theme parks This book is an introduction to the novelistic refashionings that have come after the Victorian age with a special focus on revisions of Charlotte Bronte s Jane Eyre and Charles Dickens s Great Expectations As post Victorian research is still in the making the first part is devoted to clarifying terminology and interpretive contexts Two major frameworks for reading post Victorian fiction are developed the literary scene authors readers critics and the national identity political and social aspects Among the works examined are Caryl Phillips s Cambridge Matthew Kneale s English Passengers Peter Carey s Oscar and Lucinda and Jack Maggs Lloyd Jones s Mister Pip Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea D M Thomas s Charlotte and Jasper Fforde s The Eyre Affair The Poetics of Otherness and Transition in Naomi Alderman's Fiction José M. Yebra,2020-01-28 This is the first book on Naomi Alderman s literary production and highlights the writer s transcultural recasting of British and Jewish traditions The four novels analysed here prove to be relevant not only from a literary viewpoint but also from the fields of ethics spirituality and politics The analysis thus focuses on issues such as alterity and respect towards the other in a globalized context As such the book will be of interest to literary critics researchers and students in the fields of literature ethics and social and cultural studies The reader will find in the text a comprehensive approach to a young writer who undoubtedly deserves attention given her interrogation of varied and socially relevant topics including gender and sexual orientation in the early twenty first century the rewriting of the Sacred Scriptures and the

New Literatures of Old Dídac Llorens-Cubedo, José Ramón

Prado-Pérez, 2009-05-27 Artistic creativity is fuelled by the permanent interaction among artistic forms cultures societies and eventually different individuals in the form of an all inclusive intertextuality The dialogues between the past and the present help the artist examine his own art making him conscious of his position in the field whether through self evaluation renewal or experiment with new textualities This book explores how the strategies reflecting the exchanges between past and present modes of artistic production become active agents of intervention in creating the various spaces of dialogue and confrontation when establishing the identities and cultural specificity of a certain society or community Edinburgh
