Networks of Refugees from Nazi Germany, 2016-08-01 This volume focuses on coalitions and collaborations formed by refugees from Nazi Germany in their host countries Exile from Nazi Germany was a global phenomenon involving the expulsion and displacement of entire families organizations and communities While forced emigration inevitable meant loss of familiar structures and surroundings successful integration into often very foreign cultures was possible due to the exiles ability to access and or establish networks By focusing on such networks rather than on individual experiences the contributions in this volume provide a complex and nuanced analysis of the multifaceted interacting factors of the exile experience This approach connects the NS exile to other forms of displacement and persecution and locates it within the ruptures of civilization dominating the twentieth and twenty first centuries Contributors are Dieter Adolph Jacob Boas Margit Franz Katherine Holland Birgit Maier Katkin Leonie Marx Wolfgang Mieder Thomas Schneider Helga Schreckenberger Swen Steinberg Karina von Tippelskirch J rg Thunecke Jacqueline Vansant and Veronika Zwerger

Placeless People Lyndsey Stonebridge, 2018-11-10 In 1944 the political philosopher and refugee Hannah Arendt wrote Everywhere the word exile which once had an undertone of almost sacred awe now provokes the idea of something simultaneously suspicious and unfortunate Today s refugee crisis has its origins in the political and imaginative history of the last century Exiles from other places have often caused trouble for ideas about sovereignty law and nationhood But the meanings of exile changed dramatically in the twentieth century This book shows just how profoundly the calamity of statelessness shaped modern literature and thought For writers such as Hannah Arendt Franz Kafka W H Auden George Orwell Samuel Beckett Simone Weil among others the outcasts of the twentieth century raised vital questions about sovereignty humanism and the future of human rights Placeless People argues that we urgently need to reconnect with the moral and political imagination of these first chroniclers of the placeless condition

Constructive Anarchy Jeff Shantz, 2016-05-23 Constructive Anarchy the result of more than a decade of direct study within a variety of anarchist projects provides the most wide ranging and detailed analysis of current anarchist endeavours The compelling discussions of anarchism and union organising anti poverty work and immigrant and refugee defence represent truly groundbreaking undertakings from a rising scholar of contemporary anarchism Organised to illustrate the development of the diversity of anarchist strategies and tactics over time the book begins with a discussion of alternative media projects before turning attention to anarchist involvement in broader community based movements Case studies include a discussion of anarchists and rank and file workplace organising anarchist anti borders struggles and No One Is Illegal movements in defence of immigrants and refugees since 9 11 and anarchist free schools and community centres Jeff Shantz s analysis demonstrates serious and grounded practices rooted in anarchist organising practices that may draw on previous traditions and practices but also innovate and experiment The varied selection of case studies allows the author to compare groups that are geared primarily towards anarchist and radical subcultures with anarchist involvement in more diverse community based coalitions an approach that is otherwise lacking in the literature on contemporary anarchism Refugee Imaginaries Emma

Matthew Frank,Jessica Reinisch,2017-09-21 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Refugees in Europe 1919 1959 offers a new history of Europe s mid 20th century as seen through its recurrent refugee crises By bringing together in one volume recent research on a range of different contexts of groups of refugees and refugee policy it sheds light on the common assumptions that underpinned the history of refugees throughout the period under review The essays foreground the period between the end of the First World War which inaugurated a series of new international structures to deal with displaced populations and the late 1950s when Europe s home grown refugee problems had supposedly been solved and attention shifted from the identification of an exclusively European refugee problem to a global one Borrowing from E H Carr s The Twenty Years Crisis first published in 1939 the editors of this volume test the idea that the two post war eras could be represented as a single crisis of a European dominated international order of nation states in the face of successive refugee crises which were both the direct consequence of that system and a challenge to it Each of the chapters reflects on the utility and limitations of this notion of a forty years crisis for understanding the development of specific national and international responses to refugees in the mid 20th century Contributors to the volume also provide alternative readings of the history of an international refugee regime in which the non European and colonial world are assigned a central role in the narrative German Exile Politics Lewis J.
