Reg Dist Foreign Manu Invest Uk:

The Regional Distribution of Foreign Manufacturing Investment in the UK Stephen Hill, Max Munday, 2016-07-27
The book considers the determinants of the regional distribution of foreign manufacturing investment in the UK The core theme of the book is that foreign firms coming to the UK seek in their location decision to minimise their costs of production This minimisation of production costs is constrained by the need to ensure that they are adjacent to their key markets whether these be in the UK or wider EC Moody's Manual of Investments: American and Foreign ,1926 The Geography of Multinationals (RLE International Business) Michael Taylor, Nigel Thrift, 2013-04-02 Through a series of international case studies the nature and the geographical implications of the development of multinational corporations is examined The volume concentrates on the latter Post War period of corporate restructuring and readjustment in response to world wide recession in the mid 1980s The volume is divided into two parts In the first each of the chapters considers a particular aspect of the problem of how multinational corporations have developed In the second part the chapters consider different aspects of the economic and social impacts of these corporations The common theme that links all the papers is their emphasis on careful historical analysis of different forms of spatial organisation and their transformation into other different forms
