Regarding Equality Ellen M. Freeberg, 2002-02-11 Regarding Equality offers an innovative and controversial analysis of the relationship between equality and pluralism Tackling an issue central to modern political thought Freeberg highlights the struggle to characterize citizens as equals while respecting their moral religious and cultural diversity The work ably contrasts and critiques the prevailing models for balancing equality with pluralism from thinkers Amartya Sen Martha Nussbaum John Rawls Amy Gutmann Dennis Thompson Michael Oakeshott and Drucilla Cornell From these liberal democratic and conservative approaches to equality and pluralism Freeberg builds a theory of responsive regard reciprocal civility between citizens that forms a chastened conception of what we share as free and equal persons This work will greatly add to political theorists and philosophers arsenals of concepts for egalitarian and democratic theory The Limits of Gendered Citizenship Elżbieta H. Oleksy, Jeff Hearn, Dorota Golańska, 2011-02-01 The underlying theme of this edited collection is gendered citizenship as well as the challenges and limits that confront the gendering of citizenship It critiques the notion of the genderless nation state citizen in both analytical and policy terms and contexts and necessarily engages with at least three major sets of contradictions or tensions limitations on achieving gender equal or gender equitable citizenship relations and differences between gender equality policy diversity policy and gender mainstreaming and interplays of academic analyses of and practical interventions on gendered citizenship Contributors from diverse scientific disciplines and academic backgrounds aim to provide a better understanding of the challenges that societies within Europe and elsewhere face vis vis diversity regionalism transnationalism and migration Cities, Violence and Gender: Findings and Concepts of the 21st Century Anelise Gregis Estivalet, Gabriel Dvoskin, 2022-10-21 ICGR 2018 International Conference on Gender Research Dr Ana Azevedo, Dr Anabela Mesquita, 2018-04-12 The Advocate of Peace , 1907 Handbook of the Sociology of Education Maureen T. Hallinan, 2006-11-24 The aim of the Handbook of Sociology of Education is to present the most theoretically grounded and empirically rigorous sociological analyses of schools to date The authors are distinguished researchers in the field Their contributions to the Handbook offer major theoretical perspectives on the schooling process and describe significant empirical studies of schools and their effects on individuals and society The research presented in the Handbook is built on three fundamental tenets of sociology First the authors adopt the perspective that schools are a central institution in society An understanding of the function of schooling in social life is enhanced by viewing schools as interrelated with other societal institutions The study of how the context of schooling influences education processes is critical to an understanding of school outcomes Rather than being determined solely by ascribed and achieved characteristics an individual's cognitive and social development are influenced heavily by the structures and networks in which the individual is embedded Communities families schools and social groups are critical elements in the educative process By viewing the school as a societal institution and highlighting the interaction between context and individual behavior the Handbook chapters provide a broader and deeper understanding of the determinants of learning in contemporary society The second sociological insight that guides the research in the Handbook is that the school is a social system Political Economy of Socialism Branko Horvat, 2020-10-07 This book is an exploration into the uncharted territory of social reality It explores social relations and politics presenting a critique of contemporary socioeconomic systems and discussions on the Marxist Doctrine of Transition The book is intended to meet Robert Heilbroner's request Encyclopedia of Human Rights Edward H.
