Gabriel Faure Edward R. Phillips, 2021-10-28 First published in 2000 Gabriel Urbain Faure was born 12 May 1845 in Pamiers in the south of France Faure's compositional style has proven difficult to classify Some music historians consider him a figure of the nineteenth century a traditionalist even a neo romantic others consider him part of the twentieth century at the least a predecessor of modern French music or at the other extreme a quiet revolutionary and a great influence upon France's musical future This research guide offers a selective annotated list of writings biographical information and lists of works and photographs

The Faure Song Cycles Stephen Rumph, 2020-09-29 Gabriel Faure's melodies offer an inexhaustible variety of style and expression that have made them the foundation of the French art song repertoire During the second half of his long career Faure composed all but a handful of his songs within six carefully integrated cycles Faure moved systematically through his poetic contemporaries exhausting Baudelaire's Les fleurs du mal before immersing himself in the Parnassian poets He would set nine poems by Armand Silvestre in swift succession 1878-84 seventeen by Paul Verlaine 1887-94 and eighteen by Charles Van Lerberghe 1906-14 As an artist deeply engaged with some of the most important cultural issues of the period Faure reimagined his musical idiom with each new poet and school and his song cycles show the same sensitivity to the poetic material Far more than Debussy Ravel or Poulenc he crafted his song cycles as integrated works reordering poems freely and using narratives key schemes and even leitmotifs to unify the individual songs The Faure Song Cycles explores the peculiar vision behind each synthesis of music and verse revealing the astonishing imagination and insight of Faure's musical readings This book offers not only close readings of Faure's musical works but an interdisciplinary study of how he responded to the changing schools and aesthetic currents of French poetry
