Saving Languages:

Saving Languages Lenore A. Grenoble, Lindsay J. Whaley, 2005-11-03 Language endangerment has been the focus of much attention and as a result a wide range of people are working to revitalize and maintain local languages This book serves as a general reference guide to language revitalization written not only for linguists and anthropologists but also for language activists and community members who believe they should ensure the future use of their languages despite their predicted loss Drawing extensively on case studies it sets out the necessary background and highlights central issues such as literacy policy decisions and allocation of resources Its primary goal is to provide the essential tools for a successful language revitalization program such as setting and achieving realistic goals and anticipating and resolving common obstacles Clearly written and informative Saving Languages will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in the fate of small language communities around the globe

Language Documentation Lenore A. Grenoble, 2010 Language documentation also often called documentary linguistics is a relatively new subfield in linguistics which has emerged in part as a response to the pressing need for collecting describing and archiving material on the increasing number of endangered languages The present book details the most recent developments in this rapidly developing field with papers written by linguists primarily based in academic institutions in North America although many conduct their fieldwork elsewhere The articles in this volume position papers and case studies focus on some of the most critical issues in the field These include 1 the nature of contributions to linguistic theory and method provided by documentary linguistics including the content appropriate for documentation 2 the impact and demands of technology in documentation 3 matters of practice in collaborations among linguists and communities and in the necessary training of students and community members to conduct documentation activities and 4 the ethical issues involved in documentary linguistics

Hornberger, 2008-04-01 This volume offers a close look at four cases of indigenous language revitalization Maori in Aotearoa New Zealand Saami in Scandinavia H h in Mexico and Quechua and other indigenous languages in Latin America Essays by experts from each case are in turn discussed in international perspective by four counterpart experts

Handbook of Teaching and Learning Persian as a Second Language Hooman Saeli, 2025-09-26 This collection explores relevant pedagogical and sociolinguistic topics in the teaching and learning of Persian as a foreign and second language Owing to the dearth of research in many areas pertaining to the teaching and learning of Persian this handbook provides empirically supported insights into various aspects of these areas While the literature on teaching and learning Persian is growing the field lacks a cohesive collection on Persian as a foreign second language The book addresses issues pertaining to the standardization and validation of teaching and assessment methods which remain under explored in the contexts of teaching and learning Persian It also covers the teaching of Persian pragmatics the use of corpora as well as a range of different areas within linguistics including phonetics prosody and historical linguistics This comprehensive collection contributes substantially to the scientific study of many aspects of teaching and learning Persian which have been neglected for decades A must have text in Persian language pedagogy and Persian sociolinguistics it an essential book for those in teaching and learning in Persian language programs worldwide Attitudes to Endangered Languages Julia Sallabank,2013-12-19 An in depth study of endangered language revitalisation which assesses the implications of changing language attitudes for language campaigners and policy makers Translating in Linguistically Diverse Societies Gabriel González Núñez,2016-09-09 This work is the first book length treatment on translation policy Nearly everywhere in the world populations are multilingual and mobile consequently language policies developed by the authorities must include choices about the use or non use of translation This book recognizes that these choices or the absence thereof become policies of their own in terms of translation It builds upon the work of scholars in the fields of translation studies and language planning and policy in order to develop a new theoretical perspective on translation policy In essence the book proposes that translation policy can be understood as the management practice and beliefs surrounding the use of translation The book deals with these issues under European and international law and then explores such management practice and beliefs in the UK as a case study Ultimately the reader can find a fuller appreciation of both the importance and complexity of translation policy Indigenous Language Acquisition, Maintenance, and Loss and Current Language Policies Okamura, Toru,Kai, Masumi,2020-08-28 The world s linguistic map has changed in recent years due to the vast disappearance of indigenous languages Many factors affect the alteration of languages in various areas of the world including governmental policies education and colonization As indigenous languages continue to be affected by modern influences there is a need for research on the current state of native linguistics that remain across the globe Indigenous Language Acquisition Maintenance and Loss and Current Language Policies is a collection of innovative research on the diverse policies influences and frameworks of indigenous languages in various regions of the world It discusses the maintenance attrition or loss of the indigenous languages language status in the society language policies and the grammatical characteristics of the indigenous language that people maintained and spoke This book is ideally designed for anthropologists language professionals linguists cultural researchers geographers educators government officials policymakers academicians and students Exactly What I Said Elizabeth Yeoman,2022-05-13 You don t have to use the exact same words But it has to mean exactly what I said Thus began the ten year collaboration between Innu elder and activist Tshaukuesh Elizabeth Penashue and Memorial University professor Elizabeth Yeoman that produced the celebrated Nitinikiau Innusi I Keep the Land Alive an English language edition of Penashue s journals originally written in Innu aimun during her decades of struggle for Innu sovereignty Exactly What I Said Translating Words and Worlds reflects on that collaboration and what Yeoman learned from it It is about naming mapping and storytelling about photographs collaborative authorship and voice about walking together on the land and what can be learned along the way Combining theory with personal narrative Yeoman weaves together ideas memories and experiences of home and place of stories and songs of looking and listening to interrogate the challenges and ethics of translation Examining what it means to relate whole worlds across the boundaries of language culture and history Exactly What I Said offers an accessible engaging reflection on respectful and responsible translation and collaboration

Language Variety in the New South Jeffrey Reaser, Eric Wilbanks, Karissa Wojcik, Walt Wolfram, 2018-03-15 Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines to assess the use and meaning of language in the South a region rich in dialects and variants this comprehensive edited collection reflects the cutting edge research presented at the fourth decennial meeting of Language Variety in the South in 2014 Focusing on the ongoing changes and surprising continuities associated with the contemporary South the contributors use innovative methodologies to pave new pathways for understanding the social dynamics that shape the language in the South today Along with the editors contributors to the volume include Agnes Bolonyai Katie Carmichael Phillip M Carter Becky Childs Danica Cullinan Nathalie Dajko Catherine Evans Davies Robin Dodsworth Hartwell S Francis Kirk Hazen Anne H Charity Hudley Neal Hutcheson Alex Hyler Mary Kohn Christian Koops William A Kretzschmar Jr Sonja L Lanehart Andrew Lynch Ayesha M Malik Christine Mallinson Jim Michnowicz Caroline Myrick Michael D Picone Dennis R Preston Paul E Reed Joel Schneier James Shepherd Erik R Thomas Sonya Trawick and Tracey L Weldon Language as a Local Practice Alastair Pennycook, 2010-04-05 Language as a Local Practice addresses the questions of language locality and practice as a way of moving forward in our understanding of how language operates as an integrated social and spatial activity By taking each of these three elements language locality and practice and exploring how they relate to each other Language as a Local Practice opens up new ways of thinking about language It questions assumptions about languages as systems or as countable entities and suggests instead that language emerges from the activities it performs To look at language as a practice is to view language as an activity rather than a structure as something we do rather than a system we draw on as a material part of social and cultural life rather than an abstract entity Language as a Local Practice draws on a variety of contexts of language use from bank machines to postcards Indian newspaper articles to fish naming in the Philippines urban graffiti to mission statements suggesting that rather than thinking in terms of language use in context we need to consider how language space and place are related how language creates the contexts where it is used how languages are the products of socially located activities and how they are part of the action Language as a Local Practice will be of interest to students on advanced undergraduate and post graduate courses in Applied Linguistics Language Education TESOL Literacy and Cultural Studies Minority Language in Today's Global Society Trace Foundation, 2012 The present volume examines a wide range of issues concerning the status of minority languages around the world with a special focus on the Tibetan language and its dialects The legal issues surrounding minority language use and policy as well as strategies for language revitalization are also addressed Back cover Language Contact. Volume 1 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2019-08-19 Language Contact An International Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of current topics in research on language contact Broadly conceived it stands out for its international approach to language contact complementing the theoretical state of the art with examples from traditionally eclipsed areas and languages Next to a thorough introductory overview of the ground breaking methodological and theoretical approaches that shaped the discipline ample attention goes to the new and innovative insights on language contact in the 21st century Combining concise introductory contributions with in depth treatment of the most relevant case studies in the field the handbook speaks to both junior and established scholars

African Language Digital Media and Communication Abiodun Salawu, 2018-10-03

FAQs About Saving Languages Books

What is a Saving Languages PDF? A PDF (Portable Document Format) is a file format developed by Adobe that preserves the layout and formatting of a document, regardless of the software, hardware, or operating system used to view or print it.

How do I create a Saving Languages PDF? There are several ways to create a PDF: Use software like Adobe Acrobat, Microsoft Word, or Google Docs, which often have built-in PDF creation tools. Print to PDF: Many applications and operating systems have a "Print to PDF" option that allows you to save a document as a PDF file instead of printing it on paper. Online converters: There are various online tools that can convert different file types to PDF.

How do I edit a Saving Languages PDF? Editing a PDF can be done with software like Adobe Acrobat, which allows direct editing of text, images, and other elements within the PDF. Some free tools, like PDFescape or Smallpdf, also offer basic editing capabilities.

How do I convert a Saving Languages PDF to another file format? There are multiple ways to convert a PDF to another format:

Use online converters like Smallpdf, Zamzar, or Adobe Acrobats export feature to convert PDFs to formats like Word, Excel, JPEG, etc. Software like Adobe Acrobat, Microsoft Word, or other PDF editors may have options to export or save PDFs in different formats.

How do I password-protect a Saving Languages PDF? Most PDF editing software allows you to add password protection. In Adobe Acrobat, for instance, you can go to "File" -> "Properties" -> "Security" to set a password to restrict access or editing capabilities.

Are there any free alternatives to Adobe Acrobat for working with PDFs? Yes, there are many free alternatives for working with PDFs, such as: LibreOffice: Offers PDF editing features. PDFsam: Allows splitting, merging, and editing PDFs. Foxit Reader: Provides basic PDF viewing and editing capabilities.

How do I compress a PDF file? You can use online tools like Smallpdf, ILovePDF, or desktop software like Adobe Acrobat to compress PDF files without significant quality loss. Compression reduces the file size, making it easier to share and download. Can I fill out forms in a PDF file? Yes, most PDF viewers/editors like Adobe Acrobat, Preview (on Mac), or various online tools allow you to fill out forms in PDF files by selecting text fields and entering information. Are there any restrictions when working with PDFs? Some PDFs might have restrictions set by their creator, such as password protection, editing restrictions, or print restrictions. Breaking these restrictions might require specific software or tools, which may or may not be legal depending on the circumstances and local laws.
