Section 4 Gods Two Creations

J.J. Johnson Leese

Section 4 Gods Two Creations:

The Paradigm Trilogy Gerry Burney, 2003-08 Creation and Salvation Daniela Scialabba, 2019-07-05 The recent debate on the religion of ancient Israel is strongly influenced by the idea that monotheism is the root of violence Daniela Scialabba seeks to investigate inclusive tendencies in Old Testament monotheism focussing on the idea of God as a universal creator who has pity with all his creatures

Creation, Evolution and Meaning Robin Attfield, 2018-07-17 This book presents the case for belief in both creation and evolution at the same time as rejecting creationism Issues of meaning supply the context of inquiry the book defends the meaningfulness of language about God and also relates belief in both creation and evolution to the meaning of life Meaning it claims can be found in consciously adopting the role of stewards of the planetary biosphere and thus of the fruits of creation Distinctive features include a sustained case for a realist understanding of language about God a contemporary defence of some of the arguments for belief in God and in creation a sifting of different versions of Darwinism and their implications for religious belief a Darwinian account of the relation of predation and other apparent evils to creation a new presentation of the argument from the world's value to the purposiveness of evolution and discussions of whether or not meaning itself evolves and of religious and secular bases for belief in stewardship

Christ, Creation and the Cosmic Goal of Redemption J.J. Johnson Leese, 2018-05-17 J J Johnson Leese discusses how the apostle Paul's writing on Christ's relationship to creation read alongside the interpretations of Irenaeus of Lyon provide a meaningful contribution to contemporary debates on the interrelationship between religion and nature Leese draws upon the integration of three related scholarly trends the increased importance placed on biblical creation themes the emergence of ecotheology and the history of reception while focusing on the Pauline corpus and readings of Paul by Irenaeus thus uncovering a robust creation and ecotheological theology Irenaeus approach provides the possibility for Paul to contribute to ecotheology by way of a theological vision where the whole of reality in relationship to Christ and creation and by extension to soteriology and ecclesiology are central components of Paul's theology

Accuracy in Genesis: New Perspectives Affirming the Scriptural Creation Record, Genesis 1-11 , Beyond Male and Female? Sam Ashton, 2023-09-21 In this incisive work Sam Ashton provides a compelling consistent and erudite argument for a foundational approach to the matter of sexual difference drawing on biblical and doctrinal material and using resources in their original languages He tracks and traces the sexed body as it moves from creation through the fall to redemption now and final consummation not yet In doing so Ashton presents what is perhaps the strongest case that can be made for male and female He created them Each chapter privileges biblical exegesis drawing upon figures in church history notably Augustine and Aquinas as and when they illumine Scripture By doing so the book considers the difficulty presented to sexual dimorphism by the phenomenon of intersex Ashton seeks to develop an understanding that is generous inclusive and affirming so he works carefully through the writings of Thatcher Song and Cornwall in a way that invites engagement and dialogue With the complete divine drama in view the book offers synthetic judgments about what remains essential for the structure of the sexed body as it travels through history and what may be accidental to the sexed body's direction within a particular theo-dramatic act Ashton concludes by considering ways to transition from dogmatic judgments about intersexuality to the moral pastoral care of concrete intersex individuals briefly thinking about the complex matter of marriage

Evolution Vs. Creationism Eugenie C. Scott, 2009-08-03 Presents the scientific evidence for evolution and reasons why it should be taught in schools provides various religious points of view and offers insight to the evolution creationism controversy

The Breadth and Depth of the Atonement Christian D. Kettler, 2017-05-11 Atonement For some this word is the heart of the Christian faith For others it is irrelevant for Christianity and how they live their Christian lives Often we do not see the breadth and depth of the atonement in the gospel Christian D Kettler in his fourth book on the vicarious humanity of Christ suggests that we consider that the atonement is not only a vicarious death in our place and on our behalf whether in the form of a penal substitute or a moral example but also his vicarious humanity having atoning significance for all of our lives indeed all of reality the church the world and the self These essays are collected from several years of Kettler's thought on the doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ and its implications for all of life and reality seeking to demonstrate that the doctrine of the atonement is not to be restricted to one small part of the doctrinal agenda but has profound implications that theology sometimes does not explore These issues include the nature of culture aesthetics creation out of nothing spiritual formation emotional weakness the priesthood of Christ and creation genetic engineering and trusting in the ideal self

The Future of Christology Dong-Kun Kim, 2019-06-28 The Future of Christology addresses the questions that Christology currently faces and or will face in the future in 12 topics The book consists of two parts In the first part Kim deals with five topics related to traditional Christology while in the second part he wrestles with seven topics related to issues of Christology The twenty first century is a challenging time for Christianity Many in our age are asking what Jesus Christ means in various dimensions of history culture nature and even beyond the Earth Changes in values worldviews and views of the universe are forming a new zeitgeist Dong Kun Kim argues that ways of understanding Christ should change accordingly for a Christology that fails to communicate meaningfully with the times is void of vitality Postmodernism dehistoricization and life post ideology multiculturalism multiple religions and above all the rapid development of the natural sciences pose a serious challenge to traditional Christology Who is Christ in the age of an infinite cosmos How do daily human life social devotion and praxis relate to salvation How can we discuss salvation history in an era post history Where does Christ stand in the public sphere Can the Chalcedonian definition of the two natures of Christ true God and true human being encompass nature and the cosmos would a third nature of Christ be necessary Will the cyborg which may appear in the near future be the object of Christ's salvation If scientific determinism becomes popular in the future will the basis of faith in Christ lose ground If intelligent life exists in the universe what does Christ mean to such life This book provides innovative answers to these questions in an academic context Reconsidering Creation Ex Nihilo in Genesis 1 Nathan J. Chambers, 2020-11-15 There is a broad consensus among biblical scholars that creation ex nihilo from nothing is a late Hellenistic concept with little inherent connection to Genesis 1 and other biblical creation texts In this book Nathan J Chambers forces us to reconsider the question arguing in favor of reading this chapter of the Bible in terms of ex nihilo creation and demonstrating that there is a sound basis for the early Christian development of the doctrine Drawing on the theology of Augustine of Hippo and Thomas Aquinas Chambers considers what the ex nihilo doctrine means and does in classical Christian dogma He examines ancient Near Eastern cosmological texts that provide a potential context for reading Genesis 1 Recognizing the distance between the possible historical and theological frameworks for interpreting the text he illuminates how this doctrine developed within early Christian thought as a consequence of the church's commitment to reading Genesis 1 as part of Christian Scripture Through original close readings of the chapter that engage critically with the work of Jon Levenson Hermann Gunkel and Brevard Childs Chambers demonstrates that far from precluding interpretive possibilities reading Genesis 1 in terms of creation from nothing opens up a variety of interpretive avenues that have largely been overlooked in contemporary biblical scholarship Timely and innovative this book makes the case for a new or recovered framework for reading Genesis 1 that will appeal to biblical studies scholars and seminarians
