Security Pacific Collection 1970 1985:

The Security Pacific Collection, 1970-1985 Security Pacific Corporation, 1985 Ed Moses Ed Moses, John Yau, 1996

Ed Moses b 1928 is widely considered to be one of the central figures in the rich and complex history of postwar West Coast art. Like Richard Diebenkorn and Sam Francis, his work has been greatly influenced by the brilliant light of Southern California. Modernism and European and American abstract art are also echoed in Moses's work, and the vitality of his diverse oeuvre radiates throughout this first major retrospective of his paintings and drawings. Although he attended art school, Ed Moses is an autodidact who has labored to overcome his inability as he put it to draw three dimensionally. And drawing has been central to his work, the spine from which all of his art extends. From his egg tempera paintings in the early 1950s to the ror shock paintings and drawings of the early 1990s, he has found ways to investigate the relationship between spontaneity, the legacy of abstract expressionism, and control and balance inherited from Mondrian and the Russian constructivists. Moving decisively from abstraction to figuration and from monochrome to tonality and color, Moses like de Kooning and Pollock has consistently turned away from the predictable and has sought new ground. In his bold exploration of forms and methods, Ed Moses has avoided the label of a particular tradition and instead continues to reinvent himself. With over seventy paintings and drawings that span his career, this is the most comprehensive book on Ed Moses available today. I felt as though these paintings were not something I created; they were something I discovered. Ed Moses Don Nice John Paul Driscoll, 2004. Published in conjunction with the exhibition Don Nice: Hudson River Paintings 1966-2004 held at the Albany Institute of History and Art, June 19-Aug 22, 2004. One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching, the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified, and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial, technological, and ideological features of contemporary U.S. cinema. Diane Negra, University of East Anglia, UK. Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present. Readers will find it lively and provocative. Chuck Maland, University of Tennessee, USA. Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for. Comprehensive, detailed, and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose, Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike.
