Selected Critical Essays:

Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history. This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times. The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature, refusing to succumb to political manipulation. Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate. His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity. Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm, he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods. Select Critical Essays Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1923 Selected Critical Essays William Wordsworth, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1958 Selected Critical Writings David Herbert Lawrence, 1998. A critic must be able to feel the impact of a work of art in all its complexity and force. To do so, he must be a man of force and complexity himself. A critic must be emotionally alive in every fibre, intellectually capable and skilful in essential logic and then morally very honest. These comments by D. H. Lawrence are as close a description as any of himself as a critic. They come from his essay on fellow novelist John Galsworthy, and there are many other pieces on novels and novelists in this selection. But Lawrence's range of genres extends to poetry and plays and paintings, and his critical writing encompasses an enormous variety of subjects from Aeschylus and the Apocalypse to symbolism and syphilis. For his interests are philosophical, psychological, religious, moral, sociological, historical, and cultural, as well as literary and artistic. This selection is a treasure trove of thought adventures by one of literature's liveliest critical spirits. Writing to the Moment Tom Paulin, 1998 Kipling's Mind and Art Andrew Rutherford, 1966 Selected Writings A. His last book, The Classic Shade, Selected Poems, on which Selected Writings is based, stands as his final intention in the world of literature. To this long out-of-print book, the editor has added original material by Smith in which he defined and advanced modernism in Canadian writing. This edition also includes an extended introduction and a bibliography. Critical Essays on Kate Chopin Alice Hall Petry, 1996. Series Editors: James Nagel, University of Georgia; Zack Bowen, University of Miami; and Robert Lecker, McGill University. The full range of literary traditions comes to life in the Wayne Critical Essays Series. Volume editors have carefully selected critical essays that represent the full spectrum of controversies, trends, and methodologies relating to each author's work. Essays include writings from the author's native country and abroad, with interpretations from the time they were writing through the present day. Each volume includes an introduction providing the reader with a lucid overview of criticism from its beginnings, illuminating controversies, evaluating approaches, and sorting out the schools of thought.
