Selected From Borrowed Time An Aids Memoir:

Borrowed Time Paul Monette, 1998 The first personal documentary about AIDS to be published Borrowed Time remains as vividly detailed as the best novel and as lucidly observed as the fiercest journalism Selected from Borrowed Time Paul Monette, 1992 For the adult reader selections from the memoir on AIDS Borrowed Time Paul Monette, 1988 Selected Works Paul Monette, 2018-12-11 Two novels and two collections of poetry all powerful reflections on the AIDS experience from the National Book Award winning author of Becoming a Man Afterlife Three men bond after their lovers die of AIDS all within a week of one another in the same Los Angeles hospital Each of the men react differently to the situation he s in but no matter the path each takes they are all searching for a way to live and love again Halfway Home After being diagnosed with AIDS Tom moves to a California beach house to live out the rest of his life in peace But the unexpected reappearance of his troubled brother quickly changes everything in this novel about anger reconciliation love and danger Love Alone Following his partner Roger Horwitz s death from AIDS in 1986 Paul Monette threw himself into these elegies Writing them he says quite literally kept me alive Both beautifully written and deeply affecting every poem is full of resentment sorrow tenderness and a palpable sense of grief but also love West of Yesterday East of Summer This stunning career spanning collection includes Monette s early work as well as the beautiful and wrenching poems borne out of immense loss Written with characteristic wit these poems deftly traverse humor rage love and mourning Borrowed Time Paul Monette, 2014-03-25 An eloquent testimonial to the power of love and the devastation of loss from the National Book Award winning author of Becoming a Man Publishers Weekly In 1974 Paul Monette met Roger Horwitz the man with whom he would share more than a decade of his life In 1986 Roger died of complications from AIDS Borrowed Time traces this love story from start to tragic finish At a time when the medical community was just beginning to understand this mysterious and virulent disease Monette and others like him were coming to terms with unfathomable loss This personal account of the early days of the AIDS crisis tells the story of love in the face of death A finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award Borrowed Time was one of the first memoirs to deal candidly with AIDS and is as moving and relevant now as it was more than twenty five years ago Written with fierce honesty and heartwarming tenderness this book is part love story part testimony and part requiem This ebook features an illustrated biography of Paul Monette including rare images and never before seen documents from the Paul Monette papers of the UCLA Library Special Collections A Lesbian Guide to Selecting the Best-Fit College Or University and Enjoying the College Years Donald W. Hinrichs, 2007 My brother wrote this book based on his own experiences and the experiences of hundreds of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender students he counseled talked to and interviewed over the course of his 40 year teaching career The confusion he experienced during college and the distress and intolerance he witnessed and heard about from students lead him to realize that some college and university environments are simply not healthy places for LGBT young people to learn and grow and to sort out their own sexuality This book documents the problems LGBT students might encounter on campus and provides advice on how LGBT students can select the best fit college or university for them Bill Hinrichs The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst,2013-06-17 In this book Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric legal and cultural political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980 It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison Stephen King and W G Sebald artists Tracey Emin Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever expanding field of trauma research Coming of Age in a Hardscrabble World Nancy C. Atwood,Roger Atwood,2019-09-01 Nonfiction storytelling is at its best in this anthology of excerpts from memoirs by thirty authors some eminent some less well known who grew up tough and talented in working class America Their stories selected from literary memoirs published between 1982 and 2014 cover episodes from childhood to young adulthood within a spectrum of life changing experiences Although diverse ethnically racially geographically and in sexual orientation these writers share a youthful precocity and determination to find opportunity where little appeared to exist All of these perspectives are explored within the larger context of economic insecurity a needed perspective in this time of growing inequality These memoirists grew up in families that led hardscrabble lives in which struggle and strenuous effort were the norm Their stories offer insight on the realities of class in America as well as inspiration and hope Out For Good Dudley Clendinen,Adam Nagourney,2013-07-30 The definitive account of the gay rights movement Dudley Clendinen and Adam Nagourney s Out for Good is comprehensive authoritative and excellently written This is the definitive account of the last great struggle for equal rights in the twentieth century From the birth of the modern gay rights movement in 1969 at the Stonewall riots in New York through 1988 when the gay rights movement was eclipsed by the more urgent demands of AIDS activists this is the remarkable and until now untold story of how a largely invisible population of men and women banded together to create their place in America s culture and government Told through the voices of gay activists and their opponents filled with dozens of colorful characters Out for Good traces the emergence of gay rights movements in cities across the country and their transformation into a national force that changed the face of America forever Out for Good is the unforgettable chronicle of an important and nearly lost chapter in American history Homophobia Warren Blumenfeld,1992-06-13 The hatred of lesbians gay males and bisexuals remains an acceptable prejudice in our society despite the widespread damage it causes in all of our lives Inviting sexual minorities and heterosexual men and women to become allies in the fight against homophobia the contributors to this anthology explore how homophobia colludes with sexism by forcing people into rigid gender roles how homophobia causes unnecessary pain and alienation in family relationships how it works against health care policy and arts administration that would benefit all members of society and how homophobia leaves the policies of religious institutions unfulfilled In both personal and analytical essays the contributors show how the fight to end homophobia is everyone's fight if we are to bring about a less oppressive and more productive society They offer concrete suggestions on transforming attitudes behaviors and institutions

God Underneath Edward L. Beck, 2002-08-20 A delightfully different approach to religion and spirituality this collection of engaging personal tales transcends specific doctrines to reveal the presence of God in everyday life Father Edward L Beck spins tales like a master presenting with candor and a touch of irreverence incidents and events that will resonate with readers Exploring such universal themes and concerns as friendship sexuality illness alcoholism loss and death the vignettes and stories in this collection are animated by intriguing characters pitch perfect dialogue and a surprising twist Probing beneath the surface of ordinary life each selection contains a hidden message a subtle but powerful reminder of the signposts that mark a spiritual journey Quotations from the Scriptures introduce the tales providing a context that will help readers uncover the meaning the story holds for their own personal lives and beliefs To encourage further reflection and rumination Beck offers insights into the specific religious and theological themes that inspired the writing of each tale A lively unabashed look at the challenges of living a spiritual life in contemporary times God Underneath will appeal not only to Catholics but to all spiritual seekers regardless of religious affiliation Different Sexual Worlds Dick Skeen, 2023-12-21 Through an in depth look at the sexual lives of real people Different Sexual Worlds illustrates the myriad dimensions of human sexuality Developed as a supplementary text for college level courses this innovative book charts the sexual development and maturation of ten men and women in order to help students gain an integrated perspective on human sexuality Among those whose stories are told are Libby who overcame emotionally dependent behavior and achieved a satisfying sexual identity Ed a gay man who lived with and eventually died from the AIDS virus Jennifer who chose to become a prostitute to escape a disastrous home life and Nick whose sexual exploration helped him grow and find the perspective he needed to be able to commit to a long term relationship Dick Skeen's thoughtful analysis of the unique stories contained in the book and the intriguing questions he poses for discussion make this book required reading for courses on human sexuality

Life After Loss Vamik D. Volkan, Elizabeth Zintl, 2018-03-29 How we cope with grief and come to terms with the death of a loved one shapes our world In this comprehensive guide to the mourning process Dr Volkan a world recognised authority on grief shows how each mourning is as individualised as our fingerprints encoded with our past history of losses Anecdotal and compassionate this is a profoundly moving and informative study of how grief and loss shape all our lives

Poetry Los Angeles Laurence Goldstein, 2014-03-12 Is there such a thing as Los Angeles poetry How do we assess a poem about a city as elusive of identity as Los Angeles What features do poems about this unique urban landscape of diverse peoples and terrains have in common Poetry Los Angeles is the first book to gather and analyze poems about sites as different as Hollywood Santa Monica and Venice beaches the freeways downtown South Central and East L A Laurence Goldstein presents original commentary on six decades of poets who have contributed to the iconography and poetics of Los Angeles literature including Elizabeth Alexander Jimmy Santiago Baca Dorothy Barresi Victoria Chang Wanda Coleman Dana Gioia Joy Harjo James Harms Robert Hass Eloise Klein Healy Garrett Hongo Suzanne Lummis Paul Monette Harryette Mullen Carol Muske Dukes Frederick Seidel Gary Soto Timothy Steele Diane Wakoski Derek Walcott and Charles Harper Webb Forty poems are reproduced in their entirety One chapter is devoted to Charles Bukowski the celebrity face of the city s poetry Other chapters discuss the ways that poets explore Interiors and Exteriors throughout the cityscape Goldstein also provides ample connections to the novels films art and politics of Southern California In clear prose Poetry Los Angeles examines the strategies by which poets make significant places meaningful and memorable to readers of every region of the U S and elsewhere

Writing the Self in Illness Amala Poli, 2019-09-01 Writing the Self in Illness Reading the Experiential Through the Medical Memoir is MUP s refreshing venture into the developing fields of Medical and Health Humanities with an aim to consider the necessity of the narrative knowledge as complementary to the contemporary notions of well being illness and healthcare Is individual happiness contingent on health and well being How does one find happiness in the throes of illness In the present day scenario wherein medical practice is largely dominated by evidence based understanding diagnostic language and problem solving methods the discipline of Medical Humanities emerges with a reciprocal dialogue between Humanities Social Sciences Health and Medicine The study of varied experiential narratives literary works and unmediated accounts of patients and healthcare professionals is foregrounded in Medical Humanities to amplify knowledge and understanding about the complexity of encounters with illness and their transformational quality in a nuanced manner Both thought provoking and informative this publication brings about the anecdotal form of personal narratives in the light of medical discourses along with the specific cultural context of the narrative The present publication seeks to be an important reading for students and academics in the field of medical humanities health professionals or medical practitioners as well as scholars aspiring to venture into this flourishing field

Dying to Be Normal Brett Krutzsch, 2019-02-01 On October 14 1998 five thousand people gathered on the steps of the U S Capitol to mourn the death of Matthew Shepard a gay college student who had been murdered in Wyoming eight days earlier Politicians and celebrities addressed the crowd and the televised national audience to share their grief with the country Never before had a gay citizen s murder elicited such widespread outrage or concern from straight Americans In Dying to Be Normal Brett Krutzsch argues that gay activists memorialized people like Shepard as part of a political strategy to present gays as similar to the country s dominant class of white straight Christians Through an examination of publicly mourned gay deaths Krutzsch counters the common perception that LGBT politics and religion have been oppositional and reveals how gay activists used religion to bolster the argument that gays are essentially the same as straights and therefore deserving of equal rights Krutzsch's analysis turns to the memorialization of Shepard Harvey Milk Tyler Clementi Brandon Teena and F C Martinez to campaigns like the It Gets Better Project and national tragedies like the Pulse nightclub shooting to illustrate how activists used prominent deaths to win acceptance influence political debates over LGBT rights and encourage assimilation Throughout Krutzsch shows how in the fight for greater social inclusion activists relied on Christian values and rhetoric to portray gays as upstanding Americans As Krutzsch demonstrates gay activists regularly reinforced a white Protestant vision of acceptable American citizenship that often excluded people of color gender variant individuals non Christians and those who did not adhere to Protestant Christianity's sexual standards The first book to detail how martyrdom has influenced national debates over LGBT rights Dying to Be Normal establishes how religion has shaped gay assimilation in the United States and the mainstreaming of particular gays as normal Americans Transacting Sites of the Liminal Bodily Spaces Catalina Florina Florescu, 2011-01-18 This book focuses on liminal bodies and their delicate transaction with themselves and other people's bodies More specifically it explores the spatiality and discourses of the body dying the body opened in surgery or through MRIs CATs and sometimes in autopsies the body preserved through computerized images such as those created by the Visual Human Project the metonymic body that continues to live in another body through organ replacement and the bodily parts cast in silver and then abandoned in a museum This study also analyzes the discourses of the contemporary body commissioned by the vast industry of mass media This type of body has started to direct itself toward frugal almost furtive pleasures consequently unlike those seriously affected by illnesses a body constantly guarded by fear eventually runs on empty becomes a corpse d j vu and thus moves toward different types of minimal and liminal topology The primary works examined include memoirs Marjorie Williams's Hit by Lightning A Cancer Memoir Arthur W Frank's At the Will of the Body Reflections on Illness Audre Lorde's The Cancer Journals films Alejandro Amenabar's The Sea Inside Akira Kurosawa's Ikiru Pedro Almodovar's All about My Mother stories Marisa Silver's Night Train to Frankfurt visual artworks as accomplished by Jo Spence David Wojnarowicz Felix Gonzales Torres and Natalie Horne and plays Bryony Lavery's Last Easter Paula Vogel's Baltimore Waltz William Hoffman's As Is which are read comparatively namely as works positioned at the intersection between literature visual art and social diaries This book has become part of the collections of the world's leading universities Harvard Princeton Columbia the Library of Congress and more Lost Causes Valerie Rohy, 2014-10-03 Causality dominates today's discussions of LGBT rights anti gay voices imagine gay proliferation through seduction influence and corruption while queer communities largely embrace biological determinism saying they are born gay Reading popular rhetoric psychoanalytic theory and British and American literature from the late nineteenth century through the present day Lost Causes decenters etiology from queer politics engages abject tropes of homosexual reproduction and considers the effects of retroactive absent and contingent causality Against Life Alastair

Hunt, Stephanie Youngblood, 2016-03-15 The contributors to Against Life think critically about the turn to life in recent theory and culture. Editors Alastair Hunt and Stephanie Youngblood shape their collection to provocatively challenge the assumption rife throughout the humanities that life needs to be cultivated, affirmed, and redeemed. The editors and their contributors explore how we might be better off daring to think ethics and politics as well as the project of the humanities in more radical terms as a refusal to choose life. What forms of equality and freedom might emerge if we did not organize being together under signs of life? Taken together, the essays in Against Life mark an important turn in the ethico-political work of the humanities.

Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber. In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care, Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic, compassionate, and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing. The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care, to increase the availability of quality, person-focused healthcare, and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones. Thornber's Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature, world literature, the medical humanities, and the health humanities.
