The Table Comes First Adam Gopnik, 2011-10-25 Transplanted Canadian New Yorker writer and author of Paris to the Moon Gopnik is publishing this major new work of narrative non fiction alongside his 2011 Massey Lecture An illuminating beguiling tour of the morals and manners of our present food manias in search of eating's deeper truths asking Where do we go from here Never before have so many North Americans cared so much about food But much of our attention to it tends towards grim calculation what protein is best how much social preening I can always score the last reservation at xxxxx or graphic machismo watch me eat this now Gopnik shows we are not the first food fetishists but we are losing sight of a timeless truth the table comes first what goes on around the table matters as much to life as what we put on the table families come together or break apart over the table conversations across the simplest or grandest board can change the world pain and romance unfold around it all this is more essential to our lives than the provenance of any zucchini or the road it travelled to reach us Whatever dilemmas we may face as omnivores how not what we eat ultimately defines our society Gathering people and places drawn from a quarter century's reporting in North America and France The Table Comes First marks the beginning a new conversation about the way we eat now
