Make Your Point Debate For Esl Efl:

Make Your Point! Michael H. Lubetsky, 2007-08-15 This valuable workbook and downloadable audio can turn any ESL student into an accomplished debater Make Your Point opens the world of formal debate to the English learner Debate fundamentals are taught from the first chapter in a student centered format suitable for large and small classes alike Each of the ten chapters offers a language focus and a debatable focus As students learn new debate skills they also build important language skills All task chains integrate speaking listening reading and writing activities Most activities are intended for pairs and small groups Neither the learners nor the teacher needs any prior debate experience to use this text successfully This debate course promotes other forms of oral communication such as discussion recitation and speech making as well as more general activities such as summarizing and taking notes

Cheater's Guide to Speaking English Like a Native

Boye Lafayette De Mente, 2011-12-27 Increase your fluency of English through the mastery of common English idioms and expressions All Native English speakers use a large number of proverbs and colloquial expressions in their daily conversations These common sayings which evolved over the centuries are like codes that reveal the cultural values and attitudes of the speakers To obtain complete fluency in the English language it is necessary to be familiar with these expressions and know how and when to use them With a user friendly format The Cheater's Guide to Speaking English like a Native is a shortcut to achieving that goal

Language Assessment for Classroom Teachers

Lyle Bachman, Barbara Damböck, 2018-01-25 This book provides teachers with an entirely new approach to developing and using classroom based language assessments This approach is based on current theory and practice in the field of language assessment and on an understanding of the assessment needs of classroom teachers The following key questions are addressed Why do I need to assess What beneficial consequences do I want to help bring about How can my assessments help my students learn better and help me improve my teaching When and how often do I need to assess What decisions do I need to make to help bring about these beneficial consequences What do I need to assess How can I define the abilities that I want to assess How can I assess my students What kinds of assessment tasks should I create How can I score my students responses to these tasks The authors guide the reader step by step through the process of developing and using classroom based assessments with clear explanations and definitions of key terms illustrative examples and activities for applying the approach in practice Extra resources are available on the website www.oup.com/elt/teacher/lact Lyle Bachman is Professor Emeritus of Applied Linguistics at the University of California Los Angeles He serves as a consultant in language testing research projects and in developing language assessments for universities and government agencies around the world and he conducts courses and training workshops in language assessment Barbara Damböck was Director of Studies of the English Department at the Teacher Training Academy in Dillingen Germany from 2003 to 2011 From 2003 to 2017 she supervised the training of oral examiners for the certification examination for elementary school English teachers in Bavaria She has extensive experience
