Moving Beyond the Impasse S. Wesley Ariarajah, 2018-10-01

Interfaith dialogue in a plural world This volume is based on the belief that both the ecumenical and interfaith movements are looking for new orientations for their future The forces of globalization communications revolution and massive population movements challenge some of the theological assumptions and presuppositions on which they were built The entry of deep and divisive religious sentiments into the public space and the rise of militant forms of religious expression call on the interfaith movement to move beyond traditional forms of dialogue the challenge is to enter into a deeper engagement on the purpose and role of religious traditions in society The impasse facing these movements can only be overcome by new orientations as they look to the future This volume is not specifically on this problem However the collection of essays included in this volume although first given as lectures or written as articles traces past developments identifies the challenges these movements face today and suggests fresh theological moves to regain the initiatives to bring human communities closer together

Mark and its Subalterns David Joy, 2014-12-18 This book offers a fresh appraisal of the identity and involvement of the subalterns in Mark arguing that the presence of the subalterns in Mark is a possible hermeneutical tool for re reading the Bible in a postcolonial context like India Part I paves the way for a creative discussion on Mark and its interpreters in the rest of the study by looking at the issue of the spread of Christianity and missionary attempts at biblical interpretations that did not take the life of the natives into account Many insights from the postcolonial situation can be found in the contextual interpretations such as liberation feminist postcolonial feminist and subaltern Part II considers colonial rule in Palestine and examines some Markan texts showing the potential role of the subalterns It is argued that due to colonial rule the native people suffered in terms of their identity religion and culture There was conflict between Galilee and Jerusalem mainly on religious issues and the victims of domination were the poor peasants and the artisans in Galilee A dialogue and interaction with the Markan milieu was possible in the research and so the marginal and subaltern groups were effectively understood by exegeting Mark 10 17 31 7 24 30 and 5 1 20 and showing the postcolonial issues such as the poor and their representation gender race hybridity class nationalism and purity respectively The subalterns were mainly associated with movements of resistance in Palestine The Markan proclamation of solidarity with those subalterns is significant The general conclusion presents the implications of this interpretation for a hermeneutical paradigm for a postcolonial context True

Religious Pluralism Phan, Peter C., 2017-02-16 A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong, 2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong's observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez's liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss's Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 2 James A. Scherer, 2015-03-24

Schroeder, Roger Schroeder, 2004-01-01 Mission is handicapped without a sound biblical theology of mission and an understanding of the history of mission leading up to our current context Constants in Context offers both of these elements It is mission theology in historical perspective and or a history of mission that is grounded theologically The authors describe it as a systematic theology with mission at its core and a church history shaped by the constant but always contextual Christian traditions Furthermore it is a constructive contribution to how mission theology needs to be practical and lived out through today s church and in our world Written collaboratively by Roman Catholic writers Stephen Bevans and Roger Schroeder both Missionaries of the Divine Word SVDs It is a particularly insightful in regard to the history and the various streams of Catholic mission but it also addresses and learns from the other traditions of the church In fact one of the book s strengths is its attention to neglected aspects and hidden stories of church and mission history As a result it is gratifying to be inspired by non European mission women in mission and various forgotten or often ignored branches of the church The book is in three sections first there is a framework for cultural contexts and theological constants second an in depth exploration of historical stages and different models for mission and third a presentation of theological frameworks for mission The third section concludes with a case for mission as prophetic dialogue being the most appropriate model for 21st century mission Amazon com The Rishi of Bangladesh Dr Cosimo Zene, Cosimo Zene, 2014-04-08 This book is a study of the changing relationship over time 1856 1994 between the Rishi an ex Untouchable jati of Bengal South West Bangladesh and various groups of Catholic missionaries The book s originality and importance lies in its multi disciplinary approach which combines anthropological fieldwork historical research philosophical enquiry and contemporary missiological debates Moreover it addresses issues of great current relevance in its discussions of Orientalism Neo colonialism and Otherness
