Can the Labor Side Agreement Save NAFTA? United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations. Employment, Housing, and Aviation Subcommittee, 1994

The New Era of Global Competition Daniel Drache, Meric S. Gertler, 1991 The increasing globalization of production and the conservative agenda for market led growth are dramatically affecting the life of the average Canadian and the choices made by social and economic policy makers As Daniel Drache Meric Gertler and the contributing authors show the worldwide reorganization of markets poses new challenges for domestic industry while continental trade initiatives threaten the livelihood of Canadian workers and the stability of communities across all regions of the country Environmental quality is similarly at risk from development strategies driven more by possibilities of short term gain from export sales than by attempts to promote long term sustainability

Canada Can Compete! Joseph R. D'Cruz,James Douglas Fleck,1985 From the back cover Canada can compete in international markets but not the authors contend under the present national economic strategy Policies that redistribute income and allocate resources through government fiat have weakened Canada s ability to transform its manufacturing sector to meet the new competitive challenges D Cruz and Fleck compare the performance of seventy one Canadian industries from 1967 to 1981 with industries in Japan the United States Britain and France To enhance the competitiveness of Canadian manufacturing the authors propose a differential industrial strategy one that emphasizes growth and development Government they say must play a hands off role in Canada s market economy limiting itself to establishing the rules of the game The authors recommend in addition macro economic policies that would reduce the federal deficit restrain wages for public servants preserve low differentials between Canadian and American interest rates and maintain the Canadian dollar at 70 cents U S

The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh,1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

New Visions for Canadian Business Alan M. Rugman, Joseph R. D'Cruz, 1993-06 A study of Canadian competitiveness which has been declining Includes Canada's business scorecard doing business manufacturing and services in the global economy strategies for Canada's international competitiveness and recommendations for a competitive future Graphs Commissioned by Kodak Canada Inc

Free Trade and Transnational Labour Andreas Bieler, Bruno Ciccaglion, John Hilary, Ingemar Lindberg, 2016-04-14 Resistance against free trade agreements based on an expanded trade agenda including issues related to intellectual property rights trade in services and trade related investment measures has increased since the demonstrations at the WTO ministerial conference in Seattle in 1999 While the WTO Doha negotiations have broken down the EU and USA are increasingly engaged in bilateral free trade agreements building on this expanded trade agenda Free trade strategies have increasingly become a problem for the international labour movement While trade unions in the North especially in manufacturing have supported free trade agreements to secure export markets for their companies trade unions in the Global South oppose these agreements since they often imply deindustrialisation The purpose of this volume is to understand better these dynamics underlying free trade policy making Academics trade union researchers and social movement activists analyse these issues in detail in order to explore possibilities for transnational labour solidarity This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations Trade, Industrial Policy, and International Competition, Second Edition Richard G. Harris, 2015-10-01 Richard Harris's now classic study on trade and industrial policy was written for the Royal Commission on the Economic Union and Development Prospects for Canada also known as the Macdonald Commission First published in 1985 when the Canadian economy faced dramatic changes arising from the emergence of manufacturing competitors among newly industrialized nations and increased protectionism in the US its recommendations were instrumental in the negotiation of the North America Free Trade Agreement Addressing the key issues surrounding the design and choice of policies for the Canadian economy Trade Industrial Policy and International Competition reviews the theory and evidence concerning trade liberalization as a mechanism to enhance economic growth disinvestment in sections that are disadvantageous in the international marketplace and future problems for the marketing sector caused by increasing competition from developing countries Drawing from many streams of conventional economic thinking Harris develops an original and sophisticated model for assessing the broader economic impacts of trade liberalization on the Canadian economy He concludes that free trade and industrial policy should be regarded as complementary not substitutes for one another and recommends a free trade agreement with the United States as a top priority A new introduction by David Wolfe situates this work within its time and shows how Harris's analytical insights and policy prescriptions are as relevant today as they were when they were originally crafted three decades ago Canada's Information Revolution Conference on Information Technology: Globalization, Diffusion, Innovation and Retraining (1989 : Toronto, Ont.), Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1991 Our Nation's Finest The Globe and Mail, 2012-04-13 The Globe and Mail Canada's National Newspaper presents Our Nation's Finest a collection of the Globe's 24 nominees for 2011 National Newspaper Awards The Globe and Mail hopes to share its record 24 nominations with you
