Making Gardens:

Making Gardens of Their Own: Advice for Women, 1550-1750 Jennifer Munroe, 2016-12-05 During the period 1500-1750 a general shift in gardening practice took place from which emerged three distinct types of gardens: traditional subsistence or kitchen gardens, aesthetic gardens, and gendered aesthetic gardens. The gardening and husbandry manuals published during the period typified by the texts selected for this volume reveal how and what one planted was related to one's role in society. These texts attest to the changing nature of gardening from a largely subsistence endeavour to an artful practice that became defined in gendered terms. The texts reproduced have been divided into two parts: gardening books for the country housewife and gardening books for ladies. Gardens of Court and Country David Jacques, 2017-01-01 Gardens of Court and Country provides the first comprehensive overview of the development of the English formal garden from 1630 to 1730. Often overshadowed by the English landscape garden that became fashionable later in the 18th century, English formal gardens of the 17th century displayed important design innovations that reflected a broad rethinking of how gardens functioned within society. With insights into how the Protestant nobility planned and used their formal gardens, the domestication of the lawn and the transformation of gardens into large rustic parks, David Jacques explores the ways forecourts, flower gardens, bowling greens, cascades and more were created and reimagined over time. This handsome volume includes 300 illustrations including plans, engravings and paintings that bring lost and forgotten gardens back to life.
