Making Of The Past The New World:

New Worlds For Old: A Plain Account of Modern Socialism H. G. Wells, 2022-07-20 In New Worlds for Old A Plain Account of Modern Socialism H G Wells offers a compelling exploration of socialism through a distinctly accessible lens Written during the early 20th century a time marked by rapid industrialization and social upheaval Wells employs a blend of visionary prose and pragmatic analysis to articulate a progressive vision for society His literary style is characterized by clarity and directness effectively demystifying complex economic theories while engaging in a thoughtful critique of contemporary social injustices This work serves not only as a manifesto for socialist ideals but also as a pivotal reflection on the possibilities of human progress through cooperative societal structures H G Wells a prolific writer and social commentator was deeply influenced by the social and economic challenges of his time which included class disparity and the impact of capitalism on the working class Often regarded as a pioneer of science fiction Wells s broader commitment to social reform informed his writing giving readers insight into his aspirations for a more equitable world His personal experiences including his own working class roots and exposure to various socialist ideas shaped the themes present in New Worlds for Old This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the foundations of modern socialism and its relevance to contemporary society With its insightful reflections and thought provoking arguments it challenges readers to reconsider the structures of capitalism and envision a future rooted in equality and cooperation Wells s eloquence and ability to engage with complex ideas make this work a vital contribution to the discourse on social justice

Great Land Rush and the Making of the Modern World, 1650-1900 John C. Weaver, 2003 A critique of the greatest reallocation of resources in the history of the world and an analysis of its effects on indigenous peoples the growth of property rights and the evolution of ideas that make up the foundation of the modern world

New Worlds, Old Ways Karen Lord, 2025-07-01 Discover some of the best in speculative short fiction from the Caribbean s up and coming voices The Caribbean has a powerful modern tradition of fantastic literature that s on full display in this anthology of original fiction by writers from Barbados Trinidad and Tobago and Bermuda None of these writers is likely to be familiar to American audiences but all are worth getting to know Readers who love the writing of Nalo Hopkinson Tobias S Buckell and Lord herself will savor this volume Publishers Weekly Starred Review Do not be misled by the speculative in the title Although there may be robots and fantastical creatures these common symbols are tools to frame the familiar from fresh perspectives Here you will find the recent past and ongoing present of government and society with curfews crime and corruption the universal themes of family growth and death love and hate the struggle to thrive when power is capricious and revenge too bittersweet Here too is the passage of everything old ways places peoples and ourselves leaving nothing behind but memories histories and stories This anthology speaks to the fragility of our Caribbean home but reminds the reader that although home may be vulnerable it is also beautifully resilient The voice of our literature declares that in spite of disasters this people and this place shall not be wholly destroyed Read for delight

History Melissa Yeager, Charles Carter, 2012-04-11 Agreements between nations constitute the fundamental framework for the ordering of international affairs and their successes and failures have led to some of the great turning points in modern history The result of a unique collaboration by historians and political scientists this book delineates defines and assesses the idea of pacts and alliances as a key model of political organisation Anchored by leading academics in the field it presents numerous case studies covering a broad chronological sweep Through theoretical and empirical methodology the contributors address pacts and alliances from the fifteenth century onwards including among others the Korean American and Moscow Cairo alliances the Sevres Pact Turkey's accession to NATO and US alliances around the world Through a close reading of these historical diplomatic relationships fundamental yet relatively unaddressed research questions are developed and explored First what are the common denominators shared by successful alliances Second why do pacts and alliances disintegrate Third is the eventual demise of pacts and alliances inevitable Finally what are the implications of these issues on pact and alliance making today This is the first volume to address this wide range of issues and to bring together researchers and theorists from the historical and political disciplines to provide original and groundbreaking theories of diplomacy Together these case studies explore why alliances succeed why they fail and why it matters Pacts and Alliances in History is therefore not only important reading for the next generation of policymakers but will also help frame scholars enquiries as they try to understand key events in international relations and history Social Democracy in the Making Gary Dorrien,2019-04-23 An expansive and ambitious intellectual history of democratic socialism from one of the world s leading intellectual historians and social ethicists The fallout from twenty years of neoliberal economic globalism has sparked a surge of interest in the old idea of democratic socialism a democracy in which the people control the economy and government no group dominates any other and every citizen is free equal and included With a focus on the intertwined legacies of Christian socialism and Social Democratic politics in Britain and Germany this book traces the story of democratic socialism from its birth in the nineteenth century through the mid 1960s Examining the tenets on which the movement was founded and how it adapted to different cultural religious and economic contexts from its beginnings through the social and political traumas of the twentieth century Gary Dorrien reminds us that Christian socialism paved the way for all liberation theologies that make the struggles of oppressed peoples the subject of redemption He argues for a decentralized economic democracy and anti imperial internationalism Making Black History Dominique Haensell,2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/degruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history>
