Making Peace Nurturing Life:

Making Peace with Herpes Christopher Scipio, 2006 Making Peace with Herpes is the most thought provoking and original book ever written on the subject of herpes Christopher Scipio started off as a victim of the virus and transformed himself into one of the most experienced holistic practitioners who treats herpes in North America He is an outspoken advocate of treatment without drug therapy While it is a subject that many people would rather avoid Scipio points out that 60% of the sexually active population in North America has either herpes simplex 1 or 2 70% of the people who have it either don't know they have it won't admit they have it or are not treating it Scipio explains For some people having herpes can make you feel like a leper There are no public fundraisers or celebrity spokespersons championing the cause of herpes In fact you would be hard pressed to get anyone to admit in public that they have the gift The good news and the ironic news is that herpes is one of the easiest diseases to manage naturally There is absolutely no need for drug therapy for herpes This book isn't just about how to have fewer outbreaks or how to stop having outbreaks just doing that isn't enough to be healthy This book is about holistically healing your herpes and living a healthy happy and balanced life Holistic health is about much more than making symptoms go away Making Peace with Herpes is a must read for everyone Whether you have herpes are in a relationship with someone with herpes or you just want to educate yourself on the world's fastest growing pandemic it's a self empowerment guide of the first order

The Public Law of Gender Kim Rubenstein, Katharine G. Young, 2016-05-26 With the worldwide sweep of gender neutral gender equal or gender sensitive public laws in international treaties national constitutions and statutes it is timely to document the raft of legal reform and to critically analyse its effectiveness In demarcating the academic study of the public law of gender this book brings together leading lawyers political scientists historians and philosophers to examine law's structuring of politics governing and gender in a new global frame Of interest to constitutional and statutory designers advocates adjudicators and scholars the contributions explore how concepts such as equality accountability representation participation and rights depend on challenge or enlist gendered roles and or categories These

The Sudan People's Liberation

Movement/Army (Splm/A) Julia Aker Duany, Wal Duany, 2018-08-20 The Republic of South Sudan the world's youngest country gained independence from Sudan following decades of civil war in 2011 with fanfare high hopes and great expectations The Sudan People's Liberation Movement Army SPLM A the primary military force that fought for independence transformed into the political rulers of the new country and lost its vision of a free and prosperous nation Within two years of independence the country has quickly degenerated into internecine warfare with fifty thousand to one hundred thousand dead four million more refugees and internally displaced people IDPs and half the population of the country six to seven million facing starvation The blame for this state of affairs rests primarily on the SPLM A leadership who have failed to put the interests of their people ahead of their own corrupt interests In this firsthand analysis of the South Sudan the authors explain how the corruption leadership struggles infighting and undemocratic culture of the SPLM A have led to the current crises The majority of citizens felt that their novel cause has been stolen by their selfish leaders and the hope for a better life has just disappeared like the morning mist

War and

Genocide in South Sudan Clémence Pinaud, 2021-02-15 Using more than a decade's worth of fieldwork in South Sudan Clémence Pinaud here explores the relationship between predatory wealth accumulation state formation and a form of racism extreme ethnic group entitlement that has the potential to result in genocide War and Genocide in South Sudan traces the rise of a predatory state during civil war in southern Sudan and its transformation into a violent Dinka ethnocracy after the region's formal independence That new state Pinaud argues waged genocide against non Dinka civilians in 2013 2017 During a civil war that wrecked the region between 1983 and 2005 the predominantly Dinka Sudan People's Liberation Army SPLA practiced ethnically exclusive and predatory wealth accumulation Its actions fostered extreme group entitlement and profoundly shaped the rebel state Ethnic group entitlement eventually grew into an ideology of ethnic supremacy After that war ended the semi autonomous state turned into a violent and predatory ethnocracy a process accelerated by independence in 2011 The rise of exclusionary nationalism a new security landscape and inter ethnic political competition contributed to the start of a new round of civil war in 2013 in which the recently founded state unleashed violence against nearly all non Dinka ethnic groups Pinaud investigates three campaigns waged by the South Sudan government in 2013 2017 and concludes they were genocidal they sought to destroy non Dinka target groups She demonstrates how the perpetrators sense of group entitlement culminated in land grabs that amounted to a genocidal conquest echoing the imperialist origins of modern genocides Thanks to generous funding from TOME the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories
