Psychological Operations and Political Warfare in Long-term Strategic Planning Janos Radvanyi, 1990-07-26 Written by a group of distinguished security experts these eight previously unpublished papers focus on the hostile actions of the Soviet Union against the West in the form of psychological operations power politics and blackmail Addressing military professionals strategists and international security specialists the contributors examine the most effective measures the United States and its allies can take to counteract such measures This is particularly important in the Gorbachev era when Western security is perhaps more than ever dependent upon knowledge of Soviet psychological operations and political warfare The book also explores the background of East European resistance to Soviet dominance and the subsequent Soviet countermeasures Wide ranging in coverage the papers explore psychological operation in the United States Poland West Germany France and Latin America Following the editor s introduction to psychological operations the contributors address such topics as the history and future of U S military psychological operations new thinking and influence activities in the Gorbachev era terrorism as a political strategy and contemporary insurgent political and psychological warfare A case study of the Polish experience illustrates communist regimes psychological warfare against their own societies The remaining papers discuss psychological operations and political warfare in long term U S strategic planning the French experience with Soviet hostile actions and the argument that psychological warfare is no longer necessary in the age of perestroika and glasnost The contributors are united in their belief that psychological operations and political warfare will not be eliminated by the sweeping changes affecting the Soviet Union and that the Western democracies are by their very nature particularly vulnerable to such operations However given the changing nature of external threats to the West the contributors call for a reevaluation of strategy in the area of psychological operations political warfare and low intensity conflict decades of study by one of the world's great scholars on the subject this fascinating account of writing explains much about the world we inhabit where we uneasily confer accept and resist the power of the written word     As If Human Nigel Shadbolt, Roger Hampson, 2024-05-14 A new approach to the challenges surrounding artificial intelligence that argues for assessing AI actions as if they came from a human being Intelligent machines present us every day with urgent ethical challenges Is the facial recognition software used by an agency fair When algorithms determine questions of justice finance health and defense are the decisions proportionate equitable transparent and accountable How do we harness this extraordinary technology to empower rather than oppress Despite increasingly sophisticated programming artificial intelligences share none of our essential human characteristics sentience physical sensation emotional responsiveness versatile general intelligence However Nigel Shadbolt and Roger Hampson argue if we assess AI decisions products and calls for action as if they came from a human being we can avert a disastrous and amoral future The authors go beyond the headlines about rampant robots to apply established moral principles in shaping our AI future Their new framework constitutes a how to for building a more ethical machine intelligence     Responsible History Antoon de Baets, 2009 The abuse of history is common and quite possibly once more on the rise Although this is well documented there is no general theory that enables historians to identify prove explain and evaluate the many types of abuse of history In this book the author presents such a theory Reflecting on the responsible use of history the author identifies the duties that the living has toward the dead and analyzes the rights to memory and history necessary to fulfill these duties He concludes his argument by proposing a code of ethics as a guide for responsible historians This work is vital for any historian who wants to oppose and prevent the abuse of history Book Jacket     Parameters, 1989     Historical Information Science Lawrence J. photography one blatantly fantastical Yves Klein's Leap into the Void of 1960 the other a purportedly unadulterated record of a real place in time Paul Strand's City Hall Park of 1915 Featuring 160 captivating pictures created between the 1840s and 1990s in the service of art politics news entertainment and commerce Faking It provides an essential counterhistory of photography as an inspired blend of fabricated truths and artful falsehoods Publisher's website      Visual Political Communication Anastasia Veneti, Daniel Jackson, Darren G.
