Mona in Promised Land Jen Gish, 1997-11-11 Diasporic Representations Pin-chia Feng, 2010 In Diasporic Representations author Pin chia Feng examines the stratification of various diasporic subjectivities through close reading fiction by Chinese American women writers of different social and class backgrounds Deploying a strategy of attentive reading Feng engages the intersecting issues of historicity spatiality and bodily imagination from diasporic and feminist perspectives to illuminate the dynamics of deterritorialization and reterritorialization in Chinese American novels in this transnational age The authors studied include Diana Chang Edith Eaton Yan Geling Nih Hualing Gish Jen Shirley Geok lin Lim Aimee Liu Fae Myenne Ng Sigrid Nunez Han Suyin and Amy Tan Consumption and Identity in Asian American Coming-of-Age Novels Jennifer Ho, 2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary study examines the theme of consumption in Asian American literature connection representations of cooking and eating with ethnic identity formation Using four discrete modes of identification historic pride consumerism mourning and fusion Jennifer Ho examines how Asian American adolescents challenge and revise their cultural legacies and experiment with alternative ethnic affiliations through their relationships to food The Interethnic Imagination Caroline Rody, 2009 Rody proposes a new paradigm for understanding the changing terrain of contemporary fiction She claims that what we have long read as ethnic literature is in the process of becoming interethnic Examining an extensive range of Asian American fictions she offers readings of three especially compelling examples      Encyclopedia of Asian-American

Literature Seiwoong Oh, 2010-05-12 Traces American writers whose roots are in all parts of Asia including China Korea Japan Southeast Asia the Philippines the Indian subcontinent and the Middle East      Mappings Susan Stanford

Friedman, 1998-10-19 In this powerful work Susan Friedman moves feminist theory out of paralyzing debates about us and them white and other first and third world and victimizers and victims Throughout Friedman adapts current cultural theory from global and transnational studies anthropology and geography to challenge modes of thought that exaggerate the boundaries of gender race ethnicity sexuality class and national origin The author promotes a transnational and heterogeneous feminism which she maintains can replace the proliferation of feminisms based on difference She argues for a feminist geopolitical literacy that goes beyond fundamentalist identity politics and absolutist poststructuralist theory and she continually focuses the reader's attention on those locations where differences are negotiated and transformed Pervading the book is a concern with narrative the way stories and cultural narratives serve as a primary mode of thinking about the politically explosive question of identity Drawing freely on modernist novels contemporary film popular fiction poetry and mass media the work features narratives of such writers and filmmakers as Gish Jen Julie Dash June Jordan James Joyce Gloria Anzaldua Neil Jordan Virginia Woolf Mira Nair Zora Neale Hurston E M Forster and Irena Klepfisz Defending the pioneering role of academic feminists in the knowledge revolution this work draws on a wide variety of twentieth century cultural expressions to address theoretical issues in postmodern feminism      The Myths That Made America Heike Paul, 2014-08-15 This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today These myths include the myth of discovery the Pocahontas myth the myth of the Promised Land the myth of the Founding Fathers the melting pot myth the myth of the West and the myth of the self made man The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture literature memorial culture school books and every day life Including visual material as well as study questions this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building

Coming of Age in Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard, 2007-04-18 This book explores the ways in which a range of recent American novelists have handled the genre of the coming of age novel or the Bildungsroman Novels of this genre characteristically dramatise the vicissitudes of growing up and the trials and tribulations of young adulthood often presented through depictions of immediate family relationships and other social structures This book considers a variety of different American cultures in terms of race class and gender and a range of contemporary coming of age novels so that aesthetic judgements about the fiction might be made in the context of the social history that fiction represents A series of questions are asked Does the coming of age moment in these novels coincide with an interpretation of the fall of America What kind of national commentary does it therefore facilitate Is the Bildungsroman a quintessentially American genre What can it usefully tell us about contemporary American culture Although the focus is on the conte You are What You Eat Annette M. Magid,2009-10-02 You are What You Eat Literary Probes into the Palate offers tantalizing essays immersed in the culture of food expanded across genres disciplines and time The entire collection of You Are What You Eat includes a diversity of approaches and foci from multicultural national and international scholars and has a broad spectrum of subjects including feminist theory domesticity children film cultural history patriarchal gender ideology mothering ideology queer theory politics and poetry Essays include studies of food related works by John Milton Emily Dickinson Fay Weldon Kenneth Grahame Roald Dahl Shel Silverstein J K Rowling Mother Goose John Updike Maxine Hong Kingston Alice Walker Amy Tan Louise Erdrich Amanda Hesser Julie Powell Mary Wilkins Freeman Martin Scorsese Bob Giraldi Clarice Lispector Jos Ant nio Garcia Fran Ross and Gish Hen The topic addresses a range of interests appealing to diverse audiences expanding from college students to food enthusiasts and scholars Precarity in Culture Elisabetta Marino,Bootheina Majoul,2023-06-21 The present state of research in precarity demands meta questions and hence we need to probe both philosophy and practice in light of precarity s different manifestations The plural perspectives by which this phenomenon can be addressed also suggest potential for further theorization alongside that of Butler and her critics By inviting scholars and experts from different fields and disciplines and by applying multiple frameworks methodological approaches and critical lenses this volume seeks to explore the different facets of our precarious world while providing insights into the challenges of our possible futures Crossing Oceans Noella Brada-Williams,Karen Chow,2004-01-01 With the increasing globalization of culture American literature has become a significant body of text for classrooms outside of the United States Bringing together essays from a wide range of scholars in a number of countries including China Japan Korea Singapore and the United States Crossing Oceans focuses on strategies for critically reading and teaching American literature especially ethnic American literature within the Asia Pacific region This book will be an important tool for scholars and teachers from around the globe who desire fresh perspectives on American literature from a variety of national contexts The contributors use perspectives dealing with race feminism cultural geography and structures of power as lenses through which to interpret texts and engage students critical thinking The collection is crossing oceans through the transnational perspectives of the contributors who come from and or teach at colleges and universities in both Asia and the United States Many of the essays reveal how narratives of and about ethnic Americans can be used to redefine and reconfigure not only American literary studies but also constructions of Asian and American identities Complicating Constructions David S. Goldstein,Audrey B. Thacker,2011-10-01 This volume of collected essays offers truly multiethnic historically comparative and meta theoretical readings of the literature and culture of the United States Covering works by a diverse set of American authors from Toni

Morrison to Bret Harte these essays provide a vital supplement to the critical literary canon mapping a newly variegated terrain that refuses the distinction between ethnic and nonethnic literatures "Something Dreadful and Grand" Stephen Watt,2015-07-01 This book traces the often uncanny relationships between Irish and Jewish America arguing for the centrality of these two diasporic groups to the development of American popular music fiction and especially drama

Modeling Minority Women Reshmi J. Hebbar,2013-10-11 This powerful study reconceptualizes ideas of ethnic literature while investigating the construction of ethnic heroines shifting the focus away from cultural politics and considering instead narrative or poetic qualities which involve surprising relationships between Anglo American women s writing and fiction produced by Asian American and African American women authors Understanding Gish Jen Jennifer Ann

Ho,2015-11-30 Jennifer Ann Ho introduces readers to a typical American writer Gish Jen the author of four novels Typical American Mona in the Promised Land The Love Wife and World and Town a collection of short stories Who s Irish and a collection of lectures Tiger Writing Art Culture and the Interdependent Self Jen writes with an engaging sardonic and imaginative voice illuminating themes common to the American experience immigration assimilation individualism the freedom to choose one s path in life and the complicated relationships that we have with our families and our communities A second generation Chinese American Jen is widely recognized as an important American literary voice at once accessible philosophical and thought provoking In addition to her novels she has published widely in periodicals such as the New Yorker Atlantic Monthly and Yale Review Ho traces the evolution of Jen s career her themes and the development of her narrative voice In the process she shows why Jen s observations about life in the United States though revealed through the perspectives of her Asian American and Asian immigrant characters resonate with a variety of audiences who find themselves reflected in Jen s accounts of love grief desire disappointment and the general domestic experiences that shape all our lives Following a brief biographical sketch Ho examines each of Jen s major works showing how she traces the transformation of immigrant dreams into mundane life explores the limits of self identification and characterizes problems of cross national communication alongside the universal problems of aging and generational conflict Looking beyond Jen s fiction work a final chapter examines her essays and her concerns and stature as a public intellectual and detailed primary and secondary bibliographies provide a valuable point of departure for both teaching and future scholarship Historical Dictionary of

Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu,2022-08-15 A Library Journal Best Reference Book of 2022 This book represents the culmination of over 150 years of literary achievement by the most diverse ethnic group in the United States Diverse because this group of ethnic Americans includes those whose ancestral roots branch out to East Asia Southeast Asia South Asia and Western Asia Even within each of these regions there exist vast differences in languages cultures religions political systems and colonial histories From the earliest publication in 1887 to the latest in 2021 this dictionary celebrates the incredibly rich body of fiction poetry memoirs plays and children s literature Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries on genres major terms and authors This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this topic     Troubled Legacies Michel Feith, Claudine Raynaud, 2015-09-18 What is being passed on The questions of heritage and inheritance are crucial to American minority literatures Some inheritances are claimed some are imposed and become stifling others still are impossible like the memories of oppression or alienation Heritage is not only patrimony however it is also a process in a state of constant reconfiguration The body its semiotics its genealogy its pressure points figures prominently as inevitable referent for the minority racial ethnic subject the performance and the writing of difference This collection of essays analyzes contemporary novels from major African American writers such as Gayl Jones Phyllis Alesia Perry Percival Everett John Edgar Wideman and Colson Whitehead and ethnic American novelists like Jeffrey Eugenides Philip Roth Gish Jen and Sergio Troncoso It also includes the study of a painting by African American artist Robert Colescott The first section of the book examines the inscription of African American writers relation to the nation s past the trauma of slavery the burden of foundational discourses or the legacy of the classical philosophical canon The second part of the text is an assessment of the postmodern aesthetics of contemporary black fiction in the construction of history unveiling the modalities of the palimpsest fragmentation intermediality mises en abyme in a complex grammar of haunting and denial Gathering essays on Greek American Jewish American Chinese American and Mexican American fiction the final section delineates new conceptions of ethnicity based on fluidity hybridity and performativity Cross ethnic experimentations in super diversity according to which identities become optional an array of choices rather than forced belonging seem to be pointing the way to the next stage that of a post racial post ethnic society Yet the conjugated strictures of race and class still limit these choices to a significant degree and the works discussed in this volume often playfully or sarcastically question the validity of the post They ultimately ask who shall inherit America     Conversations with Gish Jen John Zheng, Biling Chen, 2018-10-24 Conversations with Gish Jen is the first collection of interviews with the renowned contemporary American author Gish Jen b 1955 whose acclaimed fiction and nonfiction have fascinated American readers for more than thirty years The conversations in this book offer first hand information not only about Jen s authorial intentions but also about her life as a daughter of Chinese immigrants Spanning more than two decades beginning in 1991 and ending with a new unpublished interview from 2017 these interviews provide readers a sense of Jen s development as a novelist and cultural critic Jen s insights into the merits and drawbacks of Eastern and Western cultures including American individualism and exceptionalism and Asian interdependent mindset and living principles provide us with keys to understanding the identity struggles of the author herself as well as her fictional characters The comparative approach Jen adopts in her comments on such topics as education politics business religion and concepts of creativity and success provokes readers to reflect on their relationships with themselves with the society in which they live and with the rest of the world At the heart of these conversations is Jen s sense of humor which makes the book a joyful read for both scholars and casual fans of her work
