were leading figures of the time As well as his fellow Impressionists in particular Renoir Pissarro Sisley Degas and Cezanne other regular guests included Rodin Whistler Maupassant Valery and one of Monet s closest friends the statesman Clemenceau They came to dine in almost ritual form first visiting Monet s studio and the greenhouses then having lunch at 11 30 the time the family always dined to enable Monet to make the most of the afternoon light Tea would later be served under the lime trees or near the pond Guests were never invited to dinner because Monet went to bed very early in order to rise at dawn All the guests were familiar with Monet s rigid timetable The recipes collected in his cooking journals include dishes Monethad encountered in his travels or had come across in restaurants he frequented in Paris as well as recipes from friends such as Cezanne s bouillabaisse and Millet s petits pains For this book the author Claire Joyes wife of Madame Monet s great grandson has spent years selecting the Monets favorite recipes and writing a wonderfully evocative introductory text All of the recipes have been artfully prepared and brought back to life in Monet s own kitchen by master chef Joel Robuchon Illustrated with sumptuous reproductions of Monet s paintings spectacular original four color photographs of Giverny selected shots of finished dishes and facsimile pages from the notebooks themselves this book provides a fascinating and unique insight into the turn of the century lifestyle of one of the world s most celebrated Impressionist painters AB
