Munmun Ghosh, 2016-01-19 The poignant tale of a husband and wife who fight adversities to keep their marriage going Young and beautiful Mayuri, wife of affluent businessman Vimal, is crushed as she fails to conceive even with medication.
Deeply in love with his wife, Vimal gives in to her plea to seek help through reproductive technology. The treatments tax the couple physically and emotionally, straining their relations. While Vimal grapples with his business challenges, Mayuri plods along, restless, depressed, painfully aware of her growing age and convinced she cannot be content unless she has a child. In her desperation, she turns to religion and even hurtles to the edge of infidelity. What makes a couple's life complete? Are children the indispensable glue binding a family? And does motherhood and fatherhood have to be biological? Munmun Ghosh holds a master's degree in English literature from Mumbai University. She worked as a full-time journalist for a range of publications: Stardust, The Economic Times, The Daily, and indya.com for over a decade before segueing to creative writing.

No Doors, No Windows Harlan Ellison, 2014-04-01 Stories of fear in all its forms from the leading craftsman in the literature of terror and dread. Louisville Courier Journal Times: You have nothing to fear but fear itself. The only trouble is fear comes in so many different shapes and sizes these days: the rejection by a beautiful woman, the threat of impending nuclear holocaust, the erratic behavior of wackos walking the streets who only need a wrong word and there they go to the top of an apartment building with a sniper's rifle. Fear is all around you and the minute you get all the rational fears taken care of, all battened down and secure, here comes something new. Like the special fears generated in these sixteen incredible stories. Fear described as it has never been described before by the startling imagination of Harlan Ellison, master fantasist and tour guide through the land of dreadful visions, unerring observer of human folly and supernatural diabolism.

Lippincott's Monthly Magazine, 1904      Thicker Than Blood Anne Marie Citro, Every paramedic's worst nightmare is to arrive at the scene of a horrific accident and find out that the victim is someone they love. Or in Caden Ross's case, the woman he used to love. It took two years to finally get over Dakota and move on with his life, or so Caden believed until he has to face the thought of a world without her. Nothing could have prepared the handsome headstrong off-duty paramedic for the emotional upheaval of keeping the woman he once thought would be his forever alive. Dakota Martineau appeared to have the world in the palm of her hand. She is beautiful, kind, has an adoring family including her best friend and identical twin sister.
She has a passion for incorporating her love of life, family, and her cultural background into her dream job with special needs kids. Then in a life-altering crash, she discovers just how fragile life is. Thankful to be surrounded by an incredible group of friends who will help heal not just her body but also her soul, she knows she should be happy she is alive and on the mend, but Dakota is still tormented by the loss of her one true love. How can you feel safe with the one person who hurt you the most?
What road will Caden and Dakota take when they discover fate wreaked havoc on everything they thought was true?
