The Monk and the Philosopher Jean Francois Revel,Matthieu Ricard,2000-02-15 Jean Francois Revel a pillar of French intellectual life in our time became world famous for his challenges to both Communism and Christianity Twenty seven years ago his son Matthieu Ricard gave up a promising career as a scientist to study Tibetan Buddhism not as a detached observer but by immersing himself in its practice under the guidance of its greatest living masters Meeting in an inn overlooking Katmandu these two profoundly thoughtful men explored the questions that have occupied humankind throughout its history Does life have meaning What is consciousness Is man free What is the value of scientific and material progress Why is there suffering war and hatred Their conversation is not merely abstract they ask each other questions about ethics rights and responsibilities about knowledge and belief and they discuss frankly the differences in the way each has tried to make sense of his life Utterly absorbing inspiring and accessible this remarkable dialogue engages East with West ideas with life and science with the humanities providing wisdom on how to enrich the way we live our lives The Monk and the Philosopher

Jean Francois Revel,Matthieu Ricard,1998 The Monk and the Philosopher Jean-François Revel,Matthieu Ricard,1998 In this father son dialogue Revel and Ricard explore the most fundamental questions of human existence and the ways in which they are embraced by Eastern and Western thought In this meeting of minds they touch upon philosophy and spirituality science and politics psychology and ethics They raise the eternal questions Does life have meaning What is consciousness Is man free Why is there suffering war hatred They present and practical answers that offer revolutionary approaches to how we can enrich the way we live our lives Rebirth Roger R. Jackson,2022-03-22 For anyone interested in what happens after death this is a definitive guide to the concept of rebirth or reincarnation in Buddhism Reincarnation has been a popular belief in cultures throughout the world for many millennia The possibility that we lived before and may be born again whether as a human or in some other form of existence continues to fascinate us and features heavily in popular novels and movies and also as a subject of recent scholarly studies Although Buddhism is one of the religious traditions best known for asserting rebirth the history and scope of Buddhist approaches to the idea has not received comprehensive treatment until now This first ever guide to ideas and practices surrounding rebirth in Buddhism covers the historical context for the Buddha s teachings on the topic explains what Buddhists believe is actually reborn and where surveys rebirth related practices in multiple Buddhist cultures and considers whether all Buddhist traditions agree about what happens after death The book also addresses interpretations of rebirth in modern Buddhist contexts and recent scientific attempts to document reincarnation in conversation with Buddhist beliefs It is in short the first truly comprehensive overview of rebirth across the major Buddhist traditions written by a leading scholar and teacher of Buddhism Overtone Singing Mark Van Tongeren,2023-02-28 An indispensable guide to a deeper understanding of the nature of the human voice and its harmonic possibilities from East to West Overtone Singing is the most comprehensive book ever written on the hidden harmonies of the human voice Ethnomusicologist and vocalist Mark van Tongeren offers fascinating insights into the timeless and universal aspects of sound and vibration Grounded in the author's decade long study of Asian music the book draws upon field work interviews with Eastern and Western musicians and copious scholarship to present a multidisciplinary vision of sound that runs from global music to the science of acoustics and perception onward to the philosophical and spiritual dimensions of music Written in a nontechnical style this generously illustrated book is an indispensable guide for musicians listeners and performers seeking a deeper understanding of the nature of the human voice and its harmonic possibilities from East to West

Nothing Marcus Boon, Timothy Morton, Eric Cazdyn, 2024-05-31 Though contemporary European philosophy and critical theory have long had a robust engagement with Christianity there has been no similar engagement with Buddhism a surprising lack given Buddhism's global reach and obvious affinities with much of Continental philosophy This volume fills that gap focusing on nothing essential to Buddhism of course but also a key concept in critical theory from Hegel and Marx through deconstruction queer theory and contemporary speculative philosophy Through an elaboration of emptiness in both critical and Buddhist traditions an examination of the problem of praxis in Buddhism Marxism and psychoanalysis and an explication of a Buddhaphobia that is rooted in modern anxieties about nothingness Nothing opens up new spaces in which the radical cores of Buddhism and critical theory are renewed and revealed

East Asian Pedagogies David Lewin, Karsten Kenkies, 2020-07-13 This book opens up philosophical spaces for comparative discussions of education across East and West It develops an intercultural dialogue by exploring the Anglo American traditions of educational transformation and European constructions of Bildung alongside East Asian traditions of transformation and development Comparatively little research has been done in this area and many questions concerning the commensurability of North American European and East Asian pedagogies remain Despite this dearth of theoretical research there is ample evidence of continued interest in self formation through various East Asian practices from martial arts to health and spiritual practices e g Aikido Tai Chi Yoga mindfulness etc suggesting that these traditional practices and pedagogical relations have something important to offer despite their marginal standing in educational discourse This book will appeal to all researchers and students of comparative education studies with an interest in issues of interpretation and translation between different traditions and cultures Aggression, Time, and Understanding Frank M.

Healing the Split Marc Elihu Hofstadter, 2011 Healing the Split consists of the collected essays of poet literary critic and philosopher Marc Elihu Hofstadter The essays stretch from Hofstadter s early scholarly articles about poets William Carlos Williams and Yves Bonnefoy through articles published in the Redwood Coast Review about poetry art music science politics and France to recent articles concerning the split between the sciences and the humanities reason and feeling intuition faith The book embodies Hofstadter s consistent belief in the idea that all human activities are composed of an objective element and a subjective element Human knowledge whether scientific mathematical philosophical or artistic contains a degree of objective certainty mixed with a component of subjective feeling The differences between science and the humanities are differences of degree of objectivity not of essence and the knowledge the humanities display is a genuine form of knowledge less certain than science but rich in tangible felt experience Even early in his career as a literary critic Hofstadter was interested in how such otherwise diverse poets as Williams and Bonnefoy sacralize the coming together of mind and world in all forms of human experience As Williams put it No ideas but in things by which he meant not Let there not be any ideas but Let all ideas be inextricably entwined with the physical world Hofstadter argues that in all our activities there is a mixture of the thinking reasoning mind and the parts of us that feel perceive touch our bodies our hearts Science and philosophy are the great achievements of the mind while art and religion are the most powerful consummations of sensing and feeling yet science and philosophy are partly emotive and art and theology partly rational The difference again is in degree Healing the Split is an attempt to bring reason and feeling intuition faith together to show how they are intimately related The Buddhist faith is key to this effort because Buddhism doesn t analyze out reason and non rational knowledge as separate faculties but tries to unite them in a direct embodied kind of experience that heals the split between them and makes the individual human being whole In Buddhism everything we know is known through consciousness and distinctions between subject and object mind and world logic and faith become artificial since consciousness is essentially unitary And Buddhism sees all phenomena known through consciousness as being related in a universal web everything is connected ultimately to everything else and the world is essentially One Healing the Split is finally a work of mysticism in the line of Parmenides who believed that everything is one or the Kabbalists who worshipped the All in the form of Ha Shem the unnamable Name Marc Elihu
