The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1927 Musical Observer ,1916 We Come Again with Song to Greet You L. V. H. Crosby,1846 Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo,2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Jacobs' Band Monthly ,1929 Christian Register and Boston Observer... ,1886 Orpheus Quadrilles ,1867 Dwight's Journal of Music John Sullivan Dwight,1860 Loved and Departed! Giuseppe Verdi,1860 Musical Times and Singing Class Circular ,1897 The International Who's Who in Popular Music 2002 Andy Gregory,2002 TheInternational Who's Who in Popular Music 2002offers comprehensive biographical information covering the leading names on all aspects of popular music It brings together the prominent names in pop music as well as the many emerging personalities in the industry providing full biographical details on pop rock folk jazz dance world and country artists Over 5 000 biographical entries include major career details concerts recordings and compositions honors and contact addresses Wherever possible information is obtained directly from the entrants to ensure accuracy and reliability Appendices include details of record companies management companies agents and promoters The reference also details publishers festivals and events and other organizations involved with music The Musician ,1919 The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1876 Werner's Magazine ,1893 Music & Drama ,1882 Evening Harmonies ,1872 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
