Mostly French Makenna Held, 2025-04-22 Mostly French is a love letter to the South of France with 100 recipes that transport you straight to Julia Child's former home. The perfect Mother's Day gift for moms who dream of escaping to Provence. Mostly French is a stunningly beautiful cookbook developed and photographed at La Pitchoune, Julia Child's home in Provence. Inspired by the olive trees and hills of lavender, thyme, and wild asparagus, author and cooking instructor Makenna Held shares 150 recipes that pay homage to the serenity of Southern France. Through dishes such as Roasted Chicken with Lemon and Sumac, Caprese with Peaches and Strawberries, and Lavender Salted Caramels, among dozens of others that lean into France and ease, she channels the best of French cooking: simple ingredients, technique, and balanced flavors. But just as deliciously, Mostly French is Makenna's story of finding herself in the slower pace of the French countryside. She lives with the spirit of Julia Child and honors her legacy while forging her own path as a cook and teacher. In the narrative woven throughout the introductory material and recipe headnotes, Makenna writes as much about developing as a person as she does about developing delicious recipes. What makes this book special is Makenna's classic French staples: Roasted Tomato Jam, Dream Vinaigrette, and sauces like an easy Hollandaise put to use next to meal-sized salads, roasts, and omelettes that make a meal. With tips and tricks and an extensive section on cheese and charcuterie boards for the golden hour of L'Aperçu, this cookbook will delight anyone with its modern approach to everyday French cooking.

Teaching with Comedy Evan Hoovler, 2019-12-05 Evan Hoovler uses his decades of comedy experience to engage students in the classroom, and now he's sharing all his secrets in Teaching With Comedy. Any teacher can become more effective and engaging by laughing along with these simple exercises. Instead of using "look at me" tactics to get students' attention, Hoovler wants to do the opposite: he uses humor to focus attention on the lesson, not the instructor, and guide a distracted class back on track. With anecdotes and explanations, Hoovler walks you through how to use certain jokes to keep students engaged and on task. You'll get prompts and ideas for exercises to use in your own classes from an expert with decades of experience. Even those who aren't teachers will enjoy this seasoned educator's Dave Barry-esque takes on public schools, the history of teaching, educational philosophy, and what exactly makes a joke-telling teacher good versus unbearably corny. Teaching with Comedy is the perfect gift for any teacher or comedy fan seeking light but meaningful reading fare.

19th and 20th Century French Philosophy Frederick Charles Copleston, 2003-01-01 Copleston, an Oxford Jesuit and specialist in the history of philosophy, created his history as an introduction for Catholic ecclesiastical seminaries. The 11-volume series gives an accessible account of each philosopher's work and explains their relationship to the work of other philosophers.

Education for Tomorrow Michael Risku, Letitia Harding, 2013-02-11 Education for Tomorrow: A Biocentric Student-Focused Approach to Education Reform. Michael Risku, University of the Incarnate Word, USA, and Letitia Harding, University of the Incarnate Word, USA. There are many books on the market which discuss indigenous ways of knowing and bemoan western society's seeming lack of interest in anything other than scientific, fact-based knowledge. Equally plentiful are the writings of critical theorists who consider today's public education system to be divisive and manipulated by those in power to ensure that their children have the educational advantages needed to maintain the elite hierarchical status quo Education for Tomorrow is unique in that it brings both of these approaches together first by examining the ways that indigenous people and women of all cultures acquire and pass on knowledge and the deleterious effects that enforced Eurocentric systems have had on that process The authors then turn to public schools to explore the influences both good and bad that today's programs have on the distribution of opportunities afforded to all children in the United States Finally they offer suggestions for a revolutionary education system which highlights the need for all students to have the encouragement and freedom to look critically and rationally at their lives and at their relationship with the natural world This can be achieved by looking back to the pedagogical methods of our indigenous ancestors and forward to a time when all children regardless of ethnic or socio economic heritage are taught in such a way that every aspect of their lives is addressed nurtured valued and enhanced

The Factory of Facts Lucy Sante, 2012-09-12 The acclaimed author of Low Life reinvents the memoir in a cunning lyrical book that is at once a personal history and a meditation on the construction of identity Born in Belgium but raised in New Jersey Lucy Sante transformed herself from a pious timid Belgian child into a boisterous American adolescent who eschewed French while fantasizing about the pop star Françoise Hardy To show how this transformation came about and why it remained incomplete The Factory of Facts combines family anecdote and ancestral legend detailed forays into Belgian history language and religion and deft synopses of the American character

Where the Pavement Ends Erika Warmbrunn, 2002-09-01 In the middle of the night I crawled out of my tent into a silvery vastness truly unchanged since Genghis Khan and his hordes looped west more than half a millennium ago There was no glow of city lights on the horizon no ranger station at the edge of the next valley no quaint general store no paved road There was nothing but space unbounded and untamed A brilliant moon lit the blackness crystal clear Moonshadows of every blade of grass danced silently in the wildness It was the emptiest quietest place I had ever been I threw my arms out wide and spun slowly around and around in the dazzling clarity of the night the stars blurring into ribbons of light above me Mongolia It was Erika Warmbrunn's dream To escape deep into parts of Asia inaccessible to tours and guidebooks to abandon herself to the risks of the unknown And so with only a bicycle named Greene for a traveling companion she set off on an eight month 8 000 kilometer trek that stretched across the steppes of this ancient land on through China and down the length of Vietnam Freed by Greene's two wheels from the tyranny of discrete points on a map she found that the true merit of travel was not in the simple seeing but in flowing with the unexpected adventure or invitation in savoring the moments in between the daily challenges of new words and customs the tiny triumphs of learning a new way of life the daunting thrill of never knowing what the next day would bring Wanting to ride a Mongolian horse and finding herself in the saddle for four hours herding fifty head of cattle Asking for a hotel in a Chinese village and being taken into a family's home to share their grandmother's bed for the night Pedaling into the Vietnamese highlands and being stopped along the muddy road by a father asking that she join his two year old son's birthday party Accepting a Mongolian village's invitation to stop pedaling and stay for a while to live with them and teach them English In the doing and the telling Where the Pavement Ends is a much richer experience than any line on a map can show Where the Pavement Ends is the recipient of the Barbara Savage Miles From Nowhere Memorial Award You can find out more about this author at her website www.wherethepavementends.com
