Myself Must I Remake:

Myself Must I Remake Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 1974 A biography of the Irish poet dramatist and essayist generally considered the most important poet in English of his time Gayatri Spivak Stephen Morton, 2007-02-12 Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak's seminal contribution to contemporary thought defies disciplinary boundaries From her early translations of Derrida to her subsequent engagement with Marxism feminism and postcolonial studies and her recent work on human rights the war on terror and globalization she has proved to be one of the most vital of present day thinkers In this book Stephen Morton offers a wide ranging introduction to and critique of Spivak's work He examines her engagements with philosophers and other thinkers from Kant to Paul de Man feminists from Cixous to Helie Lucas and literary texts by Charlotte Bronte J M Coetzee Mahasweta Devi and Jean Rhys Spivak's thought is also situated in relation to subaltern studies Throughout the book Morton interrogates the materialist basis of Spivak's thought and demonstrates the ethical and political commitment which lies at the heart of her work Stephen Morton provides an ideal introduction to the work of this complex and increasingly important thinker The Problem of Consciousness in Modern Poetry Hugh Underhill, 1992-07-31 Modernist aesthetics have been identified with a sense of cultural crisis defined by its distance from an ideal of unified consciousness This original study examines the struggle toward that ideal of unitary subjective experience in modern British and Irish poetry from Hardy to Ted Hughes Hugh Underhill argues that the poetry's emphasis on inner states underrepresents the extent to which the crisis is in fact socio historically determined The Oxford Handbook of W.B. Yeats Lauren Arrington, Matthew Campbell, 2023-05-30 The forty two chapters in this book consider Yeats's early toil his practical and esoteric concerns as his career developed his friends and enemies and how he was and is understood This Handbook brings together critics and writers who have considered what Yeats wrote and how he wrote moving between texts and their contexts in ways that will lead the reader through Yeats's multiple selves as poet playwright public figure and mystic It assembles a variety of views and adds to a sense of dialogue the antinomian or deliberately divided way of thinking that Yeats relished and encouraged This volume puts that sense of a living dialogue in tune both with the history of criticism on Yeats and also with contemporary critical and ethical debates not shirking the complexities of Yeats's more uncomfortable political positions or personal life It provides one basis from which future Yeats scholarship can continue to participate in the fascination of all the contributors here in the satisfying difficulty of this great writer Poetry in the Making Daniel Tyler, 2021 An edited collection on poetic creation in the Victorian period that studies nine major Victorian poets Wordsworth Tennyson Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning Clough Christina Rossetti Hopkins Swinburne and Yeats The Accidental Anthropologist Michael Jackson, 2013-12-16 Journeys through the Congo Sierra Leone and Outback Australia in an inventive memoir by a Commonwealth Poetry Prize winning ethnographer The Accidental Anthropologist is a fascinating impeccably written memoir or more accurately a series of fragments Compelling and absorbing as well as intense and insightful Jackson writes a far from classically autobiographical text There is nothing predictable about the mode or incidents he has chosen to write about this is literary memoir at its best and most inventive Jackson has a fascination with the concept of personal metamorphosis the idea that a life can be dismantled and reassembled in a different country and set of relationships And throughout the story the author makes a pretty good fist of living the theory Jackson's experiences begin with his earnest portrayal of young adulthood in Wellington where he associates on the fringes with many of the literary figures of the early 1960s Bob Lowry Fleur Adcock James K Baxter R A K Mason and the artist McCahon Jackson finds himself homeless in London where he's drawn to help the poor and eventually finds his way to Cambridge where he stumbles upon anthropology His subsequent ethnographic fieldwork takes him to the Congo Sierra Leone and outback Australia Jackson makes it clear that our lives are barely our own they belong as much to the people the landscapes the influences of thought and ideology that absorb us He excels at the intensely personal and captivates with this masterful work The Accidental Anthropologist is a challenging and magnificent memoir much of it is spellbinding astute and disquieting

What Matters Most James Hollis, 2009 Why are we here What is the meaning of existence What truly matters the most in life To even begin to answer these questions we must start by exploring our own internal ideals values and beliefs Presenting the unique perspective of respected analyst and author James Hollis Ph D What Matters Most helps readers learn to appreciate even be amazed by events unfolding within even as the external world creates constant struggles W. B. Yeats and the Language of Sculpture Jack Quin, 2022 A study of the relationship between literature and sculpture in the work of W B Yeats that draws on an extensive range of unpublished archival materials from the poet's early career in the late Victorian period and across his entire oeuvre of poetry plays and critical writing Worlds Within and Worlds Without Michael Jackson, 2023-04-15 Anthropologist Michael Jackson predicates his intellectual autobiography Worlds Within and Worlds Without on the view that works and lives are intimately entangled Through a skillful interweaving of personal and ethnographic descriptions he focuses on the imaginative and practical ways human beings negotiate the space between worlds they call their own and worlds they regard as lying beyond their immediate purview Whether the worlds that elude our empirical grasp are identified with divinities or the dead ether or earth history or myth the Internet or the nation state we experience them ambivalently as potential sources of wellbeing and as possible threats to our very existence Closing ourselves off from the world is not an option for our humanity depends on the ties that bind us to significant others and others to us As Jackson shows the relationship between the familiar and the foreign is not only an existential issue that all human beings address in one way or another It is a methodological issue for anthropologists concerned with the complementarity of individual and collective perspectives ethnos and anthropos the intrapsychic and the intersubjective Cosmopolitan Criticism and Postcolonial Literature R. Spencer, 2011-04-28 Via readings of novels by J M Coetzee Timothy Mo and Salman Rushdie and the later poetry of W B Yeats this book reveals how postcolonial writing can encourage the enlarged sense of moral and political responsibility needed to supplant ongoing forms of imperial violence with cosmopolitan institutions relationships and ways of thinking Pandemic Health and Fitness Sabina M. Perrino, Joshua O.

Phillips Oppenheim, 2018-03-13 They were seated in a comfortable recess of the card room of the St Philip s Club The atmosphere of the apartment seemed redolent with suggestions of faded splendour There was a faint perfume of Russian calf from the many rows of musty volumes which still filled the stately bookcases The oil paintings which hung upon the walls belonged to a remote period In a distant corner four other men were playing bridge speechless and almost motionless the white faces of two of them like cameos under the electric light and against the dark walls There was no sound except the soft patter of the cards and the subdued movements of a servant preparing another bridge table by the side of the three men Then the door of the room was quietly opened and closed A man of youthful middle age carefully dressed with a large clean shaven face blue eyes and fair hair sprinkled with grey came towards them He was well set up almost anxiously ingratiating in manner Year of the Dunk Asher

Price, 2015-05-12 By embarking on a quest to dunk a basketball at the age of 34 journalist Asher Price investigates the limits of human potential starting with his own We all like to think that with a little practice we could run faster learn another language or whip up a perfect souffl But few of us ever put those hopes to the test In Year of the Dunk Asher Price does and he seizes on basketball s slam dunk a feat richly freighted with distinctly American themes of culture race and upward mobility as a gauge to determine his own hidden potential The showmanship of the dunk mesmerized Asher as a child but even with his height six foot plus and impressive wingspan he never pushed himself to try it Now approaching middle age Asher decides to spend a year remaking his body and testing his mind as he wonders like most adults what untapped talent he still possesses In this humorous and often poignant journey into the pleasures and perils of exertion Asher introduces us to a memorable cast of characters who help him understand the complexity of the human body and the individual drama at the heart of sports Along the way he dives into the history and science of one of sports most exuberant acts examining everything from our genetic predisposition towards jumping to the cultural role of the slam dunk The year long effort forces him to ask some fundamental questions about human ability and the degree to which we can actually improve ourselves even with great determination
