The Mystery of Being, Vol. 1 Gabriel Marcel, 2015-08-08 Excerpt from The Mystery of Being Vol 1 Reflection and Mystery

It might be said in the first place that a road implies space and that the notion of space is something from which a meta physical investigation as such must abstract One must make the simple answer that if my metaphor must be rejected on this count so must every kind of discursive thinking for it is all too evident that the notion of discursiveness implies and rests on a simple physical image like that of walking along a road Moreover we shall later on have occasion to recognize the existence and philosophical rights of a sort of spatiality which might be called the spatiality of inner experience and it may be that this spatiality of inner experience is coextensive with the whole spiritual life But the objection may be put in another way which has a dangerous look of being much more genuinely awkward To lay down a road in a place where at first there were only tracks is that not equivalent to fixing in advance a certain destination at which one intends to arrive and must not that destination itself be very exactly located The underlying image would be that of a grotto a mine or a sanctuary whose whereabouts one knew in advance It would be a matter of showing the way there to those who for one reason or another wanted to have a look at the place no doubt in order to profit from its riches But does not this presuppose that the result we are working for has already been achieved even before we start working for it does it not presuppose a preliminary or original discovery of the grotto or the sanctuary Well looking at the matter in my own way I must ask whether in the realm of philosophy we can really talk about results Is not all such talk based on a misunderstanding of the specific character of a philosophical investigation as such The question raised here at least obliges us to come to much closer grips with the very notion of a result About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Mystery of Being Gabriel Marcel, 1950 , Tragic Humanity and Hope Pius Ojara SJ, 2007-09-01 With insights into the thought of Gabriel Marcel Tragic Humanity and Hope recognizes that in our age scientific knowing is becoming a dominant form of knowledge The leadership influence growth and gravitational center of human existence depend it seems on scientific knowledge As a result we live in an information age that prizes production and immediate satisfaction but devalues the cultivation of wisdom We risk diminishing the significance of sapiential knowing to deal with the immensely complex and intricate domains of human relationality Furthermore inquiry into moral discernment methods expands becoming more diverse yet scholarly conversations that engage the vital exigencies as founding moral sensibility seem noticeably insufficient Tragic Humanity and Hope strives to overcome this lack But Ojara also seeks ethical groundings that exceed the language of pragmatic utility and aesthetic preference Foundations of morality cannot exclude questions of the common good and shared moral obligations that free people to reach out to one another with hopes and memories that endow life with shared meaning Through continuity and cohesion that the interlacing of scientific sapiential and moral knowing bring life becomes a marvelous expression of light joy and fervor Toward a Fuller Human Identity Pius Ojara,2006 This book is based on the thought of Gabriel Marcel and offers an introduction to the central categories of Marcel s thought focusing on his idea of existential humanism This study deals with the ambivalence of human existence and the concepts of being ego and bodiliness The author draws on examples from everyday life with a particular focus on African values and the recovery of the black self Medicine and Hope: A Natural Theology of Human

Caretaking Richard Sherlock,2024-09-12 This book expands in a modest way the discussion of hope and does so by focusing on a field where it is at the core of care taking medicine The three great religious virtues of medieval theology were faith hope and love An enormous literature exists about faith and love but much less exists about hope Doctors often know what they want to do for a patient but do not know whether they are able to have a good result If they fail will the result be worse They must hope they can succeed In other cases they know what they can do but they are uncertain whether they should If they do not undertake action will the patient try to do it themselves with a much worse result Questions such as these raise the issue of the importance of hope in medicine This book builds on an insight from the first modern textbook of medical ethics Thomas Percival s 1803 classic Medical Ethics There Percival says that the doctor is a minister of hope to the sick This book analyses this concept which is central to the practice of medicine Resourcing Hope for Ageing and Dying in a

Broken World Ashley Moyse,2022-09-06 For those captive to the broken world of late modernity wherein ageing and dying persons become vulnerable to despair this book offers a diagnostic of such despair It also resources the practices of a realistic humanising hope that might enable a strength for person to journey with and for others together through such despair Thus by addressing the aetiology of despair experienced by people confronting ageing frailty and dying and drawing upon the writings of Gabriel Marcel among others Ashley Moyse reveals the problematic life of a broken world with its functionalising metaphors instrumentalising reasoning and objectifying desires that offer no hope at all It is a broken world where despair generates behaviours that anticipate suicide or other often tragic outcomes that impede or greatly curtail or even completely inhibit human flourishing Resisting despair but living through it Moyse presents the activity of the moral life demonstrating a way persons might be resourced through an intersubjective and reflective pedagogy with its habits or practices that enable a humanising hope liberating human beings to become those readied to confront the actualities of human living and dying and encouraged to grow and develop as wayfarers hopefully Qualitative Inquiry Rosemarie Rizzo Parse,2001 Presents qualitative research methods for systematically studying human experiences Parse Loyola University describes the conceptual ethical and interpretive dimensions of qualitative research and provides the ontology epistemology and methodology for several approaches Example research studies are reprinted from Nursing Science Quarterly c Book News Inc

Gabriel Marcel and American Philosophy David W. Rodick, 2017-04-12 Gabriel Marcel and American Philosophy The Religious Dimension of Experience examines the philosophy of Gabriel Marcel and its relationship to key figures in classical American Philosophy in particular Josiah Royce William Ernest Hocking and Henry Bugbee Few scholars have taken sufficient note of the fact that Gabriel Marcel's thought is vitally informed by classical American philosophy Marcel's essays on Royce offer a window into the soul of Marcel's recent philosophical development The idealism of early Marcel stemmed from an omnipresent sense of a broken world an experience of rent or tear within the tissue of experience similar to what John Dewey referred to as an inward laceration of the spirit Furthermore Marcel's intuition concerning the primacy of intersubjective experience can help us understand W E Hocking's thought Finally Marcel's notion of exigence ontologique clarifies his relationship to Henry Bugbee Marcel and Bugbee explore the contour of experience the indigenous circuit of associations pertaining to the self as coesse Through a reflexive act Marcel refers to as ingatherdness the self undergoes increasing degrees of unification by experiencing an act of faith made explicit only in a dialectical act of participation David W Rodick shows that Marcel's relationship to these American philosophers is not coincidental but rather the philosophical expression of his Christian faith Marcel's most important legacy is his commitment to unity of Christian philosophizing a unity derived from both reason and revelation Its diversity stems from the objective plurality of what is pursued as well as the subjective plurality of those who pursue it Christian philosophizing seeks a truth that every Christian believes can never be untrue to itself

A Ready Reference to Philosophy East and West Eugene F. Bales, 1987 Offers a summary account of the history of philosophical thought through the 19th century an unusually updated and balanced account of 20th century thought and lengthy chapters on the history of Chinese and Indian thought Selected by Choice as an Outstanding Academic Book of 1988 1989

The Texture of Being Kenneth L. Schmitz, 2007-03 Diverse in topics yet unified in purpose this volume brings together Schmitz's penetrating and rich insight into being produced over many years to offer readers a magisterial study from one of the great Christian philosophers of our time

Philosophical Sojourns in Aesthetics, Existence, and Education James M. Magrini, 2022-12-14 This collection of seven speculative and critical essays initiates a journey inviting readers to abide for a short time with philosophical themes emerging from aesthetics poetry existentialism and education It opens vistas into the insightful wisdom of Nietzsche Heidegger Jaspers Rilke and Plato's Socrates The book confronts such perennial issues as the practice of philosophy as a way of life the understanding of subjecthood and human transcendence the pursuit of ethical knowledge in ways that inform and direct the choices we make in the company of others and the philosophical quest for unique ways of learning that transcend contemporary practices embracing standardization and adopting an instrumental approach to education This book is novel in that it offers these insights across broad but related fields of study for although essentially a philosophy text it provides scholarly inroads to the academic fields of literary critique classical studies psychology and educational theory The text could be effectively employed as a secondary avenue of study in institutions of higher learning supplementing primary philosophical sources in the curriculum In addition to programs offering advanced degrees the book also serves as a challenging introductory text for students at the undergraduate level demonstrating an interest in and proclivity for philosophy Exploring the Philosophy of Religion David Stewart, 2017-09-29 Exploring the Philosophy of Religion 7th Edition combines the best features of a text and a reader by offering clear analysis coupled with important primary source readings Professor David Stewart called upon his 30 plus years of teaching experience to introduce students to the important study of philosophical issues raised by religion Beginning students often find primary sources alone too difficult so this text offers primary source materials by a variety of significant philosophers including a balanced blend of classical and contemporary authors but the materials are supported by clearly written introductions which better prepare students to understand the readings One Beat More Kevin Aho, 2022-02-25 A keen athlete in his late forties philosophy professor Kevin Aho hadn't given much thought to his own mortality until he suffered a sudden heart attack that left him fighting for his life Confronted with death for the first time he realized that the things he thought gave his life meaning such as his independence or his ability to plan his own future were in tatters Aho turned to those thinkers who have reflected deeply on the meaning of life and the anxiety of living when every heartbeat might be your last the existentialists Armed with insights from the likes of Kierkegaard Heidegger Nietzsche and de Beauvoir he found new meaning and comfort in a view of life that strives for authenticity and accepts aging and death as part of what makes life worthwhile Existentialism asks us to face the frailty of our existence and to live with a sense of urgency and gratitude toward its manifold beauties It is only then that we can be released from patterns of self deception and begin to appreciate what truly matters in our fleeting precious lives Encyclopedia of Phenomenology Lester Embree, 2013-06-29 This encyclopedia presents phenomenological thought and the phenomenological movement within philosophy and within more than a score of other disciplines on a level accessible to professional colleagues of other orientations as well as to advanced undergraduate and graduate students Entries average 3 000 words In practically all cases they include lists of works For Further Study The Introduction briefly chronicles the changing phenomenological agenda and compares phenomenology with other 20th Century movements The 166 entries are a baut matters of seven sorts 1 the faur broad tendencies and periods within the phenomenological movement 2 twenty three national traditions of phenomenology 3 twenty two philosophical sub disciplines including those referred to with the formula the philosophy of x 4 phenomenological tendencies within twenty one non philosophical dis ciplines 5 forty major phenomenological topics 6 twenty eight leading phenomenological figures and 7 twenty seven non phenomenological figures and movements of interesting sim ilarities and differences with phenomenology Conventions Concern ing persons years of birth and death are given upon first mention in an entry of the names of deceased non phenomenologists The names of persons believed to be phenomenologists and also for cross referencing purposes the titles of other entries are printed entirely in SMALL CAPITAL letters also upon first mention In addition all words thus occurring in all small capital letters are listed in the index with the numbers of all pages on which they occur To facilitate indexing Chinese Hungarian and Japanese names have been re arranged so that the personal name precedes the family name     Seeking Communion as Healing Dialogue Margaret M. Mullan,2021-06-10 Seeking Communion as Healing Dialogue Gabriel Marcel s Philosophy for Today discusses society s problems with interpersonal communication arguing that these issues are more deeply rooted in problems in being Margaret M Mullan draws on the work of Gabriel Marcel to explore the meaning of body of being with and of being at all in today s world answering questions about why we are often unable to dialogue with the people around us why we feel disconnected and alone even in an increasingly technological world and how these changing technologies expose and sometimes exacerbate our weak connections to others Engaging Marcel s reflective method and theory of communion Mullan explores how we seek communion amid technology and proposes that Marcel s reflections are generative contributions to the understanding and study of communication offering a way to seek healing dialogue in present day Scholars of communication philosophy conflict studies and media studies will find this book particularly useful     A Philosophy of Human Hope J.J. Godfrey,2012-12-06 Few reference works in philosophy have articles on hope Few also are systematic or large scale philosophical studies of hope Hope is admitted to be important in people s lives but as a topic for study hope has largely been left to psychologists and theologians For the most part philosophers treat hope en passant My aim is to outline a general theory of hope to explore its structure forms goals reasonableness and implications and to trace the implications of such a theory for atheism or theism What has been written is quite disparate Some see hope in an individualistic often existential way and some in a social and political way Hope is proposed by some as essentially atheistic and by others as incomprehensible outside of one or another kind of theism Is it possible to think consistently and at the same time comprehensively about the phenomenon of human hoping Or is it several phenomena How could there be such diverse understandings of so central a human experience On what rational basis could people differ over whether hope is linked to God What I offer here is a systematic analysis but one worked out in dialogue with Ernst Bloch Immanuel Kant and Gabriel Marcel Ernst Bloch of course was a Marxist and officially an atheist Gabriel Marcel a Christian theist and Immanuel Kant was a theist but not in a conventional way     Family and Christian Ethics Petruschka Schaafsma,2023-08-10 In this book Petruschka Schaafsma offers an innovative appraisal of family Eschewing the framework of worry and renewal that currently dominates family studies she instead explores the topic through the concepts of givenness and dependence Givenness highlights the fact that family is not chosen dependence refers to being intimately included in each other s identities and lives Both experiences are challenging especially in a contemporary context where independence and freedom to shape one s own life have become accepted ideals Schaafsma shows the impasses to which these ideals lead in several disciplines theology philosophy sociology social anthropology and care ethics She moves constructively beyond them by tapping literary artistic and biblical sources for their insights on family Grounded in a theological approach to family as mystery rather than problem she develops an understanding of the current controversial character of family that accounts for both its ordinary and transcendent character This title is available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Comprehensive Handbook of Psychotherapy, Interpersonal/Humanistic/Existential Florence W. Kaslow,Robert F. Massey,Sharon Davis Massey,2004-01-30 Now available in paperback In this volume theoretical frames modalities and applicationsare examined for Interpersonal Humanistic Existentialpsychotherapy Topics range from Culturally SensitivePsychotherapy with Children to Spiritually Sensitive Therapy andExistential Treatment with HIV AIDS clients

Hope as Atmosphere Xu Wang,2022-07-11 In this thesis the phenomenon of fundamental hope is understood as atmosphere As a metaphor hope as atmosphere finds a new expression of hope other than the light metaphor that dominates the discourse of hope Hope is not only the light that illuminates the dark moments of life but also more fundamentally in the air it lies in the sphere in between and saturates each life experience and every living moment As an existential reality hope as atmosphere reveals our hopeful way of atmospheric co existence Communal love constitutes the ground of this hopeful co existence it keeps the hopeful co existence constantly refreshed and open guaranteeing more possibilities of hope On the basis of communal love hopeful co existence shows its ontological meaning as a way towards life The thesis of hope as atmosphere finds resonance and expression not only in Christian trinitarianly based understanding of hope but also in the most central doctrine of co humanity in Confucianism
