Below this, a glowing, golden-yellow path leads from the bottom towards the center. The right side of the image is dominated by a large, intricate, reddish-brown geometric pattern, possibly a mandala or a tribal design. The overall color palette is dark, with vibrant highlights in teal, gold, and red.

Mystic Visions:

Into the Prairie Rosanne Bittner, 2010-03-02 The newest installment of the Westward America series finds the next generation of Wildes attempting to build a farming empire on the prairies of Indiana Will they have the strength and the luck to survive when their dreams are destroyed by the Shawnee

Uttering the Word Armando Maggi, 1998-01-01 Employing contemporary theoretical perspectives Uttering the Word provides the first detailed analysis of the language and thought of Maria Maddalena de Pazzi 1566 1607 an important but neglected Renaissance mystic Borrowing from Lacan de Certeau and Deleuze Maggi analyzes de Pazzi's unique mystical discourse and studies how the Florentine visionary interprets the relationship between orality and writing authorship and audience sexual identity and language

Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self-authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self-constructed non-institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become

Satan's Rhetoric Armando Maggi, 2001-09 Reading innumerable treatises on demonology written during the Renaissance including Thesaurus exorcismorum the most important record of early modern exorcisms Maggi finds repeated attempts to define the language exchanged between the fallen progeny of Adam and the most notorious fallen angel of them all Satan Using points of departure taken from de Certeau and Lacan Maggi shows that Satan articulates his language first and foremost in the mind More than speaking the devil tries to make human beings understand his language and speak it themselves

Field-Being

Interpretation of Buddhist Philosophy Albert Shansky, 2015-09-29 Buddhism is a religion despite the negative attitude of some in the West who espouse that since it has no god it is atheistic and therefore cannot be a religion A religion is a unified system of beliefs and practices that unite into one single moral community A N Whitehead fortified this definition by saying Religion is what the individual does with his own solitariness Buddhism satisfies these definitions by guiding the individual in self reliance and introspection rather than entreaty to an unseen god or spirit It is hoped that the nine essays in this book depict situations where a set of symbolic forms and acts relate man to the ultimate condition of his existence The essays in this book have been written between the years of 1998 and 2000 while Albert Shansky the author was executive vice president of the International Institute of Field Being at Fairfield University

Heaven Opens Matthew Lewis Sutton, 2014 Adrienne von Speyr was one of the most important mystical theologians of the last century However her work has been eclipsed in many ways by her personal connection to Hans Urs von Balthasar Heaven Opens provides one of the first comprehensive accounts of von Speyr's theology Matthew Lewis Sutton argues that the eternal immanent relations of the Triune God ground the mystical theological vision of von Speyr Here von Speyr's work is for the first time given an independent hearing expositing its content features and connections and assessing its contribution to contemporary Catholic theology

Perceptions of Women Joelle Mellon,2016-04-21 Once the Virgin Mary was a pivotal element of Christianity a holy figure at the heart of most Christians spiritual lives She was invoked at all major life passages baptisms weddings childbirths and funerals and images of the Virgin Mary could be found virtually anywhere from pub signs to sacred texts Medieval women especially looked to Mary to answer their prayers be their role model and serve as their advocate in heaven They prayed to her several times a day and sometimes devoted their entire lives to her service This book investigates perceptions of the Virgin Mary through several centuries of literature Focusing especially on the depictions of the Virgin Mary in medieval and Renaissance manuscripts the author rediscovers a time when the Divine Female was very much in evidence and good Christian women were taught to pray to a Holy Mother Topics include the cyclical popularity of Virgin Mary devotional objects such as Books of Hours rosaries and Marian gardens the mystical qualities attributed to the Virgin Mary through centuries of reported divine visions the historical relationships between the Virgin Mary and other religious figures including the Devil and Mary Magdalene as an alternative to the Virgin Mary as a feminine model Religious conversation Sante de Sanctis,1927 Religious Conversion Sante De Sanctis,1927 Religious Conversion Sante de Sanctis,2013-10-08 This is Volume II of six in a collection on Psychology and Religion Originally published in 1927 this is a Bio Psychological study with a special aim the reconstruction of the empirical Ego and its own method introspection Mysticism Evelyn Underhill,1912 William Blake, Poet and Mystic Pierre Berger,1915 Domesticating Empire Karen Stolley,2021-04-30 Why has the work of writers in eighteenth century Latin America been forgotten During the eighteenth century enlightened thinkers in Spanish territories in the Americas engaged in lively exchanges with their counterparts in Europe and Anglo America about a wide range of topics of mutual interest responding in the context of increasing racial and economic diversification Yet despite recent efforts to broaden our understanding of the global Enlightenment the Ibero American eighteenth century has often been overlooked Through the work of five authors Jose de Oviedo y Banos Juan Ignacio Molina Felix de Azara Catalina de Jesus Herrera and Jose Martin Felix de Arrate Domesticating Empire explores the Ibero American Enlightenment as a project that reflects both key Enlightenment concerns and the particular preoccupations of Bourbon Spain and its territories in the Americas At a crucial moment in Spain s imperial trajectory these authors domesticate topics central to empire conquest Indians nature God and gold by making them familiar and utilitarian As a result their works later proved resistant to overarching schemes of Latin American literary history and have been largely forgotten Nevertheless eighteenth century Ibero American writing complicates narratives about both the Enlightenment and Latin American cultural identity The Ways of Knowing William Pepperell Montague,1925 The Ways of Knowing William Pepperell Montague,2024-12-06 The Ways of Knowing 1925 examines the ways of attaining knowledge and verifying it looking at the six methods of logic It is also concerned with the epistemological problem of interpreting the relation of truth to the mind Revelation, Mystical Phenomena and Divine Promises Deacon Albert Graham,2022-10-05 The reader will be appraised of how God has been speaking to His people through public and private revelation for over 2000 years A special chapter in this work deals with some saints and holy people who have had private revelations about or visits from souls in purgatory hell or heaven Another chapter and several of the appendixes are devoted to Marian Apparitions to include those that are approved not approved and those appending a decision by the Church By far one of the greatest strengths of this undertaking is the identification of some 43 categories of concomitant extraordinary phenomena and some of the saints and holy people who have experienced them Color paintings by artists are depicted of some saints experiencing such mystical phenomena Another unique feature of the book is a listing of some 600 individuals from the 13th to the 21st centuries who bore the stigmata By knowing that God is present and alive to His people this book may help bring others to a deeper faith in God

Through a Speculum That Shines Elliot R. Wolfson, 2020-06-30 A comprehensive treatment of visionary experience in some of the main texts of Jewish mysticism this book reveals the overwhelmingly visual nature of religious experience in Jewish spirituality from antiquity through the late Middle Ages Using phenomenological and critical historical tools Wolfson examines Jewish mystical texts from late antiquity pre kabbalistic sources from the tenth to the twelfth centuries and twelfth and thirteenth century kabbalistic literature His work demonstrates that the sense of sight assumes an epistemic priority in these writings reflecting and building upon those scriptural passages that affirm the visual nature of revelatory experience Moreover the author reveals an androcentric eroticism in the scopic mentality of Jewish mystics which placed the externalized and representable form the phallus at the center of the visual encounter In the visionary experience as Wolfson describes it imagination serves a primary function transmuting sensory data and rational concepts into symbols of those things beyond sense and reason In this view the experience of a vision is inseparable from the process of interpretation Fundamentally challenging the conventional distinction between experience and exegesis revelation and interpretation Wolfson argues that for the mystics themselves the study of texts occasioned a visual experience of the divine located in the imagination of the mystical interpreter Thus he shows how Jewish mystics preserved the invisible transcendence of God without doing away with the visual dimension of belief
