Chng, 2014-05-23 After Suharto gained power in Indonesia in the mid 1960s he stayed as the country's president for more than three decades helped by the powerful military hefty foreign aid and support from a coterie of cronies A pivotal business backer for his New Order government was Liem Sioe Liong a migrant from China who arrived in Java in 1938 A combination of the Suharto connection serendipity and personal charm propelled him to become the wealthiest tycoon in Southeast Asia This is the story of how Liem built the Salim Group a conglomerate that in its heyday controlled Indonesia's largest non state bank the country's dominant cement producer and flour mill as well as the world's biggest maker of instant noodles The book features exclusive input from Liem who died in 2012 and his youngest son Anthony Salim It traces the founder's life and the group's symbiosis with Suharto his generals and family After the tumultuous 1997-98 Asian financial crisis sparked Suharto's fall and a backlash against the strongman's cronies Anthony staved off the crushing of the debt laden group Told in a journalistic style the story of the Salim Group provides insights into Suharto's New Order For business executives students and anyone with an interest in Southeast Asia's largest economy the volume makes a valuable contribution towards understanding the country's modern history Democracy, Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia Nils Bubandt, 2014-06-05 Indonesia has been an electoral democracy for more than a decade and yet the political landscape of the world's third largest democracy is as complex and enigmatic as ever The country has achieved a successful transition to democracy and yet Indonesian democracy continues to be flawed illiberal and predatory This book suggests that this and other paradoxes of democracy in Indonesia often assume occult forms in the Indonesian political imagination and that the spirit like character of democracy and corruption traverses into the national media and the political elite Through a series of biographical accounts of political entrepreneurs all of whom employ spirits in various but always highly contested ways the book seeks to provide a portrait of Indonesia s contradictory democracy contending that the contradictions that haunt democracy in Indonesia also infect democracy globally Exploring the intimate ways in which the world of politics and the world of spirits are entangled it argues that Indonesia s seemingly peculiar problems with democracy and spirits in fact reflect a set of contradictions within democracy itself Engaging with recent attempts to look at contemporary politics through the lens of the occult Democracy Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia will be of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Studies Anthropology and Political Science and relevant for the study of Indonesian politics and for debates about democracy in Asia and beyond

Endres, Andrea Lauser, 2012-03-01 In many parts of the contemporary world spirit beliefs and practices have taken on a pivotal role in addressing the discontinuities and uncertainties of modern life The myriad ways in which devotees engage the spirit world show the tremendous creative potential of these practices and their innate adaptability to changing times and circumstances Through in depth anthropological case studies from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand Myanmar Laos and Vietnam the contributors to this book investigate the role and impact of different social political and economic dynamics in the reconfiguration of local spirit worlds in modern Southeast Asia Their findings contribute to the re enchantment debate by revealing that the spirited modernities that have emerged in the process not only embody a distinct feature of the contemporary moment but also invite a critical rethinking of the concept of modernity itself Indonesian Islamic Fiction in the 21st Century: Representations of the Other in the Works of Forum Lingkar Pena Muh Arif Rokhman , 2022-01-28 THIS BOOK examines a selection of fictional works by writers belonging to the Indonesian association of writers Forum Lingkar Pena Pen Circle Forum hereafter referred to as FLP Figures from 2010 suggest that this organisation had around 5 000 members across 93 Indonesian branches and ten overseas branches Writers recruited and trained by FLP have produced approximately nine hundred published works Their works are often categorised as Islamic or religious literature sastra religi This label ling of FLP s literary output as Islamic literature has arisen principally be cause of the publicly expressed aims and beliefs of key FLP figures which include such notions as sastra dakwah literature for religious propaga tion In order to contextualise the emergence of FLP in the final years of the twentieth century and to locate this organisation within wider Indo nesian literary developments it is necessary to take account of cultural debates that came to the fore with the profound social and political changes which accompanied the end of the New Order regime in 1998 Tantric Temples Peter Levenda, 2011-11-01 Tantra is one of the most misunderstood of the esoteric disciplines In order to get a clear idea as to the nature of Tantric ritual and belief it is necessary to go where Tantra is still practiced and from where important Tantric teachings originated a thousand years ago the island of Java in present day Indonesia This book illustrates the history of Tantrism in Java with more than a hundred photographs of temples statues and iconography dedicated to the system some rarely seen before including the recently excavated white temple of Yogyakarta and accounts of contemporary practices in the shrines cemeteries and secret schools of Java It is this Tantra the Tantra of Java that has influenced secret societies mystics alchemists Kabbalists and magicians for hundreds if not thousands of years This book tells the story of how human sexuality became a metaphor and a template for both spiritual transformation and the manipulation of reality of how various sexual acts and psycho biological states became the basis for a comprehensive cosmology that incorporates every aspect of human experience Sometimes the secrets are buried where you least expect to find them Sometimes they are hidden in plain emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts. Religions of the World Second Edition: A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe. The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works. Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries, the Vatican and San Marino; profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries, Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh; as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places, Antarctica and Easter Island. Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground, tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world, its major geographical sites, and its major celebrations. Unlike other works, the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism, humanism, and other traditions.

Of Peninsulas and Archipelagos Phrae Chittiphalangsri, Vicente L. Rafael, 2023-07-18
Comprising 11 countries and hundreds of languages from one of the most culturally diverse regions in the world, the chapters in this collection explore a wide range of translation issues. The subject of this volume is set in the contrasted landscapes of mainland peninsulas and maritime archipelagos in Southeast Asia, which whilst remaining a largely minor area in Asian studies, harbors a wealth of textual heritage that opens to inquiries and new readings. From the post-Angkor Cambodia, the post-colonial Vientiane to the ultra-modern Singapore metropolis, translation figures problematically in the modernization of indigenous literatures, criss-crossing chronologically and spatially through different literary landscapes. The peninsular geobody gives rise to the politics of singularity as seen in the case of the predominant monolingual culture in Thailand, whereas the archipelagic geography, such as the thousand islands of Indonesia, allows for peculiar types of communication. Translation can also be metaphorized poetically to configure the transference in different scenarios, such as the cases of self-translation in Philippine protest poetry and untranslatability in Vietnamese diasporic writings. The collection also includes intra-regional comparative views on historical and religious terms. This book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students of translation studies, sociolinguistics, and Southeast Asian studies.

Reimagining Rapport Zane Goebel, 2021-01-18
To do ethnography, a researcher must have rapport with research subjects. But what is rapport? Ethnography and ethnographic methods have increasingly become a feature of social inquiry in general and sociolinguistics in particular, and rapport is generally considered a prerequisite for fieldwork. And yet, unlike related terms such as communication and phatic communion, this concept has remained largely unexamined. Reimagining Rapport turns a critical eye to the use of the term rapport across disciplines. The collection analyzes the very idea of rapport, both exploring how it has been shaped by historical forces and actors within sociocultural anthropology and questioning its usefulness. Rather than viewing the term as simply denoting a type of positive social relationship that needs to be formed between researcher and consultant before research can begin, this book invites us to reimagine rapport theoretically methodologically and meta methodologically Zane Goebel and other leading sociolinguists challenge readers to think about how rapport has been constructed within these disciplines and ultimately to see rapport as an emergent co constructed social relationship that is actively built during situated multimodal encounters The contributors collectively examine the role of ideology and mediation in the construction of rapport and argue that reconceptualizing research subject relationships is essential for establishing more sophisticated ways of understanding interpreting and representing research context A valuable resource for scholars and students of sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology as well as for others engaged in ethnographic fieldwork Reimagining Rapport is the first collection to provide an in depth investigation of this critically important but previously unexamined concept
