Image and Concept Olga Freidenberg, 2006-03-07 First published in 1997 Image and Concept Mythopoetic Roots of Literature here finally available in English is devoted to the origins of Greek tragedy In it Freidenberg develops the notion that it was the very transition from thinking based on mythological images to the kind of thinking that makes use of formal logical concepts that resulted in the appearance of literature With the transition from mythological thinking to conceptual thought the content of mythological images became the texture of the new concepts The inherited mythological forms now were reinterpreted conceptually causalized ethicized generalized abstracted This reinterpretation in turn brought about poetic figurality Folkloric material began to be differentiated from the mythological images of the past into various disciplines such as religion philosophy ethics literature and art Yet differentiated and reinterpreted as it was the folkloric material remained formally preserved in poetic image structure and plot

Technology and the Soul Wolfgang Giegerich, 2020-04-13 C G Jung famously declared that it is not the psyche that is in us but rather we who are in the psyche Updating this insight the second volume of Wolfgang Giegerich's Collected English Papers examines what must be regarded as the most all encompassing presence of our lives today technological civilization Living within technology we now find that what we had formerly regarded as psychological phenomena our feelings and emotions images and dreams have been superseded by phenomena bearing the predicates artificial manufactured and virtual Television the World Wide Web and the nuclear bomb are cases in point Far from being mere things among things each of these has transformed the whole of man's world relation Though deplored by many as soulless on this account these phenomena it may be argued are the real gods the real archetypes of the soul today Psychologically it is not what we think and feel about them that counts but what they think what they feel The Poem in the Story Harold Scheub, 2002-12-05

Fact and fiction meet at the boundaries the betwixt and between where transformations occur This is the area of ambiguity where fiction and fact become endowed with meaning and this is the area where ambiguity irony and metaphor join forces that Harold Scheub exposes in all its nuanced and evocative complexity in The Poem in the Story In a career devoted to exploring the art of the African storyteller Scheub has conducted some of the most interesting and provocative investigations into nonverbal aspects of storytelling the complex relationship between artist and audience and most dramatically the role played by poetry in storytelling This book is his most daring effort yet an unconventional work that searches out what makes a story artistically engaging and emotionally evocative the metaphorical center that Scheub calls the poem in the story Drawing on extensive fieldwork in southern Africa and decades of experience as a researcher and teacher Scheub develops an original approach a blend of field notes diary entries photographs and texts of stories and poems that guides readers into a new way of viewing even experiencing meaning in a story Though this work is largely focused on African storytelling its universal applications emerge when Scheub brings the work of storytellers as different as Shakespeare and Faulkner into the discussion Rhetorical Listening in Action Krista Ratcliffe, Kyle Jensen, 2022-06-06

RHETORICAL LISTENING IN ACTION A CONCEPT TACTIC APPROACH aims to cultivate writers who can listen across differences in preparation for thinking critically communicating and acting across those differences Krista Ratcliffe and Kyle Jensen offer a rhetorical education centered on rhetorical listening as it inflects other rhetorical concepts such as agency rhetorical situation identification myth and rhetorical devices RHETORICAL LISTENING IN ACTION spans classical and contemporary rhetoric reading key concepts through rhetorical listening and supported by scholarship in rhetoric and composition feminist studies critical race studies and intersectionality theory The book expands on how we think about and negotiate difference and the factors that mediate social relations and competing cultural logics Along the way Ratcliffe and Jensen associate creative and heuristic tactics with clearly defined concepts to give all writers methods for listening rhetorically to and understanding alternative viewpoints For writers new to the concepts of rhetorical listening four appendices show how these concepts illuminate rhetoric language discourse argument writing processes research and style Dreaming the Myth Onwards Lucy Huskinson, 2008-01-14

Dreaming the Myth Onwards shows how a revised appreciation of myth can enrich our daily lives our psychological awareness and our human relationships Lucy Huskinson and her contributors explore the interplay between myth and Jungian thought and practice demonstrating the philosophical and psychological principles that underlie our experience of psyche and world Contributors from multi disciplinary backgrounds throughout the world come together to assess the contemporary relevance of myth in terms of its utility its effectual position within Jungian theory and practice and as a general approach for making sense of life As well as examining the more conscious facets of myth this volume discusses the unconscious psychodynamic processes of myth including active imagination transference and countertransference to illustrate just how these mythic phenomena give meaning to Jungian theory and therapeutic experience This rigorous and scholarly analysis showcases fresh readings of central Jungian concepts updated in accordance with shifts in the cultural and epistemological concerns of contemporary Western consciousness Dreaming the Myth Onwards will be essential reading for practicing analysts and academics in the field of the arts and social sciences Discussing Disney Amy M.
