Bootstrap New Urbanism Joseph A. Rodriguez, 2014-08-26 Joseph A Rodriguez critically examines the urban design and revitalization initiatives undertaken by both the government and the people of Milwaukee Wisconsin In the 1990s New Urbanists followed a city tradition of using urban design to solve problems while seeking to elevate the city's national reputation and status While New Urbanism was not the only design element undertaken to further Milwaukee's redevelopment the elite focus on New Urbanism reflected an attempt to fashion a self help narrative for the revitalization of the city This approach linked New Urbanist design to the strengthening of grassroots community organizing and volunteerism to solve urban problems Bootstrap New Urbanism Design Race and Redevelopment in Milwaukee uncovers a practice with implications for urban history architectural history planning history environmental design ethnic studies and urban politics

New Islamic Urbanism Stefan Maneval, 2019-12-04 Since the dawn of the oil era cities in Saudi Arabia have witnessed rapid growth and profound societal changes As a response to foreign architectural solutions and the increasing popularity of Western lifestyles a distinct style of architecture and urban planning has emerged Characterised by an emphasis on privacy expressed through high enclosures gates blinds and tinted windows New Islamic Urbanism constitutes for some an important element of piety For others it enables alternative ways of life indulgence in banned social practices and the formation of both publics and counterpublics Tracing the emergence of New Islamic Urbanism this book sheds light on the changing conceptions of public and private space in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries in the Saudi city of Jeddah It challenges the widespread assumption that the public sphere is exclusively male in Muslim contexts such as Saudi Arabia where women's public visibility is limited by the veil and strict rules of gender segregation Showing that the rigid segregation regime for which the country is known serves to constrain the movements of men and women alike Stefan Maneval provides a nuanced account of the negotiation of public and private spaces in Saudi Arabia

Planning the Night-time City Marion Roberts, Adam Eldridge, 2012-11-12 The night time economy represents a particular challenge for planners and town centre managers In the context of liberalised licensing and a growing culture around the 24 hour city the desire to foster economic growth and to achieve urban regeneration has been set on a collision course with the need to maintain social order Roberts and Eldridge draw on extensive case study research undertaken in the UK and internationally to explain how changing approaches to evening and night time activities have been conceptualised in planning practice The first to synthesise recent debates on law health planning and policy this research considers how these dialogues impact upon the design management development and the experience of the night time city This is incisive and highly topical reading for postgraduates academics and reflective practitioners in Planning Urban Design and Urban Regeneration

Playful Materialities Benjamin Beil, Gundolf S. Freyermuth, Hanns Christian Schmidt, Raven Rusch, 2022-09-22 Game culture and material culture have always been closely linked Analog forms of rule based play ludus would hardly be conceivable without

The Urbanism of Exception Martin J. Murray,2017-03-10 This book challenges the conventional modernist inspired understanding of urbanization as a universal process tied to the ideal typical model of the modern metropolis with its origins in the grand Western experience of city building At the start of the twenty first century the familiar idea of the city or urbanism as we know it has experienced such profound mutations in both structure and form that the customary epistemological categories and prevailing conceptual frameworks that predominate in conventional urban theory are no longer capable of explaining the evolving patterns of city making Global urbanism has increasingly taken shape as vast distended city regions where urbanizing landscapes are increasingly fragmented into discontinuous assemblages of enclosed enclaves characterized by global connectivity and concentrated wealth on the one side and distressed zones of neglect and impoverishment on the other These emergent patterns of what might be called enclave urbanism have gone hand in hand with the new modes of urban governance where the crystallization of privatized regulatory regimes has effectively shielded wealthy enclaves from public oversight and interference

New York in Cinematic Imagination Vojislava Filipcevic Cordes,2020-06-11 New York in Cinematic Imagination is an interdisciplinary study into urbanism and cinematic representations of the American metropolis in the twentieth century It contextualizes spatial transformations and discourse about New York during the Great Depression and the Second World War examining both imaginary narratives and documentary images of the city in film The book argues that alternating endorsements and critiques of the 1920s machine age city are replaced in films of the 1930s and 1940s by a new critical theory of agitated urban modernity articulated against the backdrop of turbulent economic and social settings and the initial practices of urban renewal in the post war period Written for postgraduates and researchers in the fields of film history and urban studies with 40 black and white illustrations to work alongside the text this book is an engaging study into cinematic representations of New York City
