Place Of Sacred Art In Churches Today:

Images Or Idols? Keith Walker, 1996 The purpose of this study is to engage the interest of artists and churchpeople alike The Church and the visual arts have become estranged and both suffer because of the ignorance and hostility that fuel the estrangement Clergy and Parochial Church Councils and their equivalents in non Anglican churches need to consider the rightful place of the sacred visual artist within the Church much more searchingly than is usually the case at the moment All who care for the visual arts for God or for both should care for the subject of this book It will not always breed agreement but it will stimulate thought and deepen perception

The Church Building as a Sacred Place Duncan Stroik, 2012 This collection of twenty three essays by Duncan Stroik shows the development and consistency of his architectural vision Packed with informative essays and over 170 photographs this collection clearly articulates the Church's architectural tradition

The Image of Christ in Modern Art Richard Harries, 2016-03-03 The Image of Christ in Modern Art explores the challenges presented by the radical and rapid changes of artistic style in the 20th century to artists who wished to relate to traditional Christian imagery In the 1930s David Jones said that he and his contemporaries were acutely conscious of the break by which he meant the fragmentation and loss of a once widely shared Christian narrative and set of images In this highly illustrated book Richard Harries looks at some of the artists associated with the birth of modernism such as Epstein and Rouault as well as those with a highly distinctive understanding of religion such as Chagall and Stanley Spencer He discusses the revival of confidence associated with the rebuilding of Coventry Cathedral after World War II and the commissioning of work by artists like Henry Moore Graham Sutherland and John Piper before looking at the very testing last quarter of the 20th century He shows how here and even more in our own time fresh and important visual interpretations of Christ have been created both by well known and less well known artists In conclusion he suggests that the modern movement in art has turned out to be a friend not a foe of Christian art Through a wide and beautiful range of images and insightful text Harries explores the continuing challenge present from the beginning of Christian art as to how that which is visual can in some way indicate the transcendent

Christianity, Art and Transformation John W. de Gruchy, 2001-01-29 Christianity Art and Transformation explores the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and Christianity with reference to the transformation of society Several major themes are discussed among them the power of images the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the nature of beauty and its redemptive capacity aesthetic existence and Christian discipleship and the role of art in the public square and in the life of the Church The book is a contribution to the study of theological aesthetics from both an ecumenical and Reformed perspective global in its scope yet rooted in the author's South African context

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church

Theological Aesthetics Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen, 2005 While interest in the relationship between theology and the arts is on the rise there are very few resources for students and teachers let alone a comprehensive text on the subject This book fills that lacuna by providing an anthology of readings on theological aesthetics drawn from the first century to the present A superb sourcebook Theological Aesthetics brings together original texts that are relevant and timely to scholars today Editor Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen has taken a careful inclusive approach to the book including articles and extracts that are diverse and ecumenical as well as representative of gender and ethnicity The book is organized chronologically and each historical period begins with commentary by Thiessen that sets the selections in context These engaging readings range broadly over themes at the intersection of religion and the arts including beauty and revelation the vision of God artistic and divine creation God as artist images of God the interplay of the senses and the intellect human imagination mystical writings meanings of signs and symbols worship liturgy doxology the relationship of word and image icons and iconoclasm the role of the arts in twentieth century theology and much more

Art and the Church: A Fractious Embrace Jonathan Koestle-Cate, 2016-04-20 A vibrant critical exchange between contemporary art and Christianity is being increasingly prompted by an expanding programme of art installations and commissions for ecclesiastical spaces Rather than religious art reflecting Christian ideology current practices frequently initiate projects that question the values and traditions of the host space or present objects and events that challenge its visual conventions In the light of these developments this book asks what conditions are favourable to enhancing and expanding the possibilities of church based art and how can these conditions be addressed What viable language or strategies can be formulated to understand and analyse art's role within the church Focusing on concepts drawn from anthropology comparative religion art theory theology and philosophy this book formulates a lexicon of terms built around the notion of encounter in order to review the effective uses and experience of contemporary art in churches The author concludes with the prognosis that art for the church has reached a critical and decisive phase in its history testing the assumption that contemporary art should be a taken for granted element of modern church life Art and the Church A Fractious Embrace uniquely combines conceptual analysis critical case studies and practical application in a rigorous and inventive manner dealing specifically with contemporary art of the past twenty five years and the most recent developments in the church's policies for the arts

Architectural Actions on the Religious Heritage after Vatican II Esteban Fernández-Cobián, 2020-11-09 This book serves to shed some light on several controversial questions about contemporary interventions on religious heritage buildings In the mid 1960s a process of renewal of Catholic churches began which sought to respond to the liturgical modifications implemented during the Vatican II 1962-65 Fifty years later this process continues to be problematic in buildings with a high heritage or historical value From an operational point of view it is stimulating to revisit the most relevant architectures at the international level those high impact works that were generated thanks to an open and serene dialogue between principals architects users artists and patrimonial leaders Thus it is essential to know the criteria that have supported interventions whether legal both ecclesiastical and civil architectural artistic liturgical or pastoral In this sense what references could be used at a time like ours How can we reform what has already been reformed Matisse and Decoration John Klein,2018-01-01 A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century Between 1935 and his death at midcentury Henri Matisse 1869 1954 undertook many decorative projects and commissions These include mural paintings stained glass ceramic tiles lead crystal pieces carpets tapestries fashion fabrics and accessories work that has received no significant treatment until now By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material including from the artist s own correspondence John Klein an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse s ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut out whose function and significance Klein reevaluates Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France s renewed sense of cultural preeminence For the first time the idea of the decorative in Matisse s work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account amounting to an understanding of this modern master s work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive

Arts Ministry Michael J. Bauer,2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God s people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church Thomas Merton's

Art of Denial David D. Cooper,2008-12-01 Trappist monk and best selling author Thomas Merton battled constantly within himself as he attempted to reconcile two seemingly incompatible roles in life As a devout Catholic he took vows of silence and stability longing for the security and closure of the monastic life But as a writer he felt compelled to seek friendships in literary circles and success in the secular world In Thomas Merton s Art of Denial David D Cooper traces Merton s attempts to reach an accommodation with himself to find a way in which the silence of the monk could live compatibly with the racket of the writer From the roots of this painful division in the unsettled early years of Merton s life to the turmoil of his directionless early adult years in which he first attempted to write he was besieged with self doubts Turning to life in a monastery in Kentucky in 1941 Merton believed he would find the solitude and peace lacking in the quotidian world But as

Merton once wrote An author in a Trappist monastery is like a duck in a chicken coop And he would give anything in the world to be a chicken instead of a duck Merton felt compelled to choose between life as either a less than perfect priest or a less prolific writer Discovering in his middle years that the ideal monastic life he had envisioned was an impossibility Merton turned his energies to abolishing war It was in this pursuit that he finally succeeded in fusing the two sides of his life converting his frustrated idealism into a radical humanism placed in the service of world peace Here is a portrait of a man torn between the influence of the twentieth century and the serenity of the religious ideal a man who used his own personal crises to guide his youthful ideals to a higher purpose Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans, S.J.,2015-01-08 In Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans who graduated as an architect and a theologian provides an interdisciplinary method for the theological assessment of church architecture Rather than a theory this method is based on case studies of contemporary buildings 1995 2015 which are often criticized for lacking theological depth In a threefold method the author brings to light the ways in which architecture can be theology or theotopy by focusing on topoi places rather than logoi words Churches reveal our relationship with God by engaging our body mind and community This method proves relevant not only for the way we perceive these buildings but also for the way we use them especially in our prophetic engagement for a better world

Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church Lisa DeBoer,2016-12-17 Although numerous studies have examined biblical and theological rationales for using the visual arts in worship this book by Lisa J DeBoer fills in a piece of the picture missing so far the social dimensions of both our churches and the various art worlds represented in our congregations The first part of the book looks at Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism in turn including case studies of specific congregations showing how each tradition s use of the visual arts reveals an underlying ecclesiology DeBoer then focuses on six themes that emerge when Orthodox Catholic and Protestant uses of the visual arts are examined together the arts as expressions of the church s local and universal character the meanings attributed to particular styles of art for the church the role of the arts in enculturating the gospel and more DeBoer s Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church will focus and deepen the thinking of pastors worship leaders artists students and laypeople regarding what the arts might do in the midst of their congregations

That All May Be One Kevin Mannara,2015 Kevin Mannara examines the relationship between the church building and the parish community offering practical advice for a collaborative approach American Catholics and the Church of Tomorrow Catherine R. Osborne,2018-04-24 In the mid twentieth century American Catholic churches began to shed the ubiquitous spires stained glass and gargoyles of their European forebears turning instead toward startling and more angular structures of steel plate glass and concrete But how did an institution like the Catholic Church so often seen as steeped in inflexible traditions come to welcome this modernist trend Catherine R Osborne s innovative new book finds the answer the alignment between postwar advancements in technology and design and evolutionary thought within the burgeoning American Catholic community A new visibly contemporary approach to design church leaders thought could lead to the rebirth of the church community of the future As Osborne explains the engineering breakthroughs that made modernist churches feasible themselves raised questions that were for many Catholics fundamentally theological Couldn't technological improvements engender worship spaces that better reflected God's presence in the contemporary world Detailing the social architectural and theological movements that made modern churches possible American Catholics and the Churches of Tomorrow breaks important new ground in the history of American Catholicism and also presents new lines of thought for scholars attracted to modern architectural and urban history

Aesthetics as a Religious Factor in Eastern and Western Christianity William Peter van den Bercken, Jonathan Sutton, 2005 This volume contains selected papers of a conference in 2004 at Utrecht University on aesthetics as a religious factor in Eastern and Western Christianity They discuss the role of aesthetics in the presentation and expression of Christian faith in Catholic and Orthodox tradition During its history Christianity has produced many works of art church architecture iconography painting music and literary texts And in Orthodoxy beauty has always been the main form of religious expression more than verbal presentation of Christian teaching which is embedded in the aesthetic context of liturgy In Christian theology beauty has often been seen as a form of divine revelation related to the mystery of incarnation The relation between aesthetics and religious belief has acquired new relevance in our secularised world Today the visible products of Catholic and Orthodox aesthetics are for many people the main means through which they come into contact with Christianity and many people without affinity to religion are attracted by the beauty of Christian art inside and outside the church In modern religious studies the experience of beauty is recognised as a factor in explaining religious feelings The papers are divided in four sections 1 Comparative aspects of Orthodox and Catholic aesthetics 2 Religious aesthetics in Russian literary culture 3 Applied aesthetics in church art 4 Art theoretical ideological and religious philosophical aspects
