Porches and Fonts James Charles Wall, 1912 Porches and fonts James Charles Wall, 1912 East Anglian Church Porches and Their Medieval Context Helen Lunnon, 2020 Major interdisciplinary study of medieval church porches bringing out their importance and significance The church porches of medieval England are among the most beautiful and glorious aspects of ecclesiastical architecture but in comparison with its stained glass for example they have been relatively little studied This book the first detailed study of them for over a century gives new insights into this often over looked element Focussing on the rich corpus of late medieval East Anglian porches it begins with two chapters placing them in a broad cultural outline and their context it then moves on to consider their commissioning and design their architecture and ornamentation their use and their meaning This book will appeal to all those interested in church fabric and function

Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England Anne M. Myers, 2013-01-01 Our built environment inspires writers to reflect on the human experience discover its history or make it up Buildings tell stories Castles country homes churches and monasteries are documents of the people who built them owned them lived and died in them inherited and saved or destroyed them and recorded their histories Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England examines the relationship between sixteenth and seventeenth century architectural and literary works By becoming more sensitive to the narrative functions of architecture Anne M Myers argues we begin to understand how a range of writers viewed and made use of the material built environment that surrounded the production of early modern texts in England Scholars have long found themselves in the position of excusing or explaining England's failure to achieve the equivalent of the Italian Renaissance in the visual arts Myers proposes that architecture inspired an unusual amount of historiographic and literary production including poetry drama architectural treatises and diaries Works by William Camden Henry Wotton Ben Jonson Andrew Marvell George Herbert Anne Clifford and John Evelyn when considered as a group are texts that overturn the engrained critical notion that a Protestant fear of idolatry sentenced the visual arts and architecture in England to a state of suspicion and neglect Devotional Interaction in Medieval England and its Afterlives , 2018-06-05 Devotional Interaction in Medieval England and its Afterlives examines the interaction between medieval English worshippers and the material objects of their devotion The volume also addresses the afterlives of objects and buildings in their temporal journeys from the Middle Ages to the present day Written by the participants of a National Endowment for the Humanities funded seminar held in York U K in 2014 the chapters incorporate site specific research with the insights of scholars of visual art literature music liturgy ritual and church history Interdisciplinarity is a central feature of this volume which celebrates interactivity as a working method between its authors as much as a subject of inquiry Contributors are Lisa Colton Elizabeth Dachowski Angie Estes Gregory Erickson Jennifer M Feltman Elisa A Foster Laura D Gelfand Louise Hampson Kerilyn Harkaway Krieger Kathleen E Kennedy Heather S Mitchell Buck Julia Perratore Steven Rozenski Carolyn Twomey and Laura J Whatley Y Cymmrodor , 1929
