The Semiotics of Light and Shadows Piotr Sadowski, 2017-12-28. Lighting and shadows are used within a range of art forms to create aesthetic effects. Piotr Sadowski's study of light and shadow in Weimar cinema and contemporaneous visual arts is underpinned by the evolutionary semiotic theories of indexicality and iconicity. These theories explain the unique communicative and emotive power of light and shadow when used in contemporary indexical media including the shadow theatre, silhouette portraits, camera obscura photography and film. In particular, Sadowski highlights the aesthetic and emotional significance of shadows. The cast shadow as an indexical sign maintains a physical connection with its near present referent such as a hidden person stimulating a viewer's imagination and provoking responses including anxiety or curiosity. The cinematic shadow plays a stylistic role by enhancing image texture, depth of field and tonal contrast of cinematic moments. Such enhancements are especially important in monochromatic films and Sadowski interweaves the book with accounts of seminal Weimar cinema moments. Sadowski's book is distinctive for combining historical materials and theoretical approaches to develop a deeper understanding of Weimar cinema and other contemporary art forms. The Semiotics of Light and Shadows is an ideal resource for both scholars and students working in linguistics, semiotics, film media and visual arts.

Rembrandt's Roughness Nicola Suthor, 2018-04-03 Roughness is the sensual quality most often associated with Rembrandt's idiosyncratic style It best defines the specific structure of his painterly textures which subtly capture and engage the imagination of the beholder Rembrandt's Roughness examines how the artist's unconventional technique pushed the possibilities of painting into startling and unexpected realms Drawing on the phenomenological insights of Edmund Husserl as well as firsthand accounts by Rembrandt's contemporaries Nicola Suthor provides invaluable new perspectives on many of the painter's best known masterpieces including The Anatomy Lesson of Dr Deyman The Return of the Prodigal Son and Aristotle with a Bust of Homer She focuses on pictorial phenomena such as the thickness of the paint material the visibility of the colored priming and the dramatizing element of chiaroscuro showing how they constitute Rembrandt's most effective tools for extending the representational limits of painting Suthor explores how Rembrandt developed a visually precise handling of his artistic medium that forced his viewers to confront the paint itself as a source of meaning its challenging complexity expressed in the subtlest stroke of his brush A beautifully illustrated meditation on a painter like no other Rembrandt's Roughness reflects deeply on the intellectual challenge that Rembrandt's unrivaled artistry posed to the art theory of his time and its eminent role in the history of art today Francis Bacon and the Loss of Self Ernst van Alphen, 1993 Since his death in April 12 Francis Bacon has been acclaimed as one of the very greatest of modern painters Yet most analyses of Bacon actually neutralize his work by discussing it as an existential expression and as the horrifying communication of an isolated individual which simply transfers the pain in the paintings back to Bacon himself This study is the first attempt to account for the pain of the viewer It is also most challengingly an explanation of what Bacon's art tells us about ourselves as individuals For during this very personal investigation the author comes to realize that the effect of Bacon's work is founded upon the way that each of us carves our identity out of ourselves from the inchoate evidence of our senses using the conventions of representation as tools It is in his warping of these conventions of the senses rather than in the superficial distortion of his images that Bacon most radically confronts our art and ourselves as individuals Arthur Tress James A.
