Portrait Of The Artist As A Bad Character And Other Essays On Writing Pimlico:

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2000 This resource provides information on a popular literary genre the 20th century American short story It contains articles on stories that share a particular theme and over 100 pieces on individual writers and their work There are also articles on promising new writers entering the scene Portrait of the Artist as a Bad Character Cynthia Ozick, 1996 A collection of essays that touch on the inner life of literature and of the literary artist Among the subjects covered are childhood's passionate reading ambition the decline of the book as a universal habit the consequences of gender politics and the deceptions and impersonations of art

Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard, 2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901-1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann's writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann's literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between elite and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann's most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength Seeing the Word (Studies in Theological

Interpretation) Markus Bockmuehl, 2006-09-01 At a time of deep disagreements about the nature and purpose of academic biblical studies Markus Bockmuehl advocates the recovery of a plural but common conversation on the subject of what the New Testament is about Seeing the Word begins with an assessment of current New Testament studies identifying both persistent challenges and some promising proposals Subsequent chapters explore two such proposals First ground for common conversation lies in taking seriously the readers and readings the text implies Second Bockmuehl explores the text's early effective history by a study of apostolic memory in the early church All serious students of the Bible and theology will find much of interest and much to discuss in this first volume in the Studies in Theological Interpretation series The

Multimodal Writer Josie Barnard, 2019-08-06 These are exciting times for creative writing In a digital age the ability to move between types of writing and technologies often at speed is increasingly essential for writers Yet such flexibility can be difficult to achieve and how to develop it remains a pressing challenge The Multimodal Writer combines theory practitioner case studies and insightful writing exercises to support writers tackling the challenges and embracing the opportunities that come with new media technologies Including interviews with a selection of internationally acclaimed authors such as Simon Armitage Robert Coover and Rhianna Pratchett this book equips writers with the tools to not just survive but rather thrive in an era characterised by fast paced change With its focus on writing across genres modes and media this book is ideal for students of creative writing professional writing media writing and journalism     Literature and Ethics Steve Brie,William T. Rossiter,2010-06-09 This volume examines the crucial relationship between literature and ethics as it has developed and changed from the late medieval period to the present day The focus of the volume is predicated upon three interrelated themes instruction judgement and justice Previous studies of literature and ethics have often been restricted to a limited chronology and generic focus the present volume covers a range of periods texts and genres in order to provide a wider illustration of the relationship between the literary and the ethical     A Traveler at Forty Theodore Dreiser,2004 Final copy of manuscript of the Dreiser Edition of A traveler at forty with a complete record of emendations historical notes and textual notes     Reality and Culture Patricia Hanna,2014-03-15 More than being a volume about the philosophy of Bernard Harrison this volume is about how Harrison conceptualizes the creation of the human world One might be tempted to classify Harrison as a major voice in many diverse discussions philosophy of literature philosophy of language philosophy of mind color studies epistemology metaphysics moral philosophy philosophy of culture Wittgenstein antisemitism and more without recognizing a unifying strand that ties them together Nothing could be farther from the truth Harrison contests and destabilizes a persistent and misleading alignment of culture with subjectivity whether found in unexamined distinctions between nature and culture or appearance and reality His general aim has been to undermine the belief that human culture deals in smoke and mirrors and that the only realities are those of extra human nature He emphasizes the paraxial foundation of meaning and argues that the creative inventions of language and culture are as real as any extra linguistic reality While granting the existence of extra human reality he holds it to be in itself conceptually unorganised but nevertheless cognitively accessible by way of sense perception and physical manipulation This volume offers new critical essays that examine Harrison s corpus written by distinguished voices in philosophy and literary studies It bridges many of the abysses of conflicting opinion opened by the culture wars of the past half century Importantly it includes an opening essay by Harrison that elucidates the unifying strand running through his variegated philosophical writings and concludes with a chapter in which he replies to and reflects on the other critical essays herein     Diaspora and Multiculturalism ,2021-12-28 In postcolonial theory we have now reached a new stage in the succession of key concepts After the celebrations of hybridity in the work of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak it is now the concept of diaspora that has sparked animated debates among postcolonial critics This collection intervenes in the current discussion about the new diaspora by placing the rise of diaspora within the politics of multiculturalism and its supercession by a politics of difference and cultural rights theory The essays present recent developments in Jewish negotiations of diasporic tradition and experience discussing the reinterpretation of concepts of the old diaspora in late twentieth century British and American Jewish literature The second part of the volume comprises theoretical and critical essays on the South Asian diaspora and on multicultural settings between Australia Africa the Caribbean and North America The South Asian and Caribbean diasporas are compared to the Jewish prototype and contrasted with the Turkish diaspora in Germany All essays deal with literary reflections on and thematizations of the diasporic predicament     Studies in American Jewish Literature ,2001     Contemporary
