Portraits of Industry Lorie A. Annarella, 2004 The fourteen paintings reviewed in this study chronicle industrial artist Howard L. Worner's interpretation of the steel industry By employing ethnographic techniques to his art Worner contributed much to the understanding of the culture of work This book will provide students of art education a better understanding of the genre through artistic ethnography and interpretation as well as an excellent overview of industrial art An Illustrated Dictionary of British Steel Engravers Basil Hunnisett, 2021-06-23 First published in 1989 An Illustrated Dictionary of British Steel Engravers contains more than 600 entries and an extensive plate section providing examples of work referenced in the text and adding a clear chronological dimension to the subject The book makes use of an array of surviving accounts and correspondence of engravers and publishers and adopts a comprehensive and systematic approach to identifying different types and variants of steel engravings over time Equipped with a detailed introduction to the history of steel engravings An Illustrated Dictionary of British Steel Engravers will be of great use to those interested in illustration graphic art Victorian literature and the history of printing American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette, 1857

American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1869 A Town Without Steel Judith Modell, 2014-11-30 Photographs by Charlee Brodsky In 1986 with little warning the USX Homestead Works closed Thousands of workers who depended on steel to survive were left without work A Town Without Steel looks at the people of Homestead as they reinvent their views of household and work and place in this world The book details the modifications and revisions of domestic strategies in a public crisis In some ways unique and in some ways typical of American industrial towns the plight of Homestead sheds light on social cultural and political developments of the late twentieth century In this anthropological and photographic account of a town facing the crisis of deindustrialization A Town Without Steel focuses on families Reminiscent of Margaret Byington and Lewis Hine's approach in Homestead Charlee Brodsky's photographs document the visual dimension of change in Homestead The mill that dominated the landscape transformed to a vast empty lot a crowded commercial street turns into a ghost town and an abundance of well kept homes become an abandoned street of houses for sale The individual narratives and family snapshots Modell's interpretations and Brodsky's photographs all evoke the tragedy and the resilience of a town whose primary source of self identification no longer exists Carroll's Literary Register
