Love's Portrait Anna Lerner,2019-04-16 Newly appointed art curator Molly Goode is committed to diversifying her museum s collection When Georgina Wright the museum s aloof benefactor asks for Molly s help in identifying the provenance of a 19th century portrait of social activist Josephine Brancaster Molly welcomes the opportunity even if it means spending time with the standoffish financier But passions soon flare as the women uncover the heartbreaking story of doomed lesbian love behind the watercolor painted by Josephine s lover Edith Hewitt As their love blossoms Molly is determined to display Edith s portrait of Josephine and to tell their story in the museum but she needs the influential Georgina to help convince the board When an unforeseen twist in the painting s provenance forces Georgina to confront her own painful past will history repeat itself or can Molly and Georgina s love prevail

Evidence of Being Darius Bost,2018-12-21 Evidence of Being opens on a grim scene Washington DC s gay black community in the 1980s ravaged by AIDS the crack epidemic and a series of unsolved murders seemingly abandoned by the government and mainstream culture Yet in this darkest of moments a new vision of community and hope managed to emerge Darius Bost s account of the media poetry and performance of this time and place reveals a stunning confluence of activism and the arts In Washington and New York during the 1980s and 90s gay black men banded together using creative expression as a tool to challenge the widespread views that marked them as unworthy of grief They created art that enriched and reimagined their lives in the face of pain and neglect while at the same time forging a path toward bold new modes of existence At once a corrective to the predominantly white male accounts of the AIDS crisis and an openhearted depiction of the possibilities of black gay life Evidence of Being above all insists on the primacy of community over loneliness and hope over despair

Reflexivity in Love A Self-Reflexive Portrait of the Little Flower of Jesus Fr. Emmanuel Javert Nnadozie OCD,2024-09-19 This book focuses particularly on the self reflexive elements of the divine and human transformation in the Christian life which we find in St Therese especially her ability to wonder and question herself about the mysteries of God as they relate to her spiritual life and growth It studies Therese s spirit of critical listening and profound spiritual reflection on the things of her experience and explores her self reflective and interrogative self understanding of her call to sanctity of life The author also discusses how the Saint appropriated God s Word and God s grace hidden in the events of her life The book shows how through self reflexivity and meditation on God s Word she discovered her vocation as love in the heart of the Church following which she desired to sing of the mercies of the Lord with her whole life by loving God and neighbor in ordinary things in an extraordinary way and by leading a legion of souls through this Little Way of love which has a general or universal application to all who desire to attain perfection by a straight and short route While it is recognized that God s grace works in individuals according to their personal vocations the author believes that spiritual self reflexivity helps the faithful to integrate meaningfully like St Therese the general principles of the spiritual life and the example of the Saints into each individual s spiritual life in the events of daily life irrespective of their individual vocations And this is why the Little Way as a spiritual path can be lived by all who commit themselves to following the example found in St Therese s simple humble and confident way of spiritual childhood and of loving God and neighbor in the ordinary life and events of every day with reflexivity in love as the key
