Historical Newsletter Nebraska State Historical Society, 2005 Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing, 2007 The Nebraska Farmer, 1914 Monument Man Harold Holzer, 2019-03-05 The artist who created the statue for the Lincoln Memorial John Harvard in Harvard Yard and The Minute Man in Concord Massachusetts Daniel Chester French 1850 1931 is America's best known sculptor of public monuments Monument Man is the first comprehensive biography of this fascinating figure and his illustrious career Full of rich detail and beautiful archival photographs Monument Man is a nuanced study of a preeminent artist whose evolution ran parallel to and deeply influenced the development of American sculpture iconography and historical memory Monument Man was specially commissioned by Chesterwood National Trust for Historic Preservation The release will coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of Chesterwood his country home and studio as a public site and with a major renovation of the Lincoln Memorial The book includes a comprehensive geographical guide to French's public work Nebraska Educational Journal, 1928 The midwest, 2012 The Inventor and the Tycoon Edward Ball, 2013-01-22 From the National Book Award winning author of Slaves in the Family a riveting true life true crime narrative of the partnership between the murderer who invented the movies and the robber baron who built the railroads One hundred and thirty years ago Eadweard Muybridge invented stop motion photography anticipating and making possible motion pictures He was the first to capture time and play it back for an audience giving birth to visual media and screen entertainments of all kinds Yet the artist and inventor Muybridge was also a murderer who killed coolly and meticulously and his trial is one of the early instances of a media sensation His patron was railroad tycoon and former California governor Leland Stanford whose particular obsession was whether four hooves of a running horse ever left the ground at once Stanford hired Muybridge and his camera to answer that question And between them the murderer and the railroad mogul launched the age of visual media Set in California during its frontier decades The Tycoon and the Inventor interweaves Muybridge's quest to unlock the secrets of motion through photography an obsessive murder plot and the peculiar partnership of an eccentric inventor and a driven entrepreneur A tale from the great American West this popular history unspools a story of passion wealth and sinister ingenuity Henry James Framed Michael Anesko, 2022-10 Henry James Framed is a cultural history of Henry James as a work of art Throughout his life James demonstrated an abiding interest in some would say an obsession with the visual arts In his most influential testaments about the art of fiction James frequently invoked a deeply felt analogy between imaginative writing and painting At a time when having a photographic carte de visite was an expected social commonplace James detested the necessity of replenishing his supply or of distributing his autographed image to well wishing friends and imploring readers Yet for a man who set the highest premium on personal privacy James seems to have had few reservations about serving as a model for artists in other media and sat for his portrait a remarkable number of twenty four times Surprisingly few James scholars have brought into primary focus those occasions when the author was not writing about art but instead became art himself through the creative expression of another's talent To better understand the twenty four occasions he sat for others to represent him Michael Anesko reconstructs the specific contexts for these works coming into being assesses James's relationships with his artists and patrons documents his judgments concerning the objects produced and insofar as possible traces the later provenance of each of them James's long established intimacy with the studio world deepened his understanding of the complex relationship between the artist and his sitter James insisted above all that a portrait was a revelation of two realities the man whom it was the artist's conscious effort to reveal and the artist or interpreter expressed in the very quality and temper of that effort The product offered a double vision the strongest dose of life that art could give and the strongest dose of art that life could give
