Summertime Reading List 180 Books You Need to Read Vol I is a sweeping anthology that brings together a remarkable collection of literary giants from various epochs and styles presenting a testament to the diversity and richness of global literature. The collection captures the essence of human experience from the imaginative voyages of Jules Verne and the whimsical journeys of Lewis Carroll to the psychological depths of Sigmund Freud and the profound social commentaries of Charles Dickens. Each piece carefully selected for its enduring impact and literary merit offers a unique window into the human condition making this anthology an indispensable resource for understanding the evolution of narrative art through poetic, philosophical and dramatic forms. The contributing authors represent some of the most influential voices across the centuries: writers who have shaped literary movements and cultural dialogues worldwide. From the existential explorations of Dostoevsky and the pioneering works of Jane Austen to the transcendental reflections of Thoreau and the revolutionary poetics of Walt Whitman, this anthology captures a vast range of perspectives. Under the curatorial eye of the editors, these works converge to reflect on societal norms, philosophical inquiries and the endless complexities of life, inviting readers to engage with each piece not just as literature but as cultural artefacts offering insights into their respective historical contexts. This expansive volume offers readers not only a chance to immerse themselves in the masterful storytelling of history's literary titans but also provides an educational journey through multiple literary landscapes and ideologies. Summertime Reading List 180 Books You Need to Read serves as both a passport to explore diverse literary traditions and a catalyst for intellectual discussion, making it a perfect companion for scholars, students and lovers of literature alike. It compels readers to discover the unending dialogue among these distinguished voices, each contributing to a broader understanding of humanity's narrative tapestry.

On Lightness in World Literature B. Scott, 2013-11-07. Despite the apparent ubiquity of light literature and despite the greater cultural prestige it has been afforded in recent decades, very little has been written on the adjective that actually defines this category. What precisely does it signify and what are some of the key strategies by which the effect of lightness is achieved within literary discourse? In this original and engaging study, Bede Scott explores the aesthetic quality of lightness as demonstrated by a diverse range of narratives spanning four different centuries and five different countries. In each case, he focuses on a specific type of lightness, whether it be the refined triviality of Sei Shonagon's Pillow Book, the ludic tendencies of Joaquim Maria Machado de Assis' Posthumous Memoirs of Br's Cubas, or the exhilarating and primitive vitality of Voltaire's Candide. By bringing together such disparate sources, Scott makes a strong case for the universality of this particular aesthetic value while also subjecting its underlying structural features to close critical scrutiny.

Mentoring in Eighteenth-Century British Literature and Culture

Anthony W. Lee, 2016-04-22 In the first collection devoted to mentoring relationships in British literature and culture the editor and contributors offer a fresh lens through which to observe familiar and lesser known authors and texts Employing a variety of critical and methodological approaches which reflect the diversity of the mentoring experiences under consideration the collection highlights in particular the importance of mentoring in expanding print culture Topics include John Wilmot the Earl of Rochester's relationships to a range of role models John Dryden's mentoring of women writers Alexander Pope's problematic attempts at mentoring the vexed nature of Jonathan Swift's cross gender and cross class mentoring relationships Samuel Richardson's largely unsuccessful efforts to influence Urania Hill Johnson and an examination of Elizabeth Carter and Samuel Johnson's as co mentors of one another's work Taken together the essays further the case for mentoring as a globally operative critical concept not only in the eighteenth century but in other literary periods as well

Reading Heresy Gregory Erickson, Bernard Schweizer, 2017-11-20 Heresy studies is a new interdisciplinary supra religious and humanist field of study that focuses on borderlands of dogma probes the intersections between orthodoxy and heterodoxy and explores the realms of dissent in religion art and literature Free from confessional agendas and tolerant of both religious and non religious perspectives heresy studies fulfill an important gap in scholarly inquiry and artistic production Divided into four parts the volume explores intersections between heresy and modern literature it discusses intricacies of medieval heresies it analyzes issues of heresy in contemporary theology and it demonstrates how heresy operates as an artistic stimulant Rather than treating matters of heresy blasphemy unbelief dissent and non conformism as subjects to be shunned or naively championed the essays in this collection chart a middle course energized by the dynamics of heterodoxy dissent and provocation yet shining a critical light on both the challenges and the revelations of disruptive kinds of thinking and acting
