Saints And Latin Decadence:

Saints and Latin Decadence Terrel Hale, 2001 What follows is not a story It is descriptions of instinct and desire of the secular and holy It is in a way what I see the purpose of art being This is a novel that doesn't behave It does not participate in good manners Samuel Beckett said that the task of the artist is to find a form to accommodate the mess This novel trusts the reader to do the work of narrating connections and stretches the assumptions about what texts are I disrupt old narratives not because I have no faith in narratives but because I mean for the reader to see in my gaps and verbal impasses the opening for new narratives I have aided the metamorphosis from narrative into non narrative by experimenting with typography This is a book that has to be turned over and side ways in order that it be read both as pictures and text This is a novel existing in the space of poetry creating an effect that adorns the action where the effect is more than the action It is prose written with the intensity of poetry a prose poem or something in between with more extended meditation in the same tradition of Edgar Allen Poe's Eureka or Baudelaire's Prose Poems or Bernadette Mayer's extended studies where the sentences keep accruing Here there is no epiphany at any moment or no epiphany at all and because of this this work is intentionally disorienting and disconcerting One of my intentions was to be as close to nature as possible Working outdoors was my inspiration and the primary object of my study My aim was to respond to the scene before me to avoid conventional ways of seeing and to fill my work with a sense of open air rather than studied light A Study of the Vocabulary and Rhetoric of the Letters of Saint Augustine Sister Wilfrid Parsons, 1923 Against the Grain Joris-Karl Huysmans, 1922
