Still Struggling for Equality Plummer A. Jones, 2004-12-30 A companion volume to Immigrants and the American Experience 1999 this book covers American public library services to immigrants from 1876 to 2003 As such it provides an excellent text on public library services to diverse groups and multiculturalism in public libraries It presents a detailed exposition of immigration law accompanied by an analysis of laws affecting libraries These legislative activities are placed in the context of library practice and the library profession treating fully developments within ALA and the government agencies tasked with the funding and oversight of libraries

SALALM, the First Fifty Years Nancy L. Hallock, 2008 The Women's Revolution in Mexico, 1910-1953 Stephanie Evaline Mitchell, Patience Alexandra Schell, 2007 This book reinvigorates the debate on the Mexican Revolution exploring what this pivotal event meant to women The contributors offer a fresh look at women's participation in their homes and workplaces and through politics and community activism Drawing on a variety of perspectives the volume illuminates the ways women variously accepted contested used and manipulated the revolutionary project Recovering narratives that have been virtually written out of the historical record this book brings us a rich and complex array of women's experiences in the revolutionary and post revolutionary era in Mexico

Dictionary of American Library Biography Donald G. Davis, 2003-01-30 This second supplement to DALB the Dictionary of American Library Biography 1978 adds 77 notable deceased members of the library and archival communities to the 302 entries in the main volume and the 51 entries in the first supplement 1990 The second supplement includes primarily those figures who died between 1987 and the end of the year 2000 though some 13 entries provide sketches for notable persons whose death dates are somewhat earlier and who were not included in earlier works Among the entries are a number of African Americans and nearly one half of the entries are women Some 80 contributors from the United States and Canada provided sketches many based on original source material This supplement follows the practice and format of the earlier volumes though it allows presidents of the American Library Association to compete for inclusion with other nominations

Building Area Studies Collections Dan C. Hazen, James H. Spohrer, 2007 These essays by noted Area Studies specialists at a number of US research libraries serve as a practical and theoretical guide to university and college administrators library directors and heads of collection development as well as selection practitioners who work to create foreign language collections for research libraries The volume constitutes a general introduction for new practitioners and even the most experienced Area Studies librarians will find useful practical advice for reviewing and refining their existing collecting practices Coverage includes East Asia Latin

America Southeast Asia Africa South Asia and the Romance language areas of Europe as well as the German Nordic Netherlandic countries Each essay presents the Area Studies topic in question from an historical perspective and provides background on its present status and anticipated future development Special emphasis is placed on the techniques of both print and digital collecting and on the assessment methods by which collection strengths and future needs are determined Guidelines for expenditures for both collections and collateral activities such as providing access and preservation are provided and contributors also supply extensive documentation for the burgeoning array of online digital resources which have emerged in the past decade The volume editors Dan C Hazen Harvard and James H Spohrer University of California Berkeley also provide a general introduction to the topic and a detailed summary of current cooperative activities in Area Studies collecting
