The Names of Christ Luis de León, 1984 Whatever it was you expected when you heard about the new Classics of Western Spirituality TM series from Paulist Press forget it The real thing is better The Crux of Prayer Luis de León The Names of Christ translated and introduced by Manuel Duran and William Kluback preface by J Ferrater Mora As Christ is a source or rather is an ocean which holds in itself all that is sweet and meaningful that belongs to man in the same way the study of his person the revelation of the treasure is the most meaningful and dearest of all knowledge Luis de León 1527 1591 The Names of Christ is a masterpiece of the Golden Age of Spain Written in the style of a pastoral novel the work is a meditation on the philosophical and theological significance of the names of Christ Based on a careful examination of ten names given Christ in the Scriptures the book reflects elements of Augustinian Jewish and Islamic spirituality that were part of sixteenth century Spain Luis de León was born in 1527 in Belmonte a small village in the Castile region of Spain An Augustinian friar a brilliant professor an artful poet he was a true Renaissance man whose vision of the fullness of Christ sustained him in the face of persecution at the hands of the Inquisition and infused his writing with a sensitivity that has made The Names of Christ a treasure of Spanish literature and a classic of Catholic mysticism

Introduction to Scientific Psychology Henry D. Jr. Schlinger, Alan Poling, 2013-11-21 We humans are faced with an interesting problem That which we think we understand the most our own behavior we probably understand the least On the eve of a new millennium the planet is beset by a host of problems that are for the most part caused by human behavior Ironically although it seems that the greatest impact of our behavior is on the planet and its other inhabitants we may actually be threatening our own future the most For example we have caused untold harm to the air we breathe to the water we drink and by extension to much of the food we eat More important perhaps we have created a society in which among other things many people are anxious and depressed young women starve themselves and alcohol and cigarette use are responsible for hundreds of thousands of cases of illness and death every year And humans still murder one another at an astounding rate while at the same time continuing to affirm the value of human life At a time when it is critical that our children become educated more and more children are not learning the basic skills they will need to think logically so that they can begin to solve the world s problems The question may be not Can the planet survive but rather Can we humans survive and change our own destructive actions Although many scholars philosophers The name of Glasgow, and the history of Cumbria H J M.
