Sensible Life:

A Sensible Life Mary Wesley, 2013-11-12 This engaging and memorable novel set in post WWI England and France takes a wise witty look at love growing up and class differences Publishers Weekly For the British families who vacation there the shore town of Dinard France is a getaway from the ills of modern life But when Flora Trevelyan visits with her self absorbed parents in 1926 it s not an escape she finds instead it s a doorway into a different world a different life that she never knew existed As the years pass Flora embarks on a journey of discovery from falling for three very different young men to understanding the follies of an upper class society of which she will never quite be a part to uncovering the difference between true friends and fair weather companions Along the way her own life and those of her new acquaintances will be upended and as the shadows of World War II fall over Europe Flora will have to decide what kind of person she wants to be and whether being sensible makes sense Praised by the Daily Telegraph as delicious Mary Wesley s sharply humorous coming of age story weaves a tale of an unloved neglected child who turns into a fiercely independent woman both an entertaining romp and an astute glimpse into British society between the two World Wars Barbarism Michel

Henry, 2012-06-28 Barbarism represents a critique from the perspective of Michel Henry s unique philosophy of life of the increasing potential of science and technology to destroy the roots of culture and the value of the individual human being For Henry barbarism is the result of a devaluation of human life and culture that can be traced back to the spread of quantification the scientific method and technology over all aspects of modern life The book develops a compelling critique of capitalism technology and education and provides a powerful insight into the political implications of Henry s work It also opens up a new dialogue with other influential cultural critics such as Marx Husserl and Heidegger First published in French in 1987 Barbarism aroused great interest as well as virulent criticism Today the book reveals what for Henry is a cruel reality the tragic feeling of powerlessness experienced by the cultured person Above all he argues for the importance of returning to philosophy in order to analyse the root causes of barbarism in our world Raw Feeling Robert Kirk, 1994 Robert Kirk attempts to answer the problem of consciousness that derives from the notorious gap between our knowledge of ourselves as matter and our subjective knowledge of what we experience , Law and New Media Christian Delage, 2019-05-03 Will social media lead to social law The force of legal remediation Virtual courts and online judges Paperless trials Electronic discovery All of these novel legal developments impact how we conceive of the practice of law Here international specialists from new and established domains of law media film and virtual studies address the emergence of the jurist in the era of digital transmission From the cinema of the early 20th century to social media this volume explores the multiple intersections of these visual technologies and the law from the theoretical insight they generate to the nature of law to the impact they have on doctrinal development Marxism and Phenomenology Bryan Smyth, Richard Westerman, 2021-10-25 Marxism and Phenomenology The Dialectical Horizons of Critique edited by Bryan Smyth and Richard Westerman offers new perspectives on the possibility of a philosophical outlook that combines Marxism and phenomenology in the critique of capitalism. Although Marxism's focus on impersonal social structures and phenomenology's concern with lived experience can make these traditions appear conceptually incompatible, the potential critical force of a theoretical reconciliation inspired several attempts in the twentieth century to articulate a phenomenological Marxism. Updating and extending this approach, the contributors to this volume identify and develop new and previously overlooked connections between the traditions, offering new perspectives on Marx, Husserl, and Heidegger exploring themes such as alienation, reification, and ecology, and examining the intersection of Marxism and phenomenology in figures such as Michel Henry, Walter Benjamin, and Frantz Fanon. These glimpses of a productive reconciliation of the respective strengths of phenomenology and Marxism offer promising possibilities for illuminating and resolving the increasingly intense social crises of capitalism in the twenty-first century.

Entranced by Story Hugh Crago, 2014-04-24 We live in a world of stories yet few of us pause to ask what stories actually are, why we consume them so avidly, and what they do for story makers and their audiences. This book focuses on the experiences that good stories generate: feelings of purposeful involvement, elevation, temporary loss of self, vicarious emotion, and relief of tension. The author examines what drives writers to create stories and why readers fall under their spell; why some children grow up to be writers and how the capacity for creating and comprehending stories develops from infancy right through into old age. Entranced by Story applies recent research on brain function to literary examples ranging from the Iliad and Wuthering Heights to Harold and the Purple Crayon, providing a groundbreaking exploration of the biological and neurological basis of the literary experience. Blending research, theory, and biographical anecdote, the author shows how it is the unique structure of the human brain with its layering of sophisticated cognitive capacities upon archaic emotion-driven functions which best explains the mystery of story.

The 35 Doctors of the Church Rev. Fr. Christopher Rengers, 2014-08 The 35 Doctors of the Church presents the most comprehensive and fascinating collection available anywhere on the lives and labors of the saints who have been declared the Church's Doctors. From St. Athanasius c. 297-373 to St. Therese of Lisieux 1873-1897, you will find the amazing stories of 35 extraordinary men and women who are honored both for their holiness and for the eminence of their teachings about the Faith. Their work and witness are truly timeless; their lives and wisdom show us how to be holy in our own lives, how to confront the challenges of today, and how to proclaim the Gospel to a modern world hungering for Jesus Christ. Originally published as The 33 Doctors of the Church by Father Christopher Rengers O.F.M. Cap, The 35 Doctors of the Church has been updated by Dr. Matthew E. Bunson, K.H.S., to include two new chapters about recently proclaimed Doctors: St. John of the Virgin Mary and St. Hildegard of Bingen. The revised edition also includes a new Introduction with a detailed explanation of how the Church proclaims Doctors and their meaning for today.

Thoughts on Death and Immortality Ludwig Feuerbach, 2023-07-28

Never translated before Thoughts on Death and Immortality was the first published work of Ludwig Feuerbach 1804-1872. The scandal created by portrayal of Christianity as an egoistic and inhumane religion cost the young Hegelian his job and to some extent his career. Joining philosophical argument to epigram, lyric and satire, the work has three central arguments: first a straightforward denial of the Christian belief in personal immortality; second a plea for recognition of the inexhaustible quality of the only life we have; and third a derisive assault on the posturings and hypocrisies of the professional theologians of nineteenth-century Germany.

God's Priorities for Today's Woman Lisa Hughes, 2011-02-01. Modern-day feminism and the decline of solid Bible teaching in churches have left many women confused or unaware of God's high calling for their lives. Though the world changes, God's priorities have not. In Titus 2:3-5, the apostle Paul reveals the value God places upon a woman's character, her relationships, and her home. In God's Priorities for Today's Woman, popular Bible teacher Lisa Hughes explains and illustrates each priority that Paul describes, empowering Christian women to grow in their understanding of God and of what He considers important. Gain assurance they are living the life God desires; they will be equipped to grow in each priority area, learn how to minister more effectively to other women. God's Priorities for Today's Woman will equip women of all ages to grow in godly living. Study questions effective for individual or small group use are included at the end of each chapter.
