Looking Through The Keyhole Dissenting Essays On The Black Experience:

Looking Through the Keyhole N. C. Manganyi, 1981 Being Black in the World N. Chabani Manganyi, 2019-09-01 An annotated edition of a classic text by South Africa's first black psychologist a collection of essays reflecting on what it meant to be black during the apartheid years Being Black in the World one of N Chabani Manganyi's first publications was written in 1973 at a time of global socio political change and renewed resistance to the brutality of apartheid rule and the emergence of Black Consciousness in the mid 1960s Manganyi is one of South Africa's most eminent intellectuals and an astute social and political observer He has written widely on subjects relating to ethno psychiatry autobiography black artists and race In 2018 Manganyi's memoir Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist was awarded the prestigious ASSAf The Academy of Science of South Africa Humanities Book Award Publication of Being Black in the World was delayed until the young Manganyi had left the country to study at Yale University His publishers feared that the apartheid censorship board and security forces would prohibit him from leaving the country and perhaps even incarcerate him for being a radical revolutionary The book found a limited public circulation in South Africa due to this censorship and original copies were hard to come by This new edition is an invitation to a younger generation of citizens to engage with early decolonialising thought by an eminent South African intellectual While the essays in this book are clearly situated in the material and social conditions of that time they also have a timelessness that speaks to our contemporary concerns regarding black subjectivity affectivity and corporeality the persistence of a racial and racist order and the possibilities of a renewed de colonial project Each of these short essays can be read as self contained reflections on what it meant to be black during the apartheid years Manganyi is a master of understatement and yet this does not stop him from making incisive political criticisms of black subjugation under apartheid The essays will reward close study for anyone trying to make sense of black subjectivity and the persistence of white insensitivity to black suffering Ahead of its time the ideas in this book are an exemplary demonstration of what a thoroughgoing and rigorous de colonial critique should entail The re publication of this classic text is enriched by the inclusion of a foreword and annotation by respected scholars Garth Stevens and Grahame Hayes respectively and an afterword by public intellectual Njabulo S Ndebele

The Politics of Race, Class and Nationalism in Twentieth Century South Africa S. Mark, Stanley Trapido, S. Marks, 2014-09-25 The standard of contribution is high the reader gets a good sense of the cutting edge of historical research African Affairs Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2012-08-01 Apartheid and Beyond offers trenchant historically sensitive readings of writings by Coetzee Gordimer Fugard Tlali Dike Magona and Mda focusing on the intimate relationship between place subjectivity and literary form It also explores the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons Throughout the study Rita Barnard provides historical context by highlighting key events such as colonial occupation the creation of black townships migration forced removals the emergence of informal settlements and the gradual integration of white cities

Apartheid and Beyond is both an innovative account of an important body of politically inflected literature and an imaginative reflection on the socio spatial aspects of the transition from apartheid to democracy

A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial Derek Hook, 2012-03-15

An oft neglected element of postcolonial thought is the explicitly psychological dimension of many of its foundational texts This unprecedented volume explores the relation between these two disciplines by treating the work of a variety of anti colonial authors as serious psychological contributions to the theorization of racism and oppression This approach demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial thought for critical social psychology and opens up novel perspectives on a variety of key topics in social psychology These include the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the unconscious dimension of stereotypes the intersection of psychological and symbolic modalities of power In addition the book makes a distinctive contribution to the field of postcolonial studies by virtue of its eclectic combination of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Homi Bhabha Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj Žižek The South African focus serves to emphasize the ongoing historical importance of the anti apartheid struggle for today's globalized world

A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial is an invaluable text for social psychology and sociology students enrolled in courses on racism or cultural studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues

Psychoanalysis in the Age of Totalitarianism Matt Ffytche, Daniel Pick, 2016-05-20

Psychoanalysis in the Age of Totalitarianism provides rich new insights into the history of political thought and clinical knowledge In these chapters internationally renowned historians and cultural theorists discuss landmark debates about the uses and abuses of the talking cure and map the diverse psychologies and therapeutic practices that have featured in and against tyrannical modern regimes These essays show both how the Freudian movement responded to and was transformed by the rise of fascism and communism the Second World War and the Cold War and how powerful new ideas about aggression destructiveness control obedience and psychological freedom were taken up in the investigation of politics They identify important intersections between clinical debate political analysis and theories of minds and groups and trace influential ideas about totalitarianism that took root in modern culture after 1918 and still resonate in the twenty first century At the same time they suggest how the emergent discourses of totalitarian society were permeated by visions of the unconscious Topics include the psychoanalytic theorizations of anti-Semitism the psychological origins and impact of Nazism the post war struggle to rebuild liberal democracy state funded experiments in mind control in Cold War America coercive re education programmes in Eastern Europe and the role of psychoanalysis in the politics of decolonization A concluding trio of chapters argues in various ways for the continuing relevance of psychoanalysis and of these mid century debates over the psychology of power submission and freedom in modern mass society

Psychoanalysis in the Age of Totalitarianism will prove compelling for both specialists and readers with a general interest in modern psychology politics culture and society and in psychoanalysis The material is relevant for academics and post graduate students in the human social and political sciences the clinical professions the historical profession and the humanities more widely

Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist N. Chabani Manganyi, 2016-05-01 This intriguing memoir details in a quiet and restrained manner with what it meant to be a committed black intellectual activist during the apartheid years and beyond Few autobiographies exploring the life of the mind and the history of ideas have come out of South Africa and N Chabani Manganyi's reflections on a life engaged with ideas the psychological and philosophical workings of the mind and the act of writing are a refreshing addition to the genre of life writing Starting with his rural upbringing in Mavambe Limpopo in the 1940s Manganyi's life story unfolds at a gentle pace tracing the twists and turns of his journey from humble beginnings to Yale University in the USA The author details his work as a clinical practitioner and researcher as a biographer as an expert witness in defence of opponents of the apartheid regime and finally as a leading educationist in Mandela's Cabinet and in the South African academy Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist is a book about relationships and the fruits of intellectual and creative labour Manganyi describes how he used his skills as a clinical psychologist to explore lives both those of the subjects of his biographies and those of the accused for whom he testified in mitigation his aim always to find a higher purpose and a higher self

Foundational African Writers Bhekizizwe Peterson, Khwezi Mkhize, Makhosazana Xaba, 2022 The essays in this collection were crafted in celebration of the centenaries in 2019 of Peter Abrahams Noni Jabavu Sibusiso Cyril Lincoln Nyembezi and Es'kia Mphahlele all of whom were born in 1919 All four centenarians lived rich and diverse lives across several continents In the years following the Second World War they produced more than half a century of foundational creative writing and literary criticism and made stellar contributions to institutions and repertoires of African and black arts and letters in South Africa and internationally The range of the centenarians' imaginations critical analyses and social interventions spanned disciplinary divides This volume in the same spirit draws on approaches that are equally transdisciplinary Two aims thread through the contributors' reflections on the complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians' key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers' legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters

The World Looks Like This From Here Kopano Ratele, 2019-09-01 Builds a compelling case for thinking and doing psychology differently in and for Africa What does the world look like from Africa What does it mean to think feel express without apology for being African How does one teach society and children to be African with full consciousness and pride In institutions of learning what would a textbook on African centred psychology look like How do researchers and practitioners engage in African social psychology African centred child development African neuropsychology or any area of psychology that situates African realities at the centre Questions such as these are what Kopano Ratele grapples with in this lyrical philosophical and poetic treatise on practising African psychology in a decolonised world view Employing a style common in philosophy but rarely used in psychology the book offers thoughts about the ideas contestation urgency and desire around a psychological praxis in Africa for Africans While setting out a framework for researching teaching and practicing African psychology the book in part coaxes in part commands and in part urges students of psychology lecturers researchers and therapists to reconsider and reach beyond their received notions of African psychology

Chabani Manganyi, David Attwell, 2009-11-01 When Chabani Manganyi published the first edition of selected letters twenty five years ago as a companion volume to Exiles and Homecomings A Biography of Es kia Mphahlele the idea of Mphahlele s death was remote and poetic The title Bury Me at the Marketplace suggested that immortality of a kind awaited Mphahlele in the very coming and going of those who remember him and whose lives he touched. It suggested too the energy and magnanimity of Mphahlele the man whose personality and intellect as a writer and educator would carve an indelible place for him in South Africa's public sphere. That death has now come and we mourn it. Manganyi's words at the time have acquired a new significance in the symbolic marketplace he noted the drama of life continues relentlessly and the silence of death is unmasked for all time. The silence of death is certainly unmasked in this volume in its record of Mphahlele's rich and varied life: his private words, his passions and obsessions, his arguments, his loves, hopes, achievements, and yes even some of his failures. Here the reader will find many facets of the private man translated back into the marketplace of public memory. Despite the personal nature of the letters, the further horizons of this volume are the contours of South Africa's literary and cultural history, the international affiliations out of which it has been formed, particularly in the diaspora that connects South Africa to the rest of the African continent and to the black presence in Europe and the United States. This selection of Mphahlele's own letters has been greatly expanded; it has also been augmented by the addition of letters from Mphahlele's correspondents among them such luminaries as Langston Hughes and Nadine Gordimer. It seeks to illustrate the networks that shaped Mphahlele's personal and intellectual life: the circuits of intimacy, intellectual inquiry, of friendship, scholarship and solidarity that he created and nurtured over the years. The letters cover the period from November 1943 to April 1987, forty-four of Mphahlele's mature years and most of his active professional life. The correspondence is supplemented by introductory essays from the two editors, by two interviews conducted with Mphahlele by Manganyi and by Attwell's insightful explanatory notes.

Skin Tight Louise Bethlehem, 2021-11-15. Skin Tight: Apartheid Literary Culture and its Aftermath traces the responses to the emergent paradigm of South African literary studies from the 1970s onwards. Embedded in the influential critical texts of the field, it claims are hidden narratives of land, race, gender, desire and embodiment. This volume explores these submerged dimensions of South African literary history and the influence they continue to exert well into the post-apartheid era. It suggests that significant continuities exist between late apartheid and post-apartheid literary culture and positions these against the interpretive horizon of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

Complicities Mark A. Sanders, 2002-12-25. A theoretically informed study of five major pro and anti-apartheid intellectuals showing the inevitability of complex and compromised positions and the impossibility of pure ones.

Whiteness and Nationalism Nasar Meer, 2020-12-17. Naming whiteness is becoming an increasingly pressing issue across a variety of social and political contexts. In this book, an international set of authors discuss how and why this has come to be the case. Studying whiteness as either a social identity or political ideology is a relatively recent area of scholarship. Unusually within the fields of race and ethnicity, it is a concept that sits at an intersection between historical privilege and identity. At the same time, white privilege is not universally shared in or can be distant to how many white people feel they experience their identities. Whiteness as a site of privilege is therefore not absolute but rather cross cut by a range of other concerns too Nonetheless recent political developments serve to illustrate the political potency of appeals to whiteness in a way that suggests whiteness coupled with nationhood is a central social and political topic In this book authors from the USA Australia and Europe consider the contemporary relationships between whiteness and national identity by focusing on mainstream electoral politics the normalisation of white supremacy and where whiteness stands in relation to pluralised national identities The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Identities: Global Studies in Culture and Power
