Major Problems In The History Of The Vietnam War:

Major Problems in the History of the Vietnam War Robert J. McMahon, 1990 Designed to encourage critical thinking about history the Major Problems in American History series introduces students to both primary sources and analytical essays on important topics in U S history Major Problems in the History of the Vietnam War incorporates a spate of new research and a number of recently declassified documents concerning the Vietnam War Mcmahon Major Problems In The History of The Vietnam War 3rd Ed + Griffith Major Problems In American History Since 1945 3rd Ed ,2007 Politically Incorrect Guide to the Vietnam War Phillip Jennings, 2010-02-02 The Vietnam War was a tragic and dismal failure at least that is what the mainstream media and history books would have you believe Yet Phillip Jennings sets the record straight in The Politically Incorrect Guide to the Vietnam War In this latest P I G Jennings shatters culturally accepted myths and busts politically incorrect lies that liberal pundits and leftist professors have been telling you for years The Vietnam War was the most important and successful campaign to defeat Communism Without the sacrifices made and the courage displayed by our military the world might be a different place The Politically Incorrect Guide to the Vietnam War reveals the truth about the battles players and policies of one of the most controversial wars in U S history Mcmahon Major Problems in the History of the Vietnam War Third Edition plus Griffith Major Problems in American History Since Nineteen Fortyfifth Edition Houghton Mifflin College Division, 2007-08-01 The Road to War Marvin Kalb, 2013-05-10 The Road to War examines how presidential commitments can lead to the use of American military force and to war Marvin Kalb notes that since World War II presidents have relied more on commitments public and private than they have on declarations of war even though the U S Constitution declares rather unambiguously that Congress has the responsibility to declare war

Major Problems in the History of American Technology Merritt Roe Smith, Gregory K. Clancey, 1998 What is technology New worlds of technique Native Americans and Europeans ca 1600 1770 Debate over manufactures in the Early Republic 1785 1820 Inside factory systems 1820 1885 Second Nature steam space and an new world order 1840 1900 Telephony 1872 1914 Inventing efficiency scientific management ca 1900 1939 Ford automobility and mass production 1908 1941 Toys were us invention and technological acculturation in hobbyist worlds 1900 1940 Pest war the shifting use and meaning of insecticides 1940 1990 Military Industrial University complex 1945 1990 Countdown to cyberspace 1974 1990 Major Problems in the History of World War II Mark A. Stoler, Melanie S. Gustafson, 2003 This text presents a carefully selected group of readings that allow students to evaluate primary sources test the interpretations of distinguished historians and draw their own conclusions The volume covers World War II from the homefront and the battlefield examining both the military and social impact of the war Understanding and Teaching the Vietnam War John Day Tully, Matthew Masur, Brad Austin, 2013-10-07 Part One Reflections on Teaching the Vietnam War Part Two Methods and Sources Part Three Understanding and Teaching Specific Content Looking for a Hero Peter Maslowski, Don Winslow, 2020-10-08 Widely acclaimed as the Vietnam War's most highly decorated soldier Joe Ronnie Hooper in many ways serves as a symbol for that conflict His troubled tempestuous life paralleled the upheavals in American society during the 1960s and 1970s and his desperate quest to prove his manhood was uncomfortably akin to the macho image projected by three successive presidents in their tough policy in Southeast Asia Looking for a Hero extracts the real Joe Hooper from the welter of lies and myths that swirl around his story in doing so the book uncovers not only the complicated truth about an American hero but also the story of how Hooper's war was lost in Vietnam not at home Extensive interviews with friends fellow soldiers and family members reveal Hooper as a complex gifted and disturbed man They also expose the flaws in his most famous and treasured accomplishment earning the Medal of Honor In the distortions half truths and outright lies that mar Hooper's medal of honor file authors Peter Maslowski and Don Winslow find a painful reflection of the army's inability to be honest with itself and the American public with all the dire consequences that this dishonesty ultimately entailed In the inextricably linked stories of Hooper and the Vietnam War the nature of that deceit and of America's defeat becomes clear

America in the World

Frank Costigliola, Michael J. Hogan, 2013-12-23 This volume includes historiographical surveys of American foreign relations since 1941 by some of the country's leading historians Some of the essays offer sweeping overviews of the major trends in the field of foreign international relations history Others survey the literature on US relations with particular regions of the world or on the foreign policies of presidential administrations The result is a comprehensive assessment of the historical literature on US foreign policy that highlights recent developments in the field

Building Ho's Army

Xiaobing Li, 2019-09-10 Built upon a solid foundation of sources memoirs and interviews this study sheds new light on China's efforts in the Vietnam War Utilizing secondary works in Chinese Vietnamese and Western languages and the author's own familiarity as a former member of the Chinese People's Liberation Army this examination expands the knowledge of China's relations with the North Vietnamese Army NVA during the 1950s and 1960s As a communist state bordering Vietnam China actively facilitated the transformation of Ho Chi Minh's army from a small loosely organized poorly equipped guerrilla force in the 1940s into a formidable well trained professional army capable of defeating first the French 1946 1954 and then the Americans 1963 1973 Even after the signing of the Geneva Peace Agreement China continued to aggressively support Vietnam Between 1955 and 1963 Chinese military aid totaled 106 million and these massive contributions enabled Ho Chi Minh to build up a strong conventional force After 1964 China increased its aid and provided approximately 20 billion more in military and economic aid to Vietnam Western strategists and historians have long speculated about the extent of China's involvement in Vietnam but it was not until recently that newly available archival materials revealed the true extent of China's influence its level of military assistance training strategic advising and monetary means during the war This illuminating study answers questions about China's intention objective strategy and operations of its involvement in the Vietnam Wars

Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations Michael J. Hogan, Thomas G. Paterson, 2004-01-19 Originally published in 1991 Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations has become an indispensable volume not only for teachers and students in international history and political science but also for general readers seeking an introduction to American diplomatic history This collection of essays highlights a variety of newer innovative and stimulating conceptual approaches and analytical methods used to study the history of American foreign relations including bureaucratic dependency and world systems theories corporatist and national security models psychology culture and ideology Along with substantially revised essays from the first edition this volume presents entirely new material on postcolonial theory borderlands history modernization theory gender race memory cultural transfer and critical theory The book seeks to define the study of American international history stimulate research in fresh directions and encourage cross disciplinary thinking especially between diplomatic history and other fields of American history in an increasingly transnational globalizing world

Turning Points—Actual and Alternate Histories Rodney P. Carlisle, J. Geoffrey Golson, 2007-09-01 Offering a unique approach to studying one of the most eventful eras in American history this volume looks at a dozen key events of the 1960s and 1970s and considers the possible paths history might have taken if the outcomes had been different This volume in the Turning Points Actual and Alternative Histories series looks at a tumultuous recent era in American history a time when pivotal often tragic world changing events seemed to be happening at an alarming rate America in Revolt during the 1960s and 1970s looks at 12 significant events from the assassination of John F Kennedy to the passage of the Civil Rights Act from the student killings at Kent State to Richard Nixon's resignation Drawing on the concepts of alternative history the book portrays each event as it happened then considers some plausible alternative scenarios of how history would have been different if these events had not occurred It is a uniquely thought provoking way of exploring an explosive era whose aftershocks continue to shape the American experience today

Making Sense of the Vietnam Wars Mark Philip Bradley, Marilyn B. Young, 2008-04-30 Making sense of the wars for Vietnam has had a long history The question why Vietnam dominated American and Vietnamese political life for much of the length of the wars and has continued to be asked in the decades since they ended This volume brings together the work of eleven scholars to examine the conceptual and methodological shifts that have marked the contested terrain of Vietnam War scholarship Editors Marilyn Young and Mark Bradley's superb group of renowned contributors spans the generations including those who were active during wartime along with scholars conducting research in Vietnamese sources and uncovering new sources in the United States former Soviet Union China and Eastern and Western Europe Ranging in format from top down reconsiderations of critical decision making moments in Washington Hanoi and Saigon to microhistories of the war that explore its meanings from the bottom up these essays comprise the most up to date collection of scholarship on the controversial historiography of the Vietnam Wars
